

this week engaged preaching
and Row Chapel, Dublin.
arrington, senior curate of St.
et, Dublin, has been appointed new parish of St. Laurence Amiens-street and the North mothy O'Ferrall, curate of the
has been appointed parish priest

Mr. O'Neill, of the diocese of minated to the vacant curacy.

Mary Maxwell, daughter of Henry George's-street, Dublin, received onvent of Mercy, Westport. The ntly attired in a white satin ce skirt, looped with orange flow-ge blossoms, and Limerick lace

the Parish Priests of Kerry in pose of electing a coadjutor R.
necessary by the advanced age of an who for thirty years has filled
of the scrutiny was—Very Rev Kenmare, Dignissimus. Very
ty, President of Drumcondra
ery. Rev. John G. M'Entiry, cemetery in the parish of Drum-

mon Sunday, by the Rt. Rev.
The congregation was immense,
arrounding country, and included
tors from Ballyshannon, Done-
d Killybegs. Dr. M'Gettigan cation in a most impressive man-the pastor and people on the very n he had dedicated to the service and the large and respectable illed its walls. Nor could he to the contrast which then pre-mer days, when he himself was ass on the top of some impending where, owing to the persecuting ey were forced to fly, in order to assisting at the celebration of the e mentioned as a remarkable fact his seventh year, there was not a he entire diocese of Raphoe. Now
e beheld beautiful ecclesiastical on, Balintra, Donegal, St. John-in the remotest districts.

of Ardfry, has given 25l. to the towards the building of Ballina-

Vincent de Paul, conference St. age 5s. from a Friend, per John nantry of the Earl of Bandon held t for the season at Ballineen. A ed flax exhibited, was bought at from the North, Dublin and Lime-endance.

Royal Artillery.

Captain Babington, 7th Hussars, to Augusta Mary, eldest daughter of James Moncreiff Melville, Esq. of Hanley.

At Clapham, F. W. P. Freeman, Esq. of Greatham, Sussex, to Augusta Sarah, daughter of Capt. Henry Edward Napier, R.N.

Hugh Hamilton Goold, Esq. Captain Royal Marines, to Sarah Ann Wittman, niece of Charles Wittman Benny, Esq.

Mr. Carlo C. Ricketts, R.N. to Eliza, daughter of Sir Augustus West.

DEATHS.

At Drumcolloher, on Sunday last, after a few days illness, the Rev. John Browne, Vicar of Killiathan, and Private Chaplain to the Earl of Clare and Lord Muskerry,

Louise, wife of the Hon. Robert Hare, of Ballymore, county Cork.

At the Mount St. Vincent Orphanage, Sister Mary Bridget Davis. After office and high mass yesterday, at the Chapel of the Sisters of Mercy, Peter's Cell, her remains were borne by four clergymen to the cemetery adjoining, for interment.

Yesterday, at his house, Nelson-street, Mr. James Hanrahan, butter-buyer.

At Ballingillough, in this County, Catherine, wife of Mr.
Michael Leahy.

At Killeen Castle, county Galway, Mr. John Cullinane.

Mr. Thomas O'Connor, of Lifford, Ennis.

At Ballykinelly, Mary, relict of the late Michael Fitzgerald, Captain R.N.

At his residence, Cove-street, Cork, Mr. William B. Swan
John Corker, son of William Corker, Esq.

At Dunmore, Jamie Saund, Esq.
Killed on the Great Southern and Western railway, Margarette, second daughter of the late Forde Heathley, of Rockford, county Dublin, Esq.

Almost instantaneously, from the effects of the deplorable accident on the Great Southern and Western Railway, Christopher M'Nally, Esq. solicitor, of Lower Gardiner-street.

In Lower Baggot-street, Patrick Fogarty, Esq. formerly of Cabra Castle, county Tipperary.

James, eldest son of the late Sir Francis M'Donnell, of Don-forth, county Kildare.

In her 49th year, Mary Crozier, wife of Edward Long, Esq. of Fort Edward, county Tipperary.

At Mespil Parade, Mary Anne, relict of the late Major Archibald Taylor.

At Maguire's-bride, James Irvine, eatinghouse-keeper, in the 103d year of his age. His eldest son is 80 years old.

At Burnside, near Banbridge, Emily, wife of Dr. Mulligan, and only daughter of the late Rev. John Watson, Gray Abbey.

At Londonderry, Mr. Wm. Gould, railway contractor.

At Rosstrevor, Margaret Mancini, wife of Signer Mancini.

At Melton Mowbray, the Lady Elizabeth Norman, aged 77.

At Ockbrook, Derbyshire, Charles Murray, Esq. Gentleman
Porter of the Tower, and formerly Captain 1st Guards.

At Brighton, George Archibald Innes, Esq. of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law.

Robert Edward Percival Brereton, late Lieutenant Ceylon
Rifles, only son of the late Major Brereton, 42d Highlanders.

Suddenly, in the bath, the Rev. C. Utermark, Rector of Withycombe Raleigh, near Exmouth.

At Eastbourne, Maria Frances, daughter of the late Stephen Lanigan, R.N. aged 17.

At Hanover-square, of typhus fever, F. P. Curie, M.D. physician to the Hahnemann Hospital.

At Regent-square, suddenly, Mr. Wm. Beverley, of the Sovreign Life Assurance Company.

Elizabeth, wife of Lieut.-Colonel E. Every Clayton, of Carr-hall, Lancaster.

At Rochester, Thomas Collier, Esq. brother of the late Sir George Collier, Bart. R.N. aged 91.

At Ben Rhydding, Yorkshire, Kate, daughter of the late Captain Harfield, R.N.

At Kensington Palace, Miss Charlotte Stephenson, sister of the late Major-General Sir Benjamin Stephenson.

At Treport, France, aged 16, James, son of William Callanan, of Paris, Esq. and grandson of the late Dr. Callanan, of Cork.

At Florence, Letitia Elizabeth, third daughter of the late Sylvester Costigan, Esq.

Off Auckland, New Zealand, by the upsetting of his boat, Lieut. C. T. Hutchinson, Royal Engineers, son of Capt. Hutchinson, R.N. of Bedford.

One o'clock in the City of Limerick,
draft award, by a
hereby appoint th
for holding such n
Given under m

Sept, 28.

Liverpoo

| Ships           | To |
|-----------------|----|
| Hibernia,       | 18 |
| Sea Snake,      | 7  |
| Crescent City,  | 13 |
| Thomas Fielden, |    |
| Three Avl. Ch   |    |
| geis.           |    |

Fares to Melbo
and upwards.

For further pa
JAMES M. W.

WILLIAM RA

For F

From 1st DECE
PROPOSALS

Officers of
o'Clock on WED
for the supply o
Billet, for the H and Cavalry in ember, 1853,

The Propos
obtained at thi
o'Clock.

The Propos
Clerk of Surve
marked on the c
Contract," as t