

(sent to the London Gazette.) ment of the London Gazette con-ncil, dated yesterday. The first orisals against Russian ships and forbids British ships and vessels or any Russian ports, and decrees a of all Russian ships and vessels now all hereafter come into, any of the roads, within any of her Majesty's with all persons and effects on or vessels. The third order con-the second order. Russian mer-ny ports or places in her Majesty's allowed until the 10th day of May and departing from such ports or Russian vessels, if met at sea by 's ships, shall be permitted to con-if, on examination of their papers, their cargoes were taken on board n of the above term, provided that e not on board any officer on the service of the enemy, or any article aband of war, or any despatch of government. A royal proclamation the allotment of prize money and crews of the ships of the royal otland, who died on Monday, at ksop, was in his 86th year, and one g political characters contemporary ham, Fox, and the great men of rquess of Titchfield succeeds his title and estates.

 s, who had been an officer in the ed at Kingston assizes to four ent, for bigamy.
 's Jacqueline won the great Norths, and Mr. Land's Need won the annual, yesterday.

BLIN, MARCH 31.
 spital Grants Committee:—Lord Lord A. Hervey, Hon. W. Percyomas Frankland Lewis, Mr. Kirk, M'Gregor, Mr. Whitmore. Lord chairman of the committee—which business till Tuesday, 2d May, aghan assizes upon the trial of mis, before Baron Greene and Ser-nspiracy to murder the late Mr. d in all night, and discharged next ct. The prisoners were remanded. the bill distributor, was employed giving handbills which contained of a sermon to be preached in Church. Amongst others, Mr.

The 14th in this garrison, expect an order every post, to move on to Cork, for embarkation in the Bombay for Malta.

The 14th Depot proceeds hence to Birr. Captain Trevor, 14th, now attached to the Depot, will embark with the service companies.

A company of the 57th is ordered to Clare Castle, to replace the detachment of the 14th, which returns to head-quarters here.

Lieut. Armstrong, 14th, promoted to a company without purchase is studying in the senior department of Sandhurst College.

The promotions in the 14th announced by the Chronicle last post, have been duly gazetted.

Lieut. Bamford, 2d or Queen's Royal, succeeds Lieut. Slater, 82d, as Superintending Officer of the Recruiting service in this district.

Captain White's troop 16th Lancers left Dublin yesterday for Limerick, and Capt. Grant's troop for Clonmel.

The departure of Lt.-Col. Tidy on promotion from the 14th Regt. in which he served with great credit for 31 years, is regretted sincerely from the highest to the lowest in rank.

Private Thos. Molyneux, Grenadier Company 14th Regt., died at the New Barracks, on Thursday morning, after a few hours illness, and was interred in the afternoon, with military honours.

A soldier of the 57th Depot was interred in Munchin's Church on Thursday, the comrades of deceased, who joined in the funeral procession wearing white linen scarfs.

Thomas Costelloe, Esq. Coroner, held an inquest yesterday at the New Barracks, upon the body of Thomas Murphy, a recruit of the 14th Regt. who died from excessive indulgence in ardent spirits.—A verdict to the effect was returned by the jury.

Brevet Lt.-Col. Farquharson, late 65th, resigned the appointment of Deputy Adjutant General at Jamaica, where Lt.-Col. Tidy succeeds him.

Brigadier Scarlett arrived in Cork yesterday, from Dublin, to prepare the 5th Dragoon Guards for embarkation to the East.

It is currently believed among military circles that, in addition to the late augmentation, there is to be a further increase in the army of 30,000 men.

The following Regts. are to be augmented to 1300 men each—4th, 7th, 19th, 23d, 28th, 30th, 33d, 38th, 41st, 42d, 44th, 47th, 49th, 50th, 55th, 77th, 79th, 88th, 93d, 95th, 2d Bat. Rifles, and 1st Bat. Royals, and the following to 1200, viz. 20th, 21st, 34th, 63d and 97th.

Lord Lucan and staff left London for the East this day. The first division of the expeditionary force, now at Malta, is being moved to Constantinople.

Captain Inglefield's company Royal Artillery, is ordered to Dublin, to replace Major Kowan's company. Eight privates deserted from the 63d Regt. in the

"In offi
 vitare diffici
 Earl Clan
 Peers on Tu
 with homici fore Sergean
 for any met adopt, and i
 public justic sition upon
 sizes, imply bench, its in the gravest
 however, wi
 lord there w
 the presidin
 stands in th
 congratulat other Judge
 paid to his e Viceroy; by well; also b
 the Pacificat has judicial ture in the ledgment by Sergeant's h
 both, while
 But what
 A boxing m
 when the ot
 blow, of whi
 Jury found brother was offender offe
 the Crown C versant with the indictme
 them, know witnesses to Every juror
 Crown coun
 the least int
 minal case.
 advisers und
 of admitting simplest pue
 would be so
 of the hands
 as prosecute
 whole facts,
 case, the ma
 morally or j
 Can we feel withdrew hi
 House adver