

er.
he City, by the new th of without 2
acres.
RD DICKSON, Ver-
24, Upper Cecil-
Feb 19.

ay.
T. n and D esne of 3 miles keaton
ad.
late re and G de valled in acres,,
wall.
RD DICKSON, Ver-
Feb 19.

. in our next.

CHRONICLE

MARCH 5.
est this last evening mentary duties. The an's election for his o order for its consi-
day by the Speaker.
n for Limerick being t of the Dungaryan
ne only Irish comaster are those for y, to be chosen the
the following resolu-
of Commons:—On o committee of supply ition of the law, as regard to the duty of ession of riots or on iction to the instrucs regulations for the nciples laid down in opinion of this house
in their conduct on mile bridge, and are e discipline and forasion.

Infantry.

A young man named Foster, who was employed at the Admiralty, has been committed for trial for stealing 300 silver war medals.

Sub Inspector T D Fitzgerald of Portroe, Nenagh, is to replace Sub Inspector Coppinger at Cahirconlish. Sir Duncan M'Gregor has appointed Henry George, son of the late Deering Cary, sub inspector of Maryborough, to a Cadetship in the Constabulary.

Constable John Doyle, an active and most useful member, has been moved from Manister to Loughgur in the Bruff district, where his services are required.

It is to Blessington, county Wicklow, and not to Mallow that Sub Inspector Simpson of Bruff, is to proceed.

The Irish Revenue Police are confined to 16 counties, viz:—Tipperary, Galway, Mayo, Carlow, Cavan, Donegal, Fermanagh, Leitrim, Longford, Londonderry, Monaghan, Queen's County, Roscommon, Sligo, Tipperary, Tyrone, for in these only does illicit distillation prevail to any extent, and most of all in Donegal, where 18 Revenue Police parties are stationed, under as many Sub Inspectors.

Dr Murphy, coroner, held an inquest at Barrington's hospital on Wednesday, on the body of Patrick Nugent (care taker of Lord Kenmare) who was found dead in his bed. Verdict—"Died by the visitation of God."

At Wexford assizes Sergeant Howly tried the curious case of Michael Byrne, for perjury, in falsely swearing that Colonel Loftus Owen had incited him to murder Edward Glascott, Esq. a county magistrate, and formerly agent of the Mountmorris estates, whom Colonel Owen succeeded. The jury were locked up, but did not agree to a verdict.

At Leitrim assizes, in Sharply v. Herasby, there was a verdict of £262 damages against the Board of Works, for injury to plaintiff's mill by lowering the wheel and water course. In Gardiner v. Tottenham, the jury were locked up all night, and did not agree.

The muslin work of 200 girls in the Waterford union workhouse has been taken from the board at 5/ per week by Mr Chambers, for six months.

In the Recorder's Court, Cork, Mrs Jane Bradshaw was awarded $40 damages on Tuesday against the city high sheriff, for having sold under execution, at the suit of Mr W Kearse, her furniture, for the debt of her son in law, Mr Taafe.

the jury returned a MALICIOUS
The Grand Jury here can finding that certain delapidat quay were dangerous to life.
His Lordship said he wo question respecting the pre injuries sustained by parties

Mr Deasy—My Lord, I a the applicants.

Sir Coleman O'Loughlenall, my Lord.

Mr Carte—The first on th with the election. It is a Arnott & Co. for a pane o broken in the shop window.

Judge Perrin—It matters nexion with the election or is very defective respecting cious injury for which part pensation by presentmen complained of, and I h several members of Par ject, and hoped that w three years some new brought in in reference to i seo of the act it is specified the different descriptions of sion is made) so that even compensation is not menti out in that act we cannot g

Mr Carte—My lord, cert tion of a house, and it is no is not pulled down that co given for the portion that Judge Ball has decided tha within the meaning of the s presentments in this city.

Judge Perrin—I dare say that no better principle cou compensation for malicious it would be a wholesome le be guilty of the act, that t be frustrated; and we have deavoured to get a general to property both real ond that a wanton injury shoul for, and in this case I will I consult the Judges at Ea

Judge Perrin—Read the Mr Roche (clerk of Crow Benson, for malicious inju

