The Interest in the Lease OF THE WELLESLEY BUILDINGS, TO BE SOLD BY AUCTION.

JAMES MARSHALL
Has been Instructed by the Proprietor,
MR. J. W. SEWARD,
 WHO IS RETIRING FROM BUSINESS, TO SELL BY AUCTION, On the Premises, The Wellesley Buildings, Brunswick-street, ON THURSDAY, THE 17TH NOVEMBER, THE Interest in the Lease of the above valuable, extensive, and central Establishment, in which THE GROCERY, WINE, SPIRIT, BISCUIT, AND GENERAL SHIP CHANDLERY BUSINESS, has been profitably carried on for NEARLY 20 YEARS. The House is very commodious and built in such a permanent manner as not to require the least repair for years to come. The Shop is fitted up in a perfectly useful manner for all the above requirements. There is sufficient space at the rear for the erection of a Store, and in fact to a person of business habits and reasonable capital, it offers advantages not often to be met. It is only subject to the ground rent, as the House, &c. were built by Mr Seward. Also in the market by Private Sale, THE DWELLING-HOUSE, GROUNDS AND FACTORY, Situate opposite the County Jail, and immediately opposite the New Market, known as MULGRAVE HOUSE LACE FACTORY. Application to be made to Mr. J. W. SEWARD, Wellesley Buildings; or to JAMES MARSHALL, Auctioneer, 96, George-street, Limerick. Oct. 29.

VERY DESIRABLE Fee Simple Estate. WITHIN THREE MILES OF LIMERICK. FOR PRIVATE SALE. OATLANDS,

A DJOINING the Demesne of Roxborough, it contains 233 Statute Acres of Prime land, the principal portion in Grass, about 30 Acres of which has been laid down this season with the best description of Clover and Grass seeds. The above was a purchase under the incumbered estates court in 1852, since which period the proprietor has expended a very considerable sum in lasting improvement. A CONVENIENT DWELLING HOUSE, with enclosed Yard and Out Offices, has been built; a Pump sunk, walls raised, and the land cleared, so that a purchaser would have very little outlay. THE HOUSE has the advantage of Roxboro' plantation on one side, Friarstown on the other, and commands a grand view of mountain scenery, with the splendid demesne of Ballynagarde, nearly in front; it is within 3 miles of Limerick, in a peaceable country, well intersected with good roads. Gentlemen wanting an Estate with residence should look after this at once, as it is very desirable, and immediate possession of the entire can be given. It is only subject to the Title Rentcharge of £8 12s. 9d. Part of the purchase money can remain as a lien on the estate. Application to be made to the Owner, Mr. JAMES ROWAND, at Oatlands; or to JAMES MARSHALL, Auctioneer, 96, George-st. Limerick. Who will give any further information. Oct. 1.
