DEATHS.

Yesterday, after a short illness, at his seat, Stagdale, in this county, William Massey, Esq. J.P.—a gentleman of the most affable disposition and courteous manners, whose death is sincerely lamented by his friends and tenantry.

Yesterday morning, at his residence in Patrick-street, in the 80th year of his age, Peter Arthur, Esq. the last member of a most respectable family, for centuries connected with the City of Limerick, in whose commercial prosperity and political independence he long took an active interest. When age and infirmities impaired the vigor of those intellectual and social faculties, for which he was conspicuous, Mr. Arthur bid farewell to public life, and for several years before his death found true happiness only in the duties of religion and charity. He died the death of the righteous man, in peace with God, hoping for a blessed immortality through his Lord and Saviour.
