

... non commissioned officers.

Phoenix, Commander Inglefield, has arrived at Queenstown, on Arctic regions, in search of Sir J remain a few days off Hawlbowl.

oppressively warm, and the country rain. The prices of young stock are falling, as farmers have no entirely dependent upon the de-green crop fodder.

hat every day for several weeks ate, chiefly from Mayo and Tuam, railway station on their way to vn Commissioners have sent up the bones" to the Exhibition in Dublin. xson was on Saturday, held to bail atening his brother, Major Dickson

Daly, chairman of the Galway ners has returned from his mission uch to their chagrin refuses to e local improvement bill to the il a printed copy of the alterations y committee appears.

phy says his last election for Cork e, but for that in 1841 he paid ue, Mr Egan, declares he paid only xpense of his return for that city. got £600 from the members to of the election, and there is a balance e the bills. Col. Chatterton, the was liable for any sum over £700 rk friends.

as paid dearly for her evidence be- of the Cork Election petition. Ar- Juverna, on Thursday, as soon as the quay she was pointed out by garb of gentlemen, with the very "There is the prosecuting— ing the Priest." The word was emen knew the sort of audience them. The moment the woman ised, she was struck with a stone but for the protection of a Po- ertions of her sister, would pr- rdered.—Cork Constitution.

or twenty years a magistrate ef- perseded from the commission of instance of the Inland Revenue, gentleman for shooting without roperty.

on the new poor rate struck is inskelligs 4s 6d; Ballybrack 2s 4d; aniel 4s 2d; Canning 3s 10d; n Os 8d; Curraghbeg 1s 8d; rriana 2s 8d; Emelagh 3s 6d; ane 4s 6d; Lickeen 2s 6d; ; Mastergeehy 3s; Maum 2s 2d; nnans 3s; Larrenreigh 2s 10d; ound.

n Cork workhouse 1800 are sick average of deaths is 43 weekly l members of the Corofin board who ation of the Guardians, the busi- ill be conducted as heretofore, tremity of Vice Guardians to be ommissioners.

rs have dismissed Mr English, on, for suspicion of fraud, and s wish.

rence is elected Apothecary to the ce Callaghan, appointed to the olin, is appointed medical officer y district, Tipperary.

ughmore is giving his tenantry rd, a reduction of 20 per cent eptember.

n who recently took an extensive e, died suddenly on Monday last health the previous Saturday en.

son of the late William Mudge, Esq. 45th Regiment, to Eliza Anne, eldest daughter of the late James Henderson Singer, Esq. M.D.

At Cork, William C. Nash, Esq. M.D. to Mary Jane, only daughter of the Rev. Dr. George Nash.

Dean, youngest son of the late Joseph Mathers, Esq. of Dublin, to Emma, daughter of the late Dean Wilson, Esq. of Pembroke-place.

At Waterford, Richard Power, Esq. to Eileen, youngest daughter of the late Michael Ardagh, Esq.

DEATHS.

On the 21st inst. at Traverston, county Tipperary, Frances, relict of the late Thomas Going, of Traverston, Esq. most sincerely and deservedly regretted.

On the 23d inst. at his residence, St. Kevins, Upper Rathmines, after a short and severe illness, Frederick William Conway, Esq. Editor and Proprietor of the Dublin Evening Post.

On the 17th inst. at Bay View, county Clare, the residence of Mr. Molony, Jeremiah O'Donovan, Esq. aged 58. Univer- sally and deservedly regretted by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. He was a distinguished member of the Masonic body, and highly esteemed by all his brethren for his social qualities as a "man and a mason."

At Charlemont Terrace, Kingstown, Thomas Worthington, Esq. aged 78.

At Queen-street, Victoria, daughter of Henry C. Baldwin, Esq.

Frances Margaret, wife of Rev. Samuel H. Adams, of Cregg. In Youghal, on the 21st inst. aged 41, Cornelius O'Neil, Esq. The premature decease of this gentleman is most deservedly regretted by all those who were acquainted with his social worth and inoffensive demeanour.

At Bruff, of bronchitis, aged 11 years, John Carroll, son of Mr. Patrick Carroll.

On passage to California with his family, Captain Curry, late Superintendent of the extensive copper mines near Newport, Tipperary, where he had long endeared himself to all the labor- ing poor of the district by his liberal enterprise and benevolent efforts to ameliorate their condition. In the domestic circle he was the most tender and affectionate of husbands and parents.

Mrs. Copinger, relict of the late Richard Copinger, Esq. of Cork.

Mr. Timothy W. Murray, Pawnbroker, of Tuam.

At Upper Rathmines, Jane Charlotte, only daughter of David Scott, Esq. Talbot-street.

Ellen, youngest daughter of Mr. Patrick Bourke, of South George's-street, aged 18.

At Upper Sherrard-street, Denis B. Kelly, Esq. J.P. Clon- gowney House, King's County.

At the Old Men's Asylum, in his 83d year, Mr. Thos. Jamie- son, formerly an extensive ribbon manufacturer in Dublin.

