

counties and to make out an appointments, and to be laid before the public requirement of an medical in- of Dr. Parker the house sur- ords of which ad professional umerous, trying his office. Dr ts have become bin the city in- continuance of nently crowned nd professional sand members ow waited upon n on his elec- eilly presented xander suitably ighly gratified e, and Messrs ited upon E W e situation of t 3 years, and ess on his pro- Alton, for the rosecuted three ch of the fishery n in the river er bailiff. The s imprisonment voted £200 to of Castlowi- y, by order of in three lots, yd, £770; and Bishop's Island, possession of s parish night he lower quays. Carrickmacross or her Majesty ay 3d, Lough- Roxboro; 14 apel; 21 Fan- cora Cross. ay, 3d, Britas th, Killonan; n; 21st, Boher ge Cross. y, 4th inst. at lla; and 10th, formed in this ht, in the beau- The house was e and discerning trical skill and , both charac- sustained. at the Theatre attended, and he programme with

The Rev. Frederick William Mann, son of Dr. Mann, late Royal Staff corps, Guernsey, to Eleanor Mary, daughter of the Rev. Mark James Pattison, Rector of Huxwell.

DEATHS.

At the house of her son-in-law, Henry Poarde, Esq. Millview, Fermoy, Sarah Barry Beckett, relict of Captain Joseph Beckett, R.N. and daughter of Richard Dunscombe, Cork, Esq.
 At Crookville, county Waterford, Ruth, widow of the late Capt. Wm. Manning, 40th Regt. and daughter of the late Lionel Stephens, Esq. of Dromina, same county.
 At Smithstown House, Julienstown, Sarah Dowager Lady Dillon, aged 74 years, relict of the late Sir Charles Dillon, Bt. of Lisnullen Park, county Meath.
 At his residence in Charleville, Richard Johnson, Esq. formerly Captain in the North Cork Militia, and brother of Colonel Johnson, late of the 5th Fusiliers.
 In Henry-street, Ann, wife of the late Mr. Patrick Boland, master cooper.
 At his residence in Francis-street, Mr. Francis Blackwell, aged 81 years.
 On Sunday morning, at South Terrace, Cork, Mrs. Mary Cross Coleman, aged 65 years.
 In Barkkeate, much regretted, Mr. John Gueron.
 In Kish, where he had been on a visit to his daughter, Mr. Samuel Phillips, of Newport, father of Head Constable Phillips, of Croom. He was an exceedingly industrious and upright man.
 Mary, relict of the late Theobald Jennings, Esq. of Fountain Hill, county Mayo.
 At Thomond-square, Cork, Mary, relict of the late Mr. P. Lyons.
 At Tullamore, Philip Bolton, Esq. Medical Practitioner.
 At Balmrobe, Joseph Hearn, Esq.
 At Rathmines, Celia, relict of Roger O'Beirne, Esq.
 At Gardiner's-place, Elizabeth Melesina, relict of the late Henry M'Clintock, Esq. of Dundalk, and daughter of the late George L. Fleury, LL.D. Archdeacon of Waterford.
 At Queen-street, Anne, wife of Mr. Patrick Delany.
 At Harold's-cross, J. Minna, wife of Mr. Wm. Jackson.
 At Castlein House, Robert Mansfield, Esq.
 At her house in Blessington-street, in her 76th year, Eliza Frances, relict of Thomas Richard Babington, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, one of the magistrates at Head Police-office, Dublin.
 At Blessington-st. Bulkeley, son of Wm. G. Chamney, Esq.
 After two days illness, at Millmount Barracks, Drogheda, Captain Graves, of the 15th Regt.
 At Kiltarney, on the 24th inst. Mary M'Carthy, aged 114.
 In Boyle, Mary, wife of John Mulhall, Esq. and daughter of the late Timothy M'Dermott, Esq. of Kiltarra, county Sligo.
 At Roscommon, Richard George, son of Richard Johnston, Esq.
 At Fairymount, Blackrock, the Rev. W. Steele, Curate of Inniskeed, county Monaghan.
 At Ardroulin Place, Belfast, Lydia Ann, wife of D. Mackay Esq.
 James Logan, Esq. formerly of Knowhead, in his 79th year.
 Mr. Edward Darley, teacher of George-st. National School, Newtownards, and Ruling Elder of the Presbyterian Church.
 At Kiplin, Yorkshire, John Delaval, Earl of Tyrconnell, G.C.H. in his 63d year.
 At Great Cumberland-street, Georgiana, widow of Lieut.-General Sir George Quentin, G.B. and K.C.H.
 At Sloane-square, Mr. H. S. P. Burgess.
 At Walcot, the Rev. James Pears, B.C.L. Rector of Charlcombe, and Head Master of the Grammar School, Bath.
 At Bristol, Elizabeth, relict of the Rev. Joseph Bowes, Wesleyan Minister, in her 85th year.
 The Rev. Robert Davers, aged 82, Rector of Bradfield St. George, and of Roughton, county of Suffolk, for 51 years, son of the late Sir Charles Davers, Bart. of Rushbrooke Park, Suffolk, brother of the Dowager Lady Osborn.
 Suddenly, at the Rectory House, Wootton, the Rev. Edward Shepherd Croft.
 In London, Amy Josephine, daughter of Sir Norton and Lady Knatchbull.
 At Brighton, Michael John Geoghegan, Esq. of Regent-st London, in his 68th year.
 At Mapplewell, Leicestershire, Edward Crompton, Esq.
 At the Rectory, Redmarley, Worcestershire, the Rev. Jas. Commelin, Rector, and Senior Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge.
 At Plymouth, Jane Anderson, daughter of Captain W. A. Morshead, R.N. C.B.
 Mr. Mullis, aged 73, late of Plymouth, and sergeant in the South Devon Militia.
 At the Palace, Norwich, aged 76, Mrs. Howell, mother of the Lord Bishop of Norwich.
 In the Temple, Edward Guy, Esq. aged 78.
 Wm. M'Murdo Duncan, Esq. of Toxeth Villa, Toxeth Park, Liverpool, aged 84.
 At Anlaby, near Hull, John C. Cankrein, Esq. Consul of the Netherlands, aged 78.
 At Hull, aged 83, George Fox, Esq. Commander R.N.
 At Columbus, United States, Miss Deborah O'Keefe, late of this City.
 At New York, Mr. John Love, son of the late Mr. John Love, of Paul-street, Cork.
 The Rev. John Regan, assistant pastor of St. Paul's Church, Brooklyn, in the 28th year of his age. Mr. Regan was a native of the south of Ireland.
 At Brooklyn, New York, Mrs. Dixon, wife of Captain Dixon, and niece of Justin Supple, Esq. Solicitor, Tralee.
 At Campbelltown, the Rev. Hugh Robert Gilchrist, Minister of the Scots' Church there, and Moderator of the Synod of Australia in 1851.
 At Couleuts, Maria Frances, sister of the late Dr. K. N. Bancroft, Deputy Inspector General of Hospitals to the Forces in Jamaica.
 At Heytesbury Terrace, James Jellett, Esq. of Bandon.
 Mr. Jas. Gillespie, of her Majesty's Customs, Londonderry.
 At Sydney, New South Wales, John M'Creery, Esq. last Sheriff of Kilkenny, under the old corporation.

