ter of the late Right Hon. John O. Vandeleur.

At his house in Richmond Place, on the morning of the 14th inst. after a lingering illness, marked by the most pious resignation and perfect submission to the will of God, George John O'Connell, Esq. in the 54th year of his age, only son of the late John O'Connell, Esq. of Garryowen, in this City, the eminent brewer—a gentleman whose good name has been for the last generation fondly associated with the local annals of Limerick. The late Mr. George John O'Connell inherited all the benevolent and charitable feelings of his revered father, with naturally frank, endearing manners—a serene, cheerful temper—combined with principles of the strictest honor, patriotism and integrity in every relation of his life. The death of the last of his name and race, at a comparatively early age, and in his person one of the noblest developments of physical manhood, has diffused a profound sensation of regret throughout every class of our fellow-citizens. His remains will be interred at 12 o'clock this night, in the family burial-place, parish of Donoughmore, by torch light.

On Saturday, at his house, Great Queen-street, Westminster, order.

Lot No. 3 comprises the Castle and Mills of Cast le matrix, with 2 plantation Acres of Land. The Castle, once a Fortalice of the Earls of Desmond, has been repaired and added to by the owner, regardless of expense. There are 9 Bedrooms in the Castle, besides Dressing Closets, Bathrooms, Waterclosets, a large Diningroom, Drawingroom and Library, with extensive suits of servants' apartments, and the entire fitted up in elegant and substantial style.

The Mill Concerns on this lot present a fine opening for a spirited Capitalist, being situate in the centre of an extensive Wheat Country, with an unfailing Water Power. The Machinery is of the best description, with all the modern improvements. There are at present in full Working order six pair of Grinding Stones, and a Pair of Shelling Stones, with all the necessary accompanying Machinery, Lifters, Separat-ters &c. in perfect working order; also, a complete set of Oatmeal Machinery, with Storage for 12,000 barrels of Corn. The floors are laid down with three inch plank. The roofing and floor timbers are of the best materials. A Threshing Mill is attached to the Flour Mill, and is worked by one of the wheels.— There are extensive ranges of Offices enclosing the Yards, viz—Miller's House, Carpenter's House Stabling for 17 Horses, Coach House, Cow Houses Piggery, Steaming House, Barn, Turf Sheds, Bake House, with Three Ovens, in working order, Forge Fowl House, &c. &c. all in thorough repair. A Scutch Mill could be advantageously got up, as there is sufficient Water Power to drive a much larger amount of Machinery, and the surroundig country well adapted for the growth of Flax, Askeaton, a Port on the Shonnon, is but 5 Miles distant; Vessels of 200 Tons can discharge at the Quay; and the contemplated Railway from Limerick to Fonges will pass within 2 Miles of this Lot, and within a Mile of Lots 1 and 2.

For Rentals, and further information, apply at the Offices of the Commissioners, 14, Henrietta-street, Dublin, and to Messrs Delmege and Ferguson, Solicitors' for the Owno, 6, Lower Gloucester-street, Dublin.
