

0 sought for to improve the town and harbor the new bill.

ds of Gurrane, containing 61a situate near were sold at Cork on Tuesday by Mr Marsh, Mary O'Gorman, Fermoy, for £1,285.

rk and Gordon railway directors have given ern coursing club a handsome silver collar, ll be run for the middle of January.

owing appeared in part of last impression: Vodehouse, a young nobleman of great talent uity, son-in-law of the Earl Clare, is to be cretary for foreign affairs.

rnal Osborne is appointed Secretary to the y, Mr Granville Berkeley do to Poor law ad Sir George Turner Judge of the Court of vice Lord Cranworth, and Sir W Page Wood ncancellor, in room of Sir G Turner.

ish Brigade members will continue in Oppoorporation this day, on a division of 33 to 4 o present a farewell address to his Excellency Lieutenant.

Hayes has married her secretary and is now hnell.

s Cheyne, Esq. CE, has arrived at the offices merick and Ennis railway company, Har- ro commence immediate operations as Engi- chief on the new line.

stock of all kinds are looking up and will be request coming on spring.

ublin mail train was late this evening, and It d necessary to attach a second engine to the , to overcome the force of adverse wind.

e night of the storm the resident medical f Barringtons (Mr Bourke) never went to remained up dressing wounds and attending ts brought in with severe cuts from slates eral fractures of the arm, from persons being to the ground. He was also occupied all next accidents were thus dressed. We cannot too high an opinion of the value of this , open at all hours for the reception of acci- without hesitation or recommendation. Its position and the care extended to the poor in- l parties to seek the relief it so freely offers.

atched houses at Ballyneety were levelled round yesterday morning, but the inmates ely escaped before the catastrophe.

ublic works in progress at the western end of sustained considerable damage from the high d storm of Monday morning though they intact from that which raged on Christmas e Ashburn road, which was about being opened ublic by the contractor, has received no in- rable injury, some of the parapet walls having ept away, and the heavy coping thereon dis- But this can scarcely excite surprise, since a of the southern wall of the new Docks was nto the basin by the immense pressure of water as running 5 feet deep at the time on the hind. The low portion of the new Mungret s covered with water up to last evening, so e exact amount of damage cannot be yet ascer- The laborer's family living in the hut adjoin- e bridge were obliged to take refuge on the s of the latter, exposed, half naked, to the d flood, and early on Monday, having been d by a gentleman shooting, a boat was promptly their rescue.

ompany in the North Downshire Militia is by the death of Richard Dunne, Esq.

maurel hill convent school, on the eve of Christ- eation, the young ladies gave dramatic recita- English, French, and Italian.

Marshall sold by auction at Rathbane, on yes- for account of Thompson Russell, Esq, a Dairy Cows, Strippers, Bulls, &c, which the following prices:—In Cull Cows from e, down to £9 10s; Strippers, from £10 10s, £7 10s; Weanling Bull, 9 months old, by dinal, 15 guineas; 2½ year old Bull by Gipsev) guineas.

At Paris, M. Louis Maurette, of Rue de l'Oratoire, to Seno- lastica, daughter of Jas. Perry, Esq. Red Lion-square, London.

At Simon's Town, Cape of Good Hope, Beresford Scott, Esq. Paymaster of H. M.'s steam sloop Hydra, to Heloise Cecilia, daughter of Charles Wilhelm Frederic Bestandig, Esq.

At Tipperah, Bengal, Charles Steers, Esq. Civil Judge, to Jane, daughter of John Wetherell, Esq. of Farsoustown, King's County.

J. H. Gibbons, Esq. to Jessie, eldest daughter of the late Wm. Thompson, Esq. Office of Inland Revenue, Dublin.

At St. George's, Hanover-square, Sir Michael Shaw Stewart Bart., to Lady Octavia Grosvenor.

DEATHS.

At Rochdale, Lancashire, on the 21st ulto. in the 90th year of his age, to the very great regret of his relatives and friends, Richard Baker, Esq. Townhead, brother of the late Robert Baker, Esq. Limerick.