winner of a Steeple chase.
MICHA
 NB—Several dealers to be in attendance.
Hartigan's H
 NO
To be Sold by Auction Monthly Sale, on Saturday next, the property of a good use of them,
 A Pair of C
 well matched, with bang seven years old in May with grand high stepping in harness, and have been They are in fine condition blemish.
 To be seen at the Re the sale, and a fair trial
MICHA
 Jan 26.

HARTIGAN'S HORSE RA
 NO
HARTIGAN'S next largest in Ireland, the 5th February Next, to be held on the First SA throughout the year. first class Hunters, Horses, Roadsters, Lad adapted for general use sale, will please to send the Catalogue is fast filling Scotch dealers will be in the English market.
MICHA

P.S.—There are always Horses for private sale, or allowed, and every satisfac

Hartigan's H
 NO
To be sold by Auction Monthly Sale on Saturday Next, the celebrated Sta
SO
 Sordid was bred by Lord mist out of the famous M rey Clinker out of Smoke Steam; Steam by Wax and is half brother to the HAR
 Sordid is a rich dark stands 16 hands high, on and muscle, and is consid one of the strongest Thor He never started but on Maryborough, beating M others; he is now in gran tion; he has proved hims has been a great many o last two years, some of v that to a hundred and a would be invaluable to a to a country where men "Sordid," if racing qual soundness of constitution Turf, weight-carrying hu horses, to seize on the p ted to £400. Assisted House in the City of in for several officitor, Glent- or Gardiner-st.
 January 26.

 Feb. 2.