The First half-yearly Great Fair will be held on TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY, the 26th and 27th of APRIL, 1853, for the sale of all kinds of Stock—

*The First Day for Horned Cattle and Sheep,
The Second Day for Horses, Pigs, &c. and all Unsold Stock.*

The Commissioners having unlimited powers under the Act, will hereafter extend the number of days for holding the Fairs as required, of which due notice will be given.

The Promoters of this Fair have much satisfaction in announcing that all arrangements have been completed for commencing their Fairs in the present Spring, affording the earliest opportunity to the breeders of Stock throughout the South of Ireland of securing all the advantages of a Great Mart for the purchase and sale of all kinds of Cattle, Horses, &c., such as cannot be excelled in the United Kingdom, combining extensive and cheap Railway communication, of which the remote buyers will gladly avail themselves and attend the Fairs regularly.

This being the commencement of a project of vast importance to the South of Ireland, it is fully expected that the Fairs will be largely supplied with the best breeds of Cattle, Sheep, Horses, Pigs, &c.

The FAIR GREEN, contiguous to the City and Railway Terminus, has been judiciously and carefully selected, and will be arranged and managed so as to give the utmost facility to the transaction of business; and the Railway Companies have made arrangements to give every aid to the object.

The project has met with universal approbation, and with the central position which Limerick occupies in the midst of the most fertile district in Ireland, having abundant means of communication in every direction, and having the convenience and facility of large Banking Establishments, as well as the superior accommodation afforded by its several Hotels, Lodgings, extensive Stabling, grazing Parks, &c. together with the active and zealous co-operation promised by the principal Buyers and Sellers, the Commissioners have every assurance that entire success will attend the important undertaking.