At Tullig House, Castleisland, Gertrude, wife of William England Young, Esq. and eldest daughter of the late Richard Taylor, Esq. of Rock Abbey, Askeaton.

At his house in Seafield, Milton Malbay, William Casey, Esq.—a good landlord and kind and charitable.

At his residence, Willmount, near Queenstown, Ottiwell Hayes, Esq. aged 73.

At the Strand, Clonakilty, Anne, wife of Henry B. Beamish, Esq. J. P. Muckruss.

At Ennis, Mr. John Woods.

At Waterford, Christopher Bolton Cole, Esq.

Emily, second daughter of the Rev. E. L. Moore, Rector of Cong. county Mayo.

At Duncan-street, Cork, Mary Agnes, daughter of Mr. Wm. A. Ellis, late of Killarney.

The Rev. Alexander Hurst, formerly of Lisnaskea, Rector of Castlelaney.

In Waterford, Mrs Freeman, wife of St. George Freeman, Esq. Surgeon Dentist.

At Monsea, Mrs. John Maber, mother of Rev. John Maher, C.O. Nenagh.

At Coal-quay, Cork, Mrs. Catherine Hanlan.

In Tallow, co. Waterford, Edmond Butler, Esq.

At the residence of her brother, Roundwood Park, county Wicklow, Hannah, relict of the late J. O. Gamble, Esq. Sudton House, Lancashire.

At the Baggot-street Convent, Miss Burke, daughter of the late Mr. Richard Burke, of Borrisoleigh.

In the 77th year of his age, Mr. John Coffee.

At Nassau-street, Captain De Rythre, of Riverstown House, county Kildare.

At Summer-hill, in the 85th year of her age, Hanna, relict of William Barrett, Esq.

At Belfield, Roebuck, Robert, son of Major Crompton.

At Usher's-quay, Arthur Brew, in his 19th year.

The Rev. Joseph Lytle, of Moyteeragh, aged 82. During 50 years he was minister in the Presbyterian Church.

At Beaumaris, Thos. Brown, eldest son of the late Rd. Brown, of Harcourt-street, and Rasey Park, county Dublin.

At Bath, Major Thomas John Parker Butler, son of the late Sir T. Butler, Bart. Garryhinden, Ballintemple, co. Carlow.

At his residence, Mill-street, Hanover-square, Edward Twycross, Esq. late of Dublin, Solicitor.

At Hayes-grove, Kent, Mrs. M. M. Fraser, eldest daughter of the late Lieut. General Mackenzie Fraser.

At Windsor, J. Powell, Esq. Military Knight, and late 77th Regiment, in his 84th year.

At his sister's, Northampton, Captain John Lumley, late 6th Regiment of Foot, and son of the late General Sir J. R. Lumley, K.C.B. Adjutant General of the Bombay Army.

At Liverpool, Captain William M'Fie, late of the Mona's Isle steamer.

At Bath, R. Rogers, Esq. of Stanage Park, near Ludlow, formerly M.P. for Bishop's Castle.

On Christmas Day, at Northampton, Edward Charles, eldest son of E. H. Barwell, Esq.

At Birch House, near Hereford, aged 76, Kedgwin Hoskins, Esq. a deputy lieutenant and magistrate for that county.

William Stone, of Leighton Buzzard, Esq. late of Gray's-Thurrock, Essex, and formerly 69th Regt.

At Grosvenor-park, Camberwell, Captain George Porter, formerly 61st Regiment, in his 78th year.

At Brighton, Mary Marsh, widow of Lt.-Col. Buckner, C.B. late Royal Artillery.

At Tottenham, aged 92, Elizabeth, relict of W. Beer, Esq.

At Greystoke, the Rev. Henry Askew, in his 87th year.

At Albert-road, Regent's Park, Mary Ann, widow of James U. M. Leith, Esq. Captain 68th Regt.

At Bath, in her 90th year, Mrs. Harriet Maltby.

