There was only one case of public interest at the Enniskillen assizes, the Queen v. Carleton Crowe and others, in which 20 persons were charged with conspiracy to shoot Mr. Hill, the agent of Mr. Jones, of Moneyglass, but the Crown postponed their trial as one of the party, an approver, is not forthcoming. The accused were allowed to give bail.

At the City Police Court yesterday John M'Cann, a suspicious character, who was arrested at a late hour the night previous in Pery-square, by Mr. Hayes, Inspector of the Night Watch, with his face blackened and a large stone in his pocket, was remanded for petty sessions. The fellow had been in gaol two years for robbery, and it is evident his intention was burglary perhaps murder if detected. Peter Kilmartin, a naked boy, was sentenced to a month's imprisonment and to be whipped for larceny at the workhouse, into which he was admitted the day before by order of the magistrates.

On Monday morning the only remaining male convicts in the county gaol (7 in number) were transmitted to the depot in Ennis under an escort of police. There is not a male convict at present confined in either the county or city gaol.

A boy named Michael Mannix was received into Barrington's hospital yesterday from the effects of injuries sustained by falling off the lower quays into a lighter moored alongside.

CORONERS' INQUEST—At the City Assizes opposition was raised by the Grand Jury before Judge Perrin to presentments applied for by Dr. Murphy, and Thos.
Costelloe, Esq. Coroners, for inquests held upon the bodies of persons who had died suddenly. The Grand Jury submitted that there was no necessity to hold inquests in cases of sudden death, apparent from natural causes, but his Lordship thought otherwise, and not only flated the Coroners presentments but directed that in all cases of sudden death it was their bounden duty to hold inquests.

As the train which left Limerick last morning was starting from Pallas station Patrick Meara, who was seeing some friends off by it, lost his balance and fell down between the carriage and platform, sustaining injuries which resulted in death.

A Mitchelstown correspondent says—"No fewer than 8 persons have died suddenly in this parish within the last nine days, one while at mass on last Sunday."

Last Assizes there was 400*l* in the Board of Superintendance to the credit of Clonmel gaol, and 600*l* this Assizes, which is attributable to the system of industrial employments in that establishments.

The Antelope cleared on Monday at the Custom-

A dog raging mad, traversed the neighbourhood of Beigh Castle on Friday, bit a girl severely, and hung out of her arm, after which he scampered off, biting sever-
