

ns where he has been engaged.

Glover, son of our fellow-citizen, Doctor of Philipstown, obtained first cathechetical at an Honor examination held last Saturday, College, Dublin. Last month he obtained honor for classics.

Christopher Molony of Ennis, has passed his ion at the Custom House, Dublin, for a com- in the Revenue Police, under command of Col- er Machlaclan, R.A.

ed gentleman, who held a respectable position in the neighbouring county, and who, from reverse of ought an asylum in the workhouse, left it a ago, on his way to America, to meet some- ally who kindly sent him the means of joining- at Liverpool he cut his throat, and the last left him in a dying state.

undred emigrants for America left Galway by Monday, with their wives and daughters, the number upon funds transmitted by their rela- the other side of the Atlantic.

st American mail brought £500 to the little of Ballyvaughan in the county of Clare, for the of emigration.

seven registered letters were in the last Aus- mail for Ennis—almost the entire contained orders for the recipients.

City Dublin Steam Company have been reques- the inhabitants of Nenagh to make Dromineer gh Derg, a port of call.

ards of twenty graziers in Galway are about ed to the next Chester fair, for the purchase

! e fair of Herbertstown this week in calf heifers om £13 to £14 each; yearling calves £5 to £5 o year olds £7 to £9; store strippers £10 10s 10s, that is £2 a cow higher than last season nsidered that feeders will have no grazing by is season from the great price stores are going resent. If beef rates as low as it did a part of r feeders must sell them less than first cost.

day night last O E Blake, Esq, Frenchfort, lambs killed by a fox.

any localities of Limerick and Kerry potatoes, before the frost of last month, are totally ne person losing four acres. Therefore persons own early should try their potatoes, as it is to sow leathercoats.

e was not one drunken person in Tarbert on 's day.

ny evening Sub Constable Michael Pierce, ed in Cashel, and one of the finest young men force, having laboured all day under the raking of a tooth ache, and had the tooth extracted, orpse before next morning—a swelling in the set in and death was the result.

RSING CLUB--The next meeting of this Club held at Derry Castle on Tuesday, the 5th of at which great sport is expected, the ground o favourable, and the hares so stout. There o events to come off. The sapling stakes and rry Castle stakes, of 30s. all now sure to fill, are informed by the Secretary, Mr. Marshall, ne invincible Purrer will not be entered.

Following appeared in part of last impression: absurd report is in circulation that Ireland and are to be annexed to France!

r Frenchmen, for killing their countryman, Fred et in a duel near Windsor, are sentenced to two s imprisonment.

Great Britain steamer, from Australia, is three as out and not yet arrived.

IRRECK UNION—Mr Barrington was chairman Guardians meeting this day. Mr James Banna- was declared contractor for bread at 2 1-16d per af; Indian Meal, £8 2s 6d per ton; Egyptian £9 5s 11d; for Egyptian Wheat, Messrs ill, £9 14s 5d per ton; for Galatz Indian Corn, y Brothers, at £8 5s; for oatmeal, Mr. John on, £11. Mr Joynt made a most satisfactory ment of the financial condition of the Union, ia not only free of debt, but in a prosperous with a decrease of pauperism, and additional rt of the inmates. It was resolved to supply the ers with white bread and coffee for breakfast, and and meat for dinner, on Easter Sunday. State orkhouses—Admitted during week, 114; dis- ed, 81; died, 7. remaining last Saturday 5,440 ere were 18 pickpockets committed to gaol from. City Police Court this day.

Regt.

At Poonah, Fred-rick Conybeare, Esq. of the Bombay Horse Artillery, son of the Dean of Llandaff, to Fanay, daughter of Lieut. Colonel Hallett, C.B. Bombay Army.

At Bath the Rev. George A. M. Little, to Frances Anne, daughter of the late Major Weston, of the 3d Dragoon Guards.

DEATHS.

At Tralee, Jane, relict of the late Hon. Richard De Moleyns of Dingle.

At Kensington Villas, Rathmines, Sir D. Toler Osborne, Bt. in the 70th year of his age.

Thursday morning, at his residence in Clare-street, after a long illness, Mr. Andrew O'Shaughnessy, formerly of Mary-st., tea and wine merchant.