In Upper Harley-street, Anna Maria, daughter of the late Admiral Sir Charles Morice Pole, G.C.B.

At Cannon-hill, Surrey, William Simpson, Esq.

At New York, the Rev. J. J. Regan, son of Mr. Joseph Regan, formerly of Cork.

At Fort St. Elmo, Malta, of fever, Serjeant Gerald Rochfort Brady, of "The Buffs."

At Cape Town, Cape of Good Hope, Catharina, relict of Wm. Caldwell, Esq.

On the 23d of October last, en route to Ceylon, Staff Assis- tant Surgeon Rowland Agar, son of the late John H. Agar, Esq. of Ballyhar, county Kerry, and formerly of the 43d Regt.

On board the Arethusa, at Gibraltar, Lewis James Evans, naval cadet.

Of cholera, Capt. Randall, Madras Engineers.

Mr. Michael Cashman, Grand Parade, Cork.

At Harcourt Terrace, Meliora, wife of G. W. Creighton, Esq. Q.C.

Marianne, daughter of Rev. James Crofton, of Dunleer.

At the Retreat, Clones, Francis Wm. Fitzgerald, Esq.

Lieut. O'Brien Casey, R.N., of the Royal Hospital, Green- wich, aged 75.

Edward Taylor Massy and John Synan, praying a Partition might be made of All That, the LA BALLYVADDOCK, situate in the Baronies of Connelloe and Kenry, and County of Limerick.

Now, all persons claiming an interest in the Lands and Premises are hereby required to Notice of Objection (if any they have) to such tion, and to lodge same in the office of the Sec on or before the 20th day of January next, and Commissioners will, on the 25th day of Januar or as soon after as conveniently may be, proce hear the application for such Partition, and ma order thereon as to them shall appear just.

Dated this 24th day of December, 1852.

HENRY CAREY, R., (S

GEORGE WESTROPP, Esq, Solicitor for Taylor Massy, 60, Dame street, Dublin, and mond Place, Limerick.

THE ART-JOURNAL

A NEW VOLUME of the ART JOURNAL commence with the New Year. The P January will contain highly finished Engravin steel, from two of the most celebrated PICTU the VERNON GALLERY—"The South Sea ble," by EM Ward, ARA; and "Uncle To the Widow," by CR Leslie, RA. Mr Bell's b Group of Sculpture, "The Children in the W the subject of another steel plate.

The Illustrated Articles in the January Par ART-JOURNAL consist of—1. "Dress as Art," by Mrs Merrifield; 2. "The Domest ners of the English during the Middle Ages," Wright, F.S.A; 3. "The Great Masters of A 19—Nicholas Poussin;" 4. "Scott's Lady Lake;" 5. "The Progress of Art Manufactur "An Artist's Ramble from Antwerp to Rom "Passages in the Voyage of Life," by F Miller tor; and 8. The First Page of a Monthly Ill Almanac, designed and drawn on the wood Hay, and engraved by Messrs Dalziel.

The utmost efforts will be continued by contributors, and publishers to maintain t position which this journal occupies as the o quate Art Journal of Europe.

Published by G. Virtue and Co. Paternost J

KANTURK UNION.

THE Board of Guardians of the above will, at their Meeting on Thursday, th January 1853, entertain Tenders for supply following Articles, to be delivered at the Wo carriage free, viz:—

Best Flour at — per Ton } for 3 mont
Do Whole Meal at — per ton } the 6th of Ja

Sealed Tenders, with samples, will be rec me up to 4 o'Clock, p m. on Wednesday, the January, 1853.

Poor-law Union Office, 30th of Dec 1852.

By Order,
WM. O'BRIEN
Clerk of U

P S—The Guardians will not necessarily ac lowest Tender.

CROOM UNION. Notice to Creditors.

ALL persons having any demands on the G of the Croom Union, are hereby require nish their accounts up to the 1st January, or before the 7th Inst.

Any person neglecting to comply with thi will not be attended to after the above date.

By order,
R. COSTELLOE,
Clerk of Board Room, Jan. 1st, 1853.