At Mitchelstown, Mr. Michael Hennessy.

At Barrack-street, Nenagh, Mr. John Flannery.

At Agherton Rectory, Coleraine, Jane, eldest daughter of the Rev. Stephen Gwyn.

At Lisburn, aged 77, Mr. Patrick Hennington, of Dunman- way, Cork.

In Nenagh, Mr. John Power, shoemaker.

At Shramore, the Rev. Michael Conway, P.P. Killoonnon.

At Castletown, Isle of Man, William, eldest son of Mr. Jas. Matthews, formerly of Camden-street, Dublin.

In Devonport, Mr. Geo. Randall, inn-keeper, aged 84.

At Kennington, Lt.-Col. Jas. Whitcomb, late Royal Marines.

At Richmond, Caroline, daughter of late Rev. George Dupuis.

At Sackville Garden, Eliza, relict of the late Brevet Major Hamilton Newton, 1st Garrison Battalion.

At Torquay, Emilie, wife of Lt.-Col. Willoughby, C.B. Bom- bay Artillery.

At Swansea, Captain John Turner, R.N. aged 82.

At Ashburton, Miss Mary Griffin, aged 103 years. Deceased perfectly recollected being present in Westminster Abbey when George III. was crowned in 1760.

At Truro, aged 76, Mr. Wm. Harrap, curator of the museum at the Royal Institution of Cornwall, and 43 years on the staff of the Cornwall and Devon Miners' Militia.

At Brighton, Julia, widow of Major Dickson, of the Life Guards, and daughter of the late General Thomas Cox, Colonel of the Grenadier Guards.

At Hampton Court, the infant son of Major Ormsby Gore.

At Gloucester-gardens, Hyde Park, Eliza H. M. Grane, eldest daughter of the late H. S. Grane, Esq. H.E.I.C.S.

In Durham, Anne Jane, daughter of the late Lieut. Colonel Chayer.

In Hammersmith, Lieut. Charles Collins, formerly of the 50th, aged 74.

At Kimberwell-grove, James Nairne, of the Bengal Civil Service, son of Captain Alexander Nairne, H.E.I.C.S.

At Naples, John Wilson, Esq. of Upper Eccleston-street, B.grave-square.

On board the ship Zeninler, in the Madras Roads, Assistant Surgeon Westall, M.D. 94th.

On board the Dido, on his passage out, Mr. Edward W. Williams, Master (1840), appointed to the Centaur, flag ship, on the South American station.

At the British Consulate, Shanghai, China, Henrietta, wife of Rutherford Alcock, Esq. Consul there.

At Wybon, Hunter River, Frances, wife of Archibald Bell, Esq. J.P. and eldest daughter of Samuel North, Esq. Police Magistrate.

Henry Nason, Esq. of Newtown, Cork. Suddenly, Mrs. Mercer, of Clonmel. Mr. Wm. Haines, Mayor-street, Cork. At Southampton, after a lingering illness, contracted by arduous service on the west coast of Africa, George Hugh Sidley, Esq. Surgeon Royal Navy. At Glasgow, Jane Lady Lees, widow of the lat. Sir Edward Smith Lees.

... 145 to 150-5 L

About 200 Keelers, Cash Fashionable Vehicles and Cochlin China and Spanish The Bulls, Sheep, and Po Marshall's Repository near Dairy stock and stores at The Large Yard in

TO T Limerick Mar

GENTLEMEN—I beg to of BUTTER INSPE Market Bill, as advertised fo With respect to qualificat remark that when called on Committee of Merchants of of Butter Inspector, I laid b exceptionable references as ence in the Cork Butter Trad extensively engaged for 14 yo be admitted by all parties c here, either as buyer or seller duty during the 7 years that integrity, impartiality, and ju I am, Gentlemen, your O

Limerick, May 25.

Theatre Royal

By permission of the Rt. Wor Mayor

Mr. Charles

HAS great pleasure in ann Gentry and Public of Lin ding neighbourhood an engag mentioned celebrated Artists:-

Mr. Sims R

Mrs. SIMS R

MR. WEL

MADAME W

Miss Kathleen T

MERR REIC

The celebrated

Conductor—Mr. I

On Friday and

JUNE 3d &

On which occasion will

TWO FIRST CL

Dress and Reserved Boxes,

Pit, 2s; Gallo

Tickets, and Programme

Messrs. Corbet

Music Warehouse, 109

In consequence of the enormo the engagement of the above Ar requested that all orders to secu will contain a remittance of the NB—All Free Tickets suspen the Press excepted.

No time should be lost in

LISTOWELL

THE Board of Guardians wi THURSDAY the 24 June 18

MILLER

At a salary of £25 per annum, to conduct the working of the C Workhouse.

Applications in candidates' h nished by Testimonials, and settin two solvent securities willing to j Bond for £50, as a guarantee for of his duties, will be received by on the above named day.—By

JOHN TAYL

Clerk's office, May 25.