DEATHS.

On Monday last, at his residence in Richmond Place, aged 53 years, Thomas Jervis, Esq. elder brother of the Chief Justice—to the inconsolable grief of his wife and children, who loved him with an affection seldom equalled, probably never surpassed. Few men have there been who had more friends or less enemies, or who less forfeited the esteem of the former, or deserved less the censure of the latter. The general, the universal sympathy and anxiety manifest during a protracted illness, best evince how he was esteemed and beloved by all who knew him.
