

Captain Edward Boggis, 55th Regt. to Margaret Harriet, daughter of the late Rev. Rishton Robinson Bailey, B.D. Chaplain of the Tower of London.

DEATHS.

On Thursday, at his residence, Sir Harry's Mall, after a short illness, Mr. David H. Beveridge, aged 25 years, Apothecary of the City Dispensary—a young gentleman much esteemed by the public. He was youngest son of the late Lieut. Beveridge, R.H.A. and brother of Mr. E. Beveridge, George's-street.

At Carrick-on-Suir, of epilepsy, Alexander Campbell, Esq. late Captain 69th Regt. from which he retired a few weeks ago.

At Queenstown, aged 84 years, Mary, eldest daughter of the late Adam Newman, Esq. Collector of Customs, Kinsale.

At Ballycorney House, near O'Brien's Bridge, Mrs. M'Millan, mother of Mr. Peter M'Millan—a most charitable good lady, whose loss to the poor is sincerely lamented.

At Lisasey, at a very advanced age, Mrs. F. Coghlan better known as "Fanny O'Dea." Throughout a period of over 30 years she kept the half-way house between Ennis and Kiltrush.

At Glenview, Cork, Samuel Lewis, Esq. for 24 years High Constable of the East Division of West Carbery.

Harriet, youngest daughter of Mr. Henry Sharpe, Wintthrop street, Cork.

At the Ursuline Convent, Blackrock, Mrs. Anna Collins, (Sister Mary Gertrude in religion,) in her 29th year.

At Castletown House, Durrrow, Harriet Anna Gardner, relict of George Gardner, Esq. of Lincoln's Inn, and of Berthwaite, Windermere, Westmoreland.

At Maglas, John Ledmon, Esq. eldest son of the late Thos. Ledmon, Esq. of Billerough, Kerry.

At Tranore, Sarah, daughter of Mrs. Tivy.

At Sandford Terrace, near Dublin, in her 73th year, Mrs. M'Clelland, widow of Baron M'Clelland.

In Upper Baggot-street, Frances, wife of Major Ponsonby Shaw, of the 34th Madras Native Infantry, and daughter of the late William Darlev, Esq. of St. John's, county Dublin.

Suddenly, at Spring-gardens, Rathmines-road, of disease of the heart, the Very Rev. Michael F. Jenyns, O.S.F. of the Abbey Chapel, Galway.

In her 20th year, Maria, eldest daughter of Mr. Patrick Longan, of Dublin.

Anna Maria, daughter of Mr. Thomas Dookrell, Upper Stephen-street.

At Sweetmount House, Eliza, wife of John Lee Wharton.

At Strangford House, county Down, the Hon. Harriet Ward in her 64th year.

At Louthstown, the Rev. George Stewart, Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Preacher.

James, eldest son of Wm. Moore, Esq. of Moore Fort.

At his residence, Diamond, Monaghan, James Nesbit, Esq.

At Birkenhead, aged 75, Selina Maria, relict of Lieut.-Col. Bates, and daughter of Sir Robert Waller, Bart. Newport, co. Tipperary.

At Lathom House, Ormskirk, at the age of 82 years, the Rt. Hon. Lord Skelmersdale. He is succeeded by his grandson, Edward Bootle Wilbrisham, son of late Hon. Richard Bootle Wilbrisham, M.P.

At George's-street, Edinburgh, the Countess Dowager of Cathness.

Suddenly, in London, Doctor Richard Chambers.

At Upper Berkeley-street, in her 90th year, Catherine, relict of Captain Richard Earle Weiby, 2d Life Guards.

Lucas Paul Methuen, infant son of Lord and Lady Methuen.

At Montgomery, Rear Admiral Sir Charles Jones.

Elizabeth, wife of Mr. Serjeant D'Oyly.

At St. James's-road, Liverpool, Elizabeth Charlotte, aged 21 years, daughter of Captain B. B. Mathews, Commander of the Great Britain steam ship.

At Hastings, Professor Scholefield, of Cambridge university.

Suddenly, Dr. Richard Chambers, of the Royal free hospital.

Lætitia, wife of T. H. Hough, Esq. of Brunswick-square.

Richard Morris, Esq. of the Middle Temple, barrister-at-law, and Assistant Master of the Court of Exchequer.

At Fairfield, Mr. Peter Molloy, railway contractor

At South-bank, Regent's Park, Mrs. B. Ker, aged 87.

At the Rectory House, Broadwater, the Rev. P. Wood.

At Munich, David Herrman, Count Poungarten, aged 15 years, grandson of Lord Erskine.

At St. Servan, France, Mr. Frederick Briscoe Jackson.

At Brussels, Anne, Viscountess Lake, late wife of H. Gritton Esq. and daughter of the late Admiral Sir Richard Ouslow, Bart. G.C.B.

At Philadelphia, John Redmond, Esq. late manager of the bank of Larnoe, formerly of the firm of Brennan and Redmond, of Dublin.

At St. Vincent, First Lieut. Francis Koe, Royal Engineers.

At San Antonia, Texas, Mr. Wm. Taylor, late of Cork.

In Waterford, the Rev. Arthur Davies, vicar of Poitroan Killybeg, which is in the gift of the Bishop of Ossery.

L

To com

A

Three miles Station.

Fox Hunt
stowards wil
ing country
years, 10st 1

The winne (money add Thrice, 14lb
value 40 sov

Four Hor start, or the be sold by A manded. A

The Tally
the Stoward for age. W entered to b allowed 10l
ed 21lb. A of the abov
to be sold b
to go to the different ow added.

The Band
which will b Weight for 10lb; 5 year
winner of a 10lb: thrice

Horses fo
one of the S Hotel, Croo
day, the 27t
pay 1s in th
scribers dou entrance for
to pay 4 so towards exp

Should a relative to t
Articles, it i Stewards p upon all ma ties. No post at 1 o'
entry, and a 1 sov. Hors
uary for the
the 3d Race power of po favourable.

Captain Di
Castle,
Robert Iev
Ievers,