Mr Roebuck, an Income tax in Ireland will sweep away income and every thing else. Income tax paid on every shilling a man receives, before he has the valuable privilege of paying poor rates, church rates, and the thousand and one other rates, but too familiar to the over burdened shopkeeper, farmer, and professional man already.

At the City Police Court on Monday, Eliza Mason and Johanna Hartigan, charged with using obscene language in the streets, were sentenced to a week's imprisonment each; Catherine Murray, charged with attempting to drown herself, was remanded; a dozen suspicious characters, known to the Police as pickpockets, were sent to gaol until after the Munster Fair; John Beauchamp, for picking Captain Jervis's pockets in Denmark-street, was sentenced to one month's imprisonment; William Gibbons, a sailor, charged by Mr John Sidley with deserting his ship, was remanded.

Mrs Mongan, widow of John Mongan, hatter, died suddenly on Friday, at Ellen st., whilst cleaning the windows of her lodgings. Mrs Lynch, a widow, residing in Denmark st., died suddenly the day following.

Mr James Meehan, of Crossagalla, consented, at the request of the Mayor, and in order to promote the Great Munster Fair, to allow a passage from the railway to run to his land without prejudice to his title.
This opens a direct communication to the fair green above the terminus.

At the desire of an esteemed friend in Limerick, the article entitled 'Great Munster Fair in Limerick,' was copied on Wednesday, last, from the Dublin Commercial Journal.

The following accidents were received into Barring-ton's hospital during the last week—Wm Donovan, wound of wrist; Wm Whelan, contusion of knee; Ellen Shelton, dislocation of ankle; James Shea, concussion of brain; Mary Burke, dislocation of hip; Kitty Sullivan, lacerated wound of leg.

The pantry of Mr O'Regan, of Mount Earl, near Adare, was twice broken into during the past week, and a quantity of meat, flour, bread, and other things stolen therefrom, which the thieves hid on the lands of Mr John Piper; but when coming to remove the booty, they were secured by Mr Piper and his friends, and have been committed to the county gaol.

At Tallow petty sessions on Tuesday, Nelson Trafulgar Foley, Esq. and Mary Hadnet were summoned for not having a clear opening of 4 feet in their stake weir in the river Blackwater during the weekly close time. A penalty of 10s was imposed in each case.

The Dublin grocers announce to the public a reduction of 4d in the lb in the price of tea.

At Ballinvreena fair on Thursday, springers sold at 18s, 14s, to 15s each.

Mitchelstown union Guardians have adopted Mr George E Massy's resolution, that "suitable permanent stables be erected for horses, 5 feet each stall, with the necessary fittings" for the accommodation of the guardians. Mr Massy read from the Nation of the 9th inst. a letter signed "A Friend of the Poor," and moved that a prosecution be instituted for libel in that letter. A poll having been taken, there appeared for the motion 10. Against the motion—T O'Brien.
