

the late Samuel Renny, Esq. Solicitor, of Dublin,
 In Upperby, Cumberland, the Rev. Wm. Studdert Evans, of Monaghan, to Alice, daughter of Francis Coleridge Hutchinson, Esq. M.D. of Brisco, near Carlisle.
 At St. George's, Hanover-square, by the Rev. Lord John Thynne, brother of the bridegroom, Lord Edward Thynne, formerly of the 60th Rifles, to Cecilia Anne, only daughter of the late Charles Arden, Esq. of the 1st Life Guards.

DEATHS.

On the 7th inst. at Ormond Cottage, Borrisokane, Samuel Waller, Esq. formerly of this City, aged 78 years—universally regretted by all who knew him.
 At Coonalin, county Westmeath, aged 29, Samuel Hutchinson
 Vignoles, Esq. J.P. youngest son of the Very Rev. Charles Vignoles, D.D. Dean of Ossory.
 At Killaloe, Mr. Henry Spice, of Notting-hill, London.
 Walter Joyce, Esq. of Merview, one of the oldest magistrates in Galway, in the 95th year of his age, formerly an eminent banker, and served in the ranks of the Irish volunteers of '82.
 Alice Rose, youngest daughter of Henry R. Marmion, Esq.
 Deelish, county Cork.
 In Patrick-street, Cork, Mary, wife of Mr. B. Daly, T.C.
 At Lisburn, Frances Jane, relict of the late Alexander M'Naghten, Lieut. Royal Navy.
 At George's-street, Cork, in his 75th year, Mr. Patrick Scully, late of Mallow.
 At Waterford, Mr. John Hurley, iron merchant.
 At St. Stephen's Hospital, Cork, Mr. James Carr Cogan, for many years master of that institution.
 At Artane, Mr. William Langton, aged 78 years.
 At his residence, Caroline-row, William H. Francis, Esq. son of the late Thomas Francis, Esq. Lieutenant 81st Regt.
 At her house, Clarendon-street, Mrs. Elizabeth Keon.
 At her residence at Saintfield, Mrs. Bleckley, aged 98.
 On the 4th inst. at Nottingham-place, London, the residence of his mother-in-law, the Marquise de la Belinaye, Michael Burke Honan, Esq. formerly of this City, many years foreign correspondent of the London morning newspapers.
 At his residence, Pall-mall, aged 75 years, Frederick Thomas Foster, Esq. of Stonehouse, county Louth.
 The Dowager Lady Campbell, of Dunstaffnage.
 At Liverpool, A. Y. Williams, son of the late Col. Williams.
 At the house of her son-in-law, Upper Gower-street, Elizabeth Halford, relict of the late Lieut.-Colonel Payne, of the Royal Artillery.
 At Osmington, Dorset, John Cree, Esq. D.L.
 At Tunbridge, Esther, wife of Henry C. Stapylton, Esq. and daughter of Mr. Sergeant Goulburn.
 At Chiswick, Middlesex, J. Fletcher, Esq. late of the Royal Artillery, aged 75.
 At Milton-next-Gravesend, Robert Lightfoot, Esq. late Storekeeper of H.M. Victualling-yard, Deptford, aged 75.
 At her residence, Montpelier-road, Brighton, Miss Cooper, aged 77.
 Suddenly, at Holland-place, Glasgow, Patrick M'Naught, Esq.
 At Sevenoaks, in his 85th year, Samuel Green, Esq.
 At Anglesey, Hants, Edward Randyll Wyld, Esq. R.N. of Lansdowne-crescent, Cheltenham.
 Sophia, eldest daughter of Deputy Commissary General Field,
 London, C.W. aged 13 years.
 Feb. 23, near Ballarat, South Australia, George Clonbrock, youngest son of Rev. F. R. Maunsell, Rector of Castleisland, co.
 Kerry.
 On board the Edmund, bound for Melbourne, Jane, daughter of James C. Ball, Esq.; and James C. Ball, Esq. late of Mulvin, county Tyrone
 At Bonn, Marjorie, daughter of the late Hon. William Fraser, of Ballytoun, aged 31.
 Commander Sansom, of the Thetis, 38, in the Pacific.
 At Gort, Walter Rosengrave, Esq. Lieutenant of the Galway Militia.
 Colonel Forbes Maclean, a Peninsular and Waterloo veteran.

Fifty of these Parents for bread, and can they be or so heartless, who can r
 To accomplish, by living benevolent, the co-operati essential.
 "Deal thy bread to the
 and the harbourless into t
 see one naked cover him,
 flesh."—Isaias, chap. 58,
 Donations will be receiv
 RYAN, by the Very Rev.
 H. O'FARRELL, Chaplain
 Moun

GREAT CLEARANCE
 AT NO. 117, G
 In consequence of the
JAMES M
 HAS BEEN INSTRUCTED
UNRESERVEDLY
 The Extensive Medical
 NO. 117, GE

TO persons commencing or those fitting up D peculiar advantages, the Fi
 description, and the Drug
 There are 500 over,
 other Bottles and Jar
 labelled and richly gilt Gold China, Jars and Cover and Honey Pots, Pin Mac
 Enemas, Transparent Sho
 Honey Strainer, Spice M Presses, Office Clock, with wrought Iron Safe, solid B
 Rods, Mahogany Glass C
 Brass Weights, patent Bala
 and Mortars, Preserved Desk, Nest of Drawers, Metal Stove, Book Racks, T
 Gas Fittings, Alphabet Pre Preserving Pan, Reading La
 of empty Jars, Bottles and be assorted in lots to su attendance.

Sale at 12 o'Clock.
 All must be cleared out in
JAMES MA
 July 2.

William
 Expects the IMPROVED TIMBER AN
 From St.
 Which will be Sold by A