

T Knott, late 4th Foot. ed his commission in the ry Cavalry.

for the enrolment of re-
on and Cornwall Miners'
he Stannaries. The men pay, besides £6 bounty.

s about to be formed in
at Launceston, Mr John

Cornwall Rangers, to be evy, and Capt Trelawny who rmy to be Adjutant.

resigned the Lieut Colonelcy
ilitia, and is succeeded by Esq.

ria, will have their names
List, from the 1st of June.

Artillery Lancashire Militia
R.A.; Creagh, late 80th;
: H. Masterson, late 20th

ed to a Cornetcy in the Herts

an absence of 71 years from rived on a visit to Dr.
are, Dublin, from whence
of Sir John Carden, near allant admiral was born.

in his 93rd year, is the olhe was first commissioned age.

Thos Dench, RN, a vacancy
ension of Greenwich hospital,

in Ireland are more likely to under the additional tax upon ions occur to the consolida-
e Constabulary, whose duties
ifarious.

Mason, of Loughgur station,
mes Menion, a deserter from mitted to the county gaol by lloy, of the Loughill station,

for 30 years held that rank),
to Sub Constable, for over-ipline on the part of the men
he sub constables who pre-duced to 2d class, and for-ne force, as it was proved they in a vindictive feeling. Cond at Loughill by Constable station.

s on Monday fined £5 by the
for having light weights.
o fined in mitigated penalties.

At St. James' Church, Piccadilly, Lord Ribblesdale, step son of Lord John Russell, to Ellen, daughter of Colonel Mure, M.P. of Caldwell.

The Rev. J. Tomkins, son of Lieut. Tomkins, R.N. to Julia, daughter of John Dennis, Esq. Cambridge.

At Trinity Church, Boulogne-sur-mer, Charles Horatio, eldest son of John Godfrey Morgan, Esq. of Brompton, to Lucy, second daughter of K. A. Deane, formerly of Cork.

DEATHS.

At Notting-hill, near London, on the 7th inst. John Croker, the beloved child of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Walsh, aged 3½ years, grandson of John Croker, of Ballyuagarde, Esq.

On last Sunday evening, at Heathmount, county Clare,
Henrietta Thomasina, youngest daughter of Thos. Furnell, Esq.

At Clontough House, county Kerry, Anna Sarah, wife of Dr.
Adrian Taylor, J.P.

At Golden Hills, on the 5th inst. aged one year and nine months, Henry, the youngest and beloved son of Mr. and Mrs.
Judkin FitzGerald—a most engaging and interesting child.

Michael, son of Mr. Michael Hilliard, Ennis, aged 18 years.
Of dysentery, after a short illness, Mr. G. Samson, of Clonmoher.

At Killenardrish, co. Cork, Robert James O'Donoghue, Esq.
In Athlone, Ellen, sister of Captain Rathbone, Resident Magistrate at Ballymore, county Galway.

At Kingstown, Maria, wife of Major Benjamin W Nicholson.
Suddenly, at Waterloo-road, George Bryan, Esq. of the Stamp-office.

At Upper Mount-street, Sarah, relict of Richard Davis, late
of Merrion Hall, Esq.

At the Convent of Mercy, Parsonstown, Miss Marianne
Scott, daughter of B. Scott, Esq. solicitor, Kilkenny.

In Sligo, Jessy, wife of Richard Gordon, Esq. Manager of the Provincial Bank.

Suddenly, in Mullingar, Mr. P. Martin.
At the Presentation Convent, Galway, Sister Mary Paul French.

At Clarendon-street Chapel, the Rev. Wm. Fahy, late Prior of Loughrea Convent, and Purser of the Irish College at Paris.
John Patton, Esq. Belfast.

William King, second son of Mr. John Wood Gibson Jones.
At Walmer, aged 80 years, Wm. Curing, Esq.

At Montague-place, Russell-square, Captain Kersteman, late of the Inniskilling Dragoons.

At Battle Abbey, Sussex, Sir Godfrey Webster, R.N. His brother, Augustus Frederick, born 1819, succeeds to the title.
William Brummel, Esq. of Colechester, aged 78.

At Hammersmith, Mr. Harvey, proprietor of St. Paul's hotel, St. Paul's Church-yard.

Rowland Wm. D. Collett, Esq. Barrister.
At Coventry, Mr. Hugh Gaskill, manager of Union bank.

At Northampton, Mary Ann, relict of Major John Banner, 23d Light Dragoons.

At Basingstoke, Maria, wife of Richard Attwood, Esq.
In Devonport, the Rev. William Williams, pastor of the Independent Chapel, at Paignton, near Torquay.

At Edinburgh, John Scott, Esq. M.D. Physician to the Queen.

At Dawlish, Anna Maria Hussey Disney Roebuck, relict of Henry Disney Roebuck, Esq. formerly of Ingress Park, Kent.

At New York, Maria, daughter of Denis Haunau, Esq. M.D.
Sun Lodge, Tallow, co. Waterford.

At Aix-la-Chapelle, Martha, relict of Robert Alexander Dalton, Esq.

Doctor Charles Byrne, Editor of the Florida News, son of the late Bryan Byrne, Esq. formerly of Rathdrum, county of Wicklow.

At Madeira, James Conybeare, son of the Déan of Llandaff.

On the 6th inst. at Stagdale, Helen, the beloved wife of William Mussy, Esq. much respected by all who knew her, and regretted by a large circle of friends, and many poor persons attached to her by her kindness and benevolence. She departed this life trusting in her Redeemer, to whom she looked, and on whose merits alone she rested for salvation.

At Clifton, Captain George Hood, formerly of the 43rd.

U
b shipme
class sh
Copper
most d
Appl
JOH
J app
the sale
favour
the con
charge
THE
G
Th
BY W
GERM
The K
The C
MUNIC
have
The O
PEE
inaug
to the
be pro
Not
admitt
On
at Ha
Fro
Doors
each d
charge
person
N.I
each c on the
am. to