At his residence, Square, Newcastle, in the 48th year of his age, of fever, after a few days illness, John Dowling, Esq. Solicitor, universally regretted. He was for a number of years poor law guardian for the division of Newcastle, and was most attentive to the wants of the poor. He has left a widow with a young and interesting family to deplore his loss.

At Kilmallock, Fanny, the beloved wife of Michael Gilbert son, Esq. whose unexpected demise is the cause of grief to her numerous and respectable relatives and friends, as well as to all her acquaintances. She was loved by the poor, to whose wants she at all times administered.

At Montpellier Terrace, Cork, Wm. White Babington, Esq. At Norton Cottage, Skibbereen, Captain James Taylor, h.p. late 46th Regt.

At Baltrasna, county Meath, of apoplexy, James O'Reilly, Esq. aged 78 years.

At Queanstown, in her 25th year, Letitia Anne, daughter of William Shepard, Esq. of Oatlands, county Wicklow.

At Drumore East, Martha Jane, relict of the late Alexander M. Alcock, Esq.

At her residence, Henry-street, Cork, Catherine, relict of the late Thomas Finn, Esq.

David Condon, Esq. son of the late David Condon, merchant, Waterford.

Good Friday, at his residence, Dominick-street, Cork, in the 78th year of his age, Mr. Henry Casey.

At Tuillamoore, Anne, relict of Wm. Harpur, Esq. of Mount-rath.

Harriet, wife of John Edward Vernon, Esq. Good Friday, at his residence, Henry-street, in his 80th year Mr. Nicholas Brady, carver and gilder, an old and respected citizen.

At Boolvannaun, county Carlow, James Wilson, Esq. son of the late Lieut. John Wilson, of Chinstown, co. Kilkenny.

Mary Fanny, wife of Lewis O. Kinchela, Esq. St. John's-green, Kilkenny.

Anne, wife of Isaac Strachan, Esq. of Clonmel, and daughter of the late Jonathan Willington Kyffin, Esq. Captain in Royal Tyrone Militia.

Kathleen, only daughter of Thomas Hart, Esq. J.P. Wind-gap Cottage, Kilkenny.

At Lakeview, co. Sligo, Winifred, relict of Wm. Weir, Esq. At Bachelor's-hall, county Dublin, William Scott, Esq. of Stafford-street.

At Harcourt Terrace, Elizabeth, relict of Thomas Strange, Esq. Lieutenant Royal Navy.

At Roenuck Castle, county Dublin, Matilda, third daughter of the late Arthur Bargh Crofton, Esq.

At Bayview-avenue, John Hely Hutchinson, Esq. At Ranelagh-road, Lucinda, wife of the late Mr. Thomas Maguire, of Harcourt-road, in her 82d year.

At Charlemont-street, Mr. George John. Anne, daughter of Patrick Jones Richardson, auctioneer.

At the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. P. Blackburne, Haymarket, Smithfield, Mrs. Rose Winton.

At Kober-place, Kingstown, Miss Jane Louisa Byrne, daughter of the late John Byrne.

At Ballyclever, Mary, wife of A. Molneaux, Esq. At Newry, Mrs. M'Mullan, relict of Owen M'Mullan, Esq. Castlewellan.

At Glenravel House, near Ballymena, John Benn, Esq. At the Bridge House, Taunton, Matilda Pugh, the beloved wife of Captain Maher.

W. B. L. Sleight, Esq. formerly of the 15th Hussars, and afterwards of the 5th Fusiliers, son of the late Captain Sleight of Stapleford, Nottingham.

At Brighton, Lieut. General James Webber Smith, C.B. commanding 4th Battalion Royal Artillery, in his 75th year.

At Chilton, Mrs. Louisa Seymour, aged 87, relict of G. P. Seymour, Esq. late of Belmont.

At New Manor-place, Chelsea, Mrs. Leadbeter, at the age of 88 years, relict of Mr. Richard Leadbeter.

Suddenly, having been thrown from his gig, the Rev. Wm. Beauchamp, Rector of Chedgrave, Norfolk, and son of Sir W. Beauchamp Proctor, Bart.

At Portsmouth, Commander Alexander Gilmour, aged 86. At Marlborough, Wilts, William Fouch Hiller, Esq. banker.

