

DEATHS.

On the 19th inst. at his residence, Henry-street, the Rev. William Lupton, Wesleyan Minister, in the 52d year of his age, and 26th of his ministry. His sorrowing family and congregation have been called in this bereavement to sustain a loss which cannot easily be supplied, and in the recollection of his many noble qualities of heart and of intellect, their grief would be overwhelming but that their eyes of faith can follow him to the enjoyment of that exceeding great reward which the LORD JESUS has prepared for them that love Him. In the death of this truly good and great man the Church of God has to bewail a devout and deeply pious minister, whose gifts were of rare and exalted excellence, and whose spirit was the most purely generous and Catholic in its every tone and sentiment. A longer life of usefulness might have been calculated on, but God saw fit to remove him in the full zenith of his powers, and he has been gathered home to the enjoyment of rest before the shadows of evening had begun to fall upon his path. He died in the full assurance of faith, and his end was peace.
