

try in a short but well contested erally regretted that the hare was try more satisfactorily the merits
 In the deciding course Swift beat we mistake not, she will cut out or the Limerick coursing club, of has lately become a member. In her hare she shews extraordinary although she sometimes overruns with which she afterwards resumes that it will take a good dog to beat Sandy won the deciding course of antly, not giving his antagonist
 ng the course.

that it is the intention of Mr. Cur-meetings during the season, and ions there shall be a stake open to ing friends will have a clear stage they will find hares stout enough to
 of their best dogs.

ules, and Mr. Rork's Garryowen, Carrickmacross Steeple Chase on being made to hunt the county

 ode Castle hounds, under the old sers."

R.—Colonel Colt's revolver fire
 any weapon of the kind invented purpose of attack or defence, and
 e. The Hon. Abbott Laurence, no words of his could so emphatiexpress the general approval of report to Congress of the Committee wherein it was stated, that expe-w difficult it was to contend suc-
 ages with the usual arms of mounted ragoon pistol and carbine; whilst experienced officer, who had suc-arms in Florida stated, that they ns with which the United States'
 pe to subdue the wild and daring they were called to act. It was on, that the British troops would pose the Kaffirs, until they were repeating fire arms, and he was one of his countrymen should have which was admitted, as far as yet be superior to any other arm of ore Sir Thomas Hastings, R.N., in the feelings expressed by Hon.
 ain Riddell, R.A. said such ample ving the utility of the revolvers that it was incumbent on him, as a his thanks to Colonel Colt, for ad introduced. Major General Sir ad examined them attentively and with which the trials for the Board conducted, and seeing the results, opinion of their merits, and he felt ilties would be fully appreciated rities.

DEATHS.

On the 23rd inst. at the house of William Franklin, Esq. Upper Mallow-street, aged 16 years, Mary, second daughter of the late Rev. Godfrey Massy, of Bruff Vicarage.

At Lettybrook, King's County, the residence of her brother, John H. Drought, Esq. Maria C, daughter of the late John A. Drought, Esq.

At Ballymountain, near Bandon, Rebecca Biggs, youngest daughter of John Wheeler, Esq. J.P. in her 16th year.

At Rathcooney House, Cork, in her 71st year, Eliza Ware, relict of the late Major Corker, Cork City Regiment of Militia, (surviving her husband only seven weeks.)

John Wright, second son of Joshua Hargrave, Esq. of Cork.

At the Presentation Convent, Dingle, Sister Ignatius Panormo.

In Dublin, in his 88th year, Walter Henry Kavanagh, Esq. formerly of Kilkenny.

At the residence of her brother, in Harcourt-street, Martha Louisa, daughter of the late Robert S. Irvine, Esq.

At Rathmines, Mary, widow of the late Wm. Molton, Esq. Solicitor, Lower Gardiner-street.

In Marlborough-street, Mary, second daughter of the late Christopher Hickson, Esq. of Tralee, and sister of the late John Charles Hickson, Esq. formerly of Gardiner's-place, Dublin.

At Bridge View Terrace, Wellington Bridge, Eliza, eldest daughter of the late Walter H. Fitton, Esq. of Cork.

At his residence, Cottage, near Athlone, Patrick O'Sullivan, Esq. father of Doctor O'Sullivan, of Glennamaddy.

At Maryborough, Eliza, relict of the late Humphrey Broomfield, Esq.

In Dublin, at an advanced age, Miss Elizabeth Allen, late of Waterford.

At his father's residence in Grafton-street, Raymond Joseph O'Hanlon, aged 15 years.

At his residence, South-hill, Upper Rathmines, John Elliot, Esq. of Sackville-street.

Edward Brush, Esq. of Rathcreedin, county Dublin.

Mr. Edmond Stronge, agent to the estate of Sir J. M. Stronge.

Robert, son of the late David Murray, Esq. Dundalk.

At Newry, James, son of J. Raleigh Baxter, Esq.

At Birkenhead, Mary, daughter of the late Edward Hendrick of Kerdiffstown, county Kildare.

At Waterloo-road, in her 23d year, Frances Mitchelson Greene, daughter of Philip O'Dwyer Greene, Esq.

At Melton Mowbray, in her 78th year, Lady Elizabeth Norman, daughter of the fourth Duke of Rutland.

At Dunse, of malignant cholera, J. M. Drysdale, Esq. surgeon, late of 33rd Regt.

The Rev. Doctor Gordon, of the Free Church, Edinburgh.

Suddenly, Marian, relict of Thomas Beard, Esq. M.D. of the Royal Horse Artillery.

At St. Leonard's-on-Sea, Edward Brabazon Urmston, son of the late Sir James Brabazon Urmston, aged 20

Francis Coke Denham Hodgson, eldest son of the late Rev. Francis Hodgson, B.D. Provost of Eton.

At Bath, the Rev. John Abraham Roberts, M.A., Rector of St. Alban's, Wood-street, London.

At Clapham, Lieut. Col. Andrew Tilt, late 37th Regt.

At Gibraltar, on the 14th October, aged 20, Georgina Sophia, wife of William P. P. Mackesy, Esq. Assistant Surgeon of the 30th Regt. and daughter of Major Harvest, Resident at Cerigo for the Lord High Commissioner for the Ionian Islands.

On the 4th of September, at New Orleans, in the prime of life, of yellow fever, Samuel Daxon, fourth son of Wm. Daxon, Esq. late of Kilmorane Cottage, county of Clare; also, on the same day, his son-in-law, Lucas E. Hynes, Esq. of Galway—both to the great affliction of their relatives and friends.

At New York, Hugh Caldwell, M.D. formerly of the British Army. He served under the Duke in Portugal, Spain, and France.

At Poonah, Eleanor Howard, daughter of Captain Mayers, H.M.'s 86th Regt.

At Geelong, Port Philip, Sarah MacBean, wife of Mr. James Evans, formerly of Rutland-street, Limerick.

At Greenhills, on the 20th, Stephen, youngest son of Peter Franklin, Esq.

At Mallow, on the 19th inst., the Rev. Philip Townsend, Rector of Kilcorney, aged 75 years.

At Bermuda, of yellow fever, Marian, wife of Major Oakeley, of the 56th Regiment, and half-sister of the late Lord Kingsale.

Ottomans, ori
 Chimney-piece

An Oval Ch
 board, of large claw supporter Northumberland
 modern style;
 Mahogany G
 Side Press and Plate Warmer

Lamp, Hall
 Thermometer
 Fibre Mats, &

A Brussels
 with drawers a ting Desks, C

The large sui
 State, and Ro
 Wardrobes, M
 stands, do. Co
 Palliasses, Ma
 Mirrors, Carpe

The necessar
 OUT

97 Good stro
 most of which a
 which will be s
 last lot in sheep

IN 4 Milch Cow
 Weanling Calv
 Springer, 3 Sto
 breeding unknow

18 Stacks of e
 town; 10 Stack
 an acre of Prim
 deen Turnips;
 free from blight

IN MACH

A sound Cha
 quite Sound, a chine, Turnip
 Ploughs, Beam
 Weed Rake, do
 Side Saddles, B

Sale to contin
 Household Furn
 Terms—Cash.

Fees. All bills
 second day of sa
 Lisduff is 5
 Roscrea, and 10

Auctioneer, C