The wife of Charles Pennington, Esq. late Rifle Brigade. At Horsham, Susanna, wife of Robert Jones Coghill, Esq.

At Camborne, Cornwall, the Rev. William Price Lewis. Sarah, wife of Mr. John W. O'Ryan.

Alderman James Wyatt, of Oxford Francis, son of the Hon. and Rev. Francis J. Noel, He was drowned at Sydney.

At Cobourg, Canada West, aged 76, G. Manners, Esq. late British Consul at Boston, U.S.

At Hobart Town, Captain Edward Forman, late in the 51st Regiment of Light Infantry.

At Jamaica, Louisa, wife of Utten T. Todd, Esq. At Hobart Town, Van Dieman's Land, Jane Culler, aged 75, relict of the late Major James Culler, 5th Regt. of Foot.

At Tezapore, Assam, of epidemic cholera, Captain Charles S. Reynolds, 49th Regiment B.N.I.

At sea, on board the Royal West India mail ship, Orinoco the Rev. David Osborne, of Jamaica, of paralysis.

At Jersey, of spasms of the heart, on the 19th inst. Charles Mathew Louis, Esq. late Lieut.-Colonel of the Royal Horse Artillery, in this garrison.

At Borrisokane, in the 23d year of her age, Alicia Ellison, eldest daughter of the late Robert Pack, Esq. M.D. and grand daughter of the late Rev. Pierce Gould, of Finnee, in the county of Tipperary.

The Rev P. Cullen, P.P. Rathangan. In Gort, on Sunday, Miss Eliza Cunniffe. Aged 91 years, Gabriel Whistler, Esq.

At Montagu-street, Portman-square, Major O'Byrne.

DESCRIPTIVE PART

By Griffith's Valuation Lot respectively valued at £77 10s £83 18s 0d.

The above Estate is mainly situated in the Post and Market towns of about five miles from either, from Portumna Packet Station. of the land is excellent, being in a tract, and the bog yields a superior quality of the very best description for fuel of Peat Charcoal.

For Rentals, and further particulars apply to the office of the commissioners, No. 11, Dublin; and to

Mr ROBERT STORY, Solicitor, carriage of Sale, 47, Mount-street, Dublin; WELLESLEY P. FLETCHER, Esq., Solicitor, Upper Ormond quay, Dublin; LYNN CAREW, Esq., 96, Upper Ormond quay, Dublin;

JOHN I WHITTY, Esq., Civil Engineer, 11, Upper Ormond quay, Dublin; JOSEPH FALKNER, Esq., Barrister-at-law, Borrisokane.

County of CLARE IN THE COURT FOR Incumbered Estates

In the Matter of the Estate of Wm. O'CONNELL, and others, Ourselves, Petitioner.

THE following Fee Simple Estates of CLONDERALAW and other Towns in the County of CLARE, will, pursuant to the Statute in that behalf made, be sold by Auction, at MR. MARSHALL'S, 11, City of Limerick, upon WEDNESDAY, the 12th day of April, 1853, at the hour of 12 o'clock.

Table with 2 columns: No. and Denomination. Lists 19 lots including Ballynacraggymore, Ballyvoughan, Ballylean (East), Lisvoriheen, Gortnafrehan, Clonsnaughta, Clonkett, Coolacousane, Lofalla, Boloughera, Crahera, Glauncanane, Gortglass, Toniron, Clonola, Derryleigh, Ballylean (North), Lackanashanagh, Ballylean and Coolfun.

The Biddings, taken by Mr. Marshall, were submitted to Mr. Commissioner Chambers, Henrietta-street, Dublin, on the 18th day of April 1853, without a successful party.

Dated this 3rd day of April 1853. HENRY CHAMBERS, Commissioner.

For Rental and all other particulars apply to the office of the Commissioners, 14, Upper Ormond quay, Dublin, and to Messrs. RICHARD & WILLIAMS, Solicitors, having the carriage of the Office, Upper Ormond Quay, Dublin, and 57, St. Andrew's-street, Dublin; Mr. MARSHALL, 11, City of Limerick; FRANCIS KEARNEY, Barrister-at-law, Limerick; Messrs. CULLINAN and BUTLER, 11, Upper Ormond Quay; or to THADDEUS WM. M. Killarney.