

conveyance, in addition to 49 tons of ammunition.

Lacy Evans reviewed the whole, numbering 9000 bayonets, height of the Guards, with the Moslem spectators. At the LIMERICK CHRONICLE cargo of prime Irish Butter double the home market and by the officers or men of the 1st as a substitute!

They are all under canvas on the deck and Kadi Kiew, on the deck accommodation. The dangers at Gallipoli is misapprehension to believe that he has been killed.

As regards the health and discipline are satisfactory, but the accounts had been much exaggerated being accommodation for the sick, with every exertion the arrangements were excellent and the supply of bread, or 1lb. of flour daily. Canteens had also been provided for the men, &c. were much improved.

Hussars, Lieut. Cockburn, and others, have arrived from India.

Arrived at Queenstown, is with a pilot on board, on the 1st of the month.

Distinguished himself, of the 1st, was Capt. M'Cleverty.

Artillery has been without a month, and the duties are being performed by the Head Constable.

We have seen a specimen of a book published by Messrs. Smith and Weller at the various Railways of "Royal Hotel Guide" and from the interest of the manner in which the details are given, there is no doubt but it will be useful to all travellers, but also to the proprietors of the hotels of its pages as a measure of their scale of charges and rates.

daughter of the late Baron von Reitzenstein, Colonel in the King of Prussia's Body Guard.

In Barbadoes, FitzHerbert Alleyne, Esq. son of Sir Reynold A. Alleyne, Bart. to Anna Maria Best, daughter of Sir R. Bowcher Clarke, C.B., Chief Justice of Barbadoes and St. Lucia.

DEATHS.

Mary Carlton, wife of John Warburton, Esq. J.P. Crinkle, near Birr, and sister of Col. Perceval, who for many years represented the county Sligo in Parliament.

At the residence of her father-in-law, Thomas Meagher, Esq. M.P. at the Mall, Waterford. Catherine, the wife of Thomas Francis Meagher, Esq. in her 22d year.

At his father's house in Anne-street, Edward, son of Mr. Malachi Ryan.

In Henry-street, on the 8th inst Mr. Martin O'Connor, miller, of a protracted illness, which he bore with true Christian piety and resignation.

The Rev. Rowland Bateman, of Ballydonoghue, Tarbert.

At Larne, Mary Elizabeth, relict of the late John Bows, Esq. Paymaster 73d Regt.

At Prospect, the Rev. James Wilson, Presbyterian Minister of Magherafelt, in the 64th year of his age.

At Leck, near Strabane, Robert M'Crea, Esq. aged 98.

At Raheny lodge, Jane, daughter of John D'Arcy, Esq.

At Harcourt Terrace, William Newcombe, Esq. Barrowford, Athy.

Mr. John Prendergast, hairdresser, Lower Sackville-street.

At Botanic View, Belfast, the Rev. Moses Finlay, aged 75.

At Lisburn, in his 76th year, Capt. Joseph Crawford, late of Banbridge.

The Rev. Thomas M'Carthy, P.P. Killaugh and Kilbride, Meath.

At Ballinamore, Mrs. Caroline Latimer.

At Fort Glenwherry, county Antrim, aged 90, Mr. M. Rogers, father of the late Rev. Hugh Rogers, Presbyterian Minister, of Larne.

Sarah Josephine, daughter of the Rev. Austin Cooper.

In Norland-terrace, Notting-hill, Major T. F. Prendergast, late of 17th Foot and 3d West India Regt.

At Clifton, Elizabeth Ann, relict of the late Rev. Sir John Godfrey Thomas, of Bodiam, Sussex, and sister of the Very Rev. Charles Vignolles, D.D., Dean of Ossory.

At Liverpool, George Courtney, Esq. aged 86.

At Portobello, Edinburgh, Lt.-Col W. Skene, H.E.I.C.S.

At Catton, near Norwich, Mary Hobart, widow of the late Rev. Henry Charles Hobart, Canon of Hereford, and eldest daughter of the late Sir Thomas Beauchamp Proctor, Bart.

In Bath, Arabella Phillippa, widow of Major Bird, formerly of the 1st Royal Regt.

At Southampton, Major John Thornton, late of Kensington.

At the house of her son, Henry George Warren, Gloucester-street, Queen-square, Eleanor, relict of the late Henry Warren, many years of the Courier, newspaper.

At Kensington, the Rev. Thomas Ward, chaplain of the London hospital.

In Paris, Antonina, wife of Capt. Gronow.

At Gibraltar, Daniel Magrath, Esq.

At Sheet harbour, Nova Scotia, Mr. David Redmond, formerly of Tintern, county Wexford.

In the Baltic, on board the Royal George, Lieut. H. Freeland, R.M.

In Washington City, James Emmett Ryan, son of Mr. Wm. Ryan, formerly of Limerick, and brother of Mr. James Ryan, gilder, of Shannon-street, in that city.

Lost off Antigua, in the steamer Ercolano, Charlotte Owen, wife of Edward Lewis Knight, Esq. late 20th Regt.; also their children, Edward John Allanson, and Robert Wynn.

At Queenstown, four months after his brother, William Augustus Bayly, son of the Rev. Edward Bayly.

At Westport, Alan Rutherford, Esq.

In Dublin, Mary, wife of Captain John Monck Mason, Unattached.

rateable
liel of th
The Rat
toral
The R inspector room, W
the hour
o'clock i payable Signed

May 13

TO WHOM KNOW
K borro
parted th
of Louisa last Will said City
N. B.—
Executor,

THE of the 22
the insertio
UNION

Sealed T
Publication
on or before contain the performance
By Ord

Board Ro

F. WI
IN return
the Patr
solicit a co
Establishmen
thy and beau
tle of the tow
Great Exhibi
Car Fares Hotels in the Omnibusses
Bank of Irelan