

52d, and Sir Lawrence Cot-ed to companies in the Mid-f Militia have not yet com-the Merioneth, Cardigan, en. The Carmarthen is to f a sufficient number of men appears doubtful. The regind Glamorgan, form marked med corps.

Spithead, will proceed to September. The First Lord of the squadron.

paid Magistrates in Ireland, e 60 superannuated Consta-diary Magistrates who are e Government for long and chesnut mare won the 20l. s week, and he also won the hotel, Kilkee:—Viscount de Chabot, and Miss de Chabot, ness de Lasteyrie and family, & Miss Blennerhassett, Capt. guards, Mrs. and Miss Thomp-Dragoons Guards; Mr., Mrs., and Miss Norcliff, and Mrs.

O'Donnell, Blunt, Mason,
O'Brien, and Alexander.

College-green, Dublin, has of £1000 to endow an Alms-the parish of St. Nicholas. oods, which have remained beyond the period allowed ods will be sold if the Crown from the west of Clare, hung Thursday last, in a state of d a reward of £50 for the ap-who fired at W. F. Patterson, Ennis, in addition to which rther sum of £50.

et-work of Ribbonism spread Journal.

n Ballydineen, on the road Jeremiah Normile, was killed oke of a wattle on his head enged him to fight, and who of business in Dublin have Queen's entry and on the Dench, consented to give the complainant 125l. as compensation for the unintentional injury.

John Kean, a scripture reader, a. Michael Liddane and John Maguire, for an assault; this case was prosecuted by Mr. Chartres Molony, and defended by Messrs. Tuthill and O'Grady, Liddane was acquitted, and Maguire a boy of 10 years, fined 1l. or a month's confinement.

Thomas Conla, a. Michael M'Carthy, a baker, for an assault; defendant was fined 10s. and costs.

At Miltown petty sessions, Kerry, two persons were charged by Mr. Thomas Forsyth, teacher of the Laherin school, with assault as he was passing through Castlemaine in company with the Rev. Mr. Dunlop, but he could only identify Thomas M'Gillicuddy who had thrown stones. The magistrates sentenced the offender to two months imprisonment. Five persons belonging to Milltown were charged by the Rev. Mr.
Irwine with hooting and yelling as he passed from the place of worship. They were sentenced to find bail or be imprisoned two months.

A congratulatory address has been presented to James Nagle, Esq., by the magistrates and gentry of Cork, on his promotion from Sessional Crown Prosecutor for the east riding to the post of Clerk of the Crown, Court of Queen's Bench, in the room of the late Pierce Mahony, Esq.

The Nenagh magistrates fined Mrs. Poe, of Donny-brook, for suffering her turkeys to trespass on a neighbour's turnip field. In Collins v. Payne, they fined defendant 5l. for seizure of cattle near Toomevara, and sending them out of the district to Nenagh pound, where they were sold.

Wednesday night, in Nenagh, the house of Mrs.
Burr, relict of Wm. Burr, Esq. was attacked, and several panes of glass broken.

There are more shops in Waterford and Clonmel to be let than in any other portions of the South of Ireland.

68,000 quarters of foreign wheat were imported into Liverpool this week, where from the overstock potatoes are selling at 2d per stone.

Mr. Conlan's Pamela won the Trial stakes at Belfast.

A public subscription is opened to reimburse Thomas Birmingham, Esq. for losses sustained in publishing several valuable works to forward the prosperity of the county and town of Galway. 250l. was subscribed there this week.

Thomas Larkin, pensioner and public-house-keeper at Shannon Harbour, died of intoxication on Wednesday night, after returning with his family from the Exhibition in Dublin.

Several English capitalists have been viewing the estates of Lord Glengal, near Caher, which are offered for sale.

Mr. Hugham, the English candidate who did not go to a poll for Cashel, notwithstanding paid 50l. to the brother of two Roman Catholic priests for his friendly offices in the borough!

At Kilke
of this City
On the 21
Vicar of Ra
At Newto
William Ll
At Multit
Walter N
Mr. Willi
At North
the Apothe
In Skerri
At Newm
In child-
At the ho
Ellen M'Do
Cork.
At his res
Esq. aged 7
In Dublin
Dawson Log
At Sydne
Solicitor.
At Merric
daughter of Mr. Edw
Of apople
Edward I
At Donag
At Belfas
geon, Royal Agnes, w
At Dunda
of H.M.'s C At Bright
land agent
The Righ
At Rogat
Dowager Le
Maria, Cou
At Upper
the Rev. H
At Lorain
At Eaton
Col. Edmun
Aston, of A
At Hastin
formerly M
At Bright
square, and
At Hewsh
nour, Comm
At Tibber
Secretary of
At Haalar
Thomas S
sex, and the Accidenta
Codrington,
Suddenly,
quence of a
of the 16th
At Bucks
Harrigan, a M'Carron.
At Domin
Royal Engin
of Waterfor
At Rango
Fusileers.
At Shankl
Lt.-Col. Cha
At Clonme
At her resi