

DEATHS.

On Thursday, in Doneraile, to the inexpressible grief of her family and friends, Rebecca, the beloved wife of William Ashton, Esq. and daughter of the late Wm. Lloyd, Esq. of this City.

At Adare, on the 25th inst. of water on the brain, John Samuel, the infant son of Dr. Worrall.

At his residence, Rouslow, near London, on the 22d inst. Samuel Lambert, Esq. of the firm of Lambert and Bury, late "Walker and Lambert," the original founders of the Lace Factories in this city.

At Golden Grove, Dawson Hutchinson Lloyd Vaughan, Esq. J.P. for the county Tipperary and King's County.

At Belvidere-place, Kate Henrietta, daughter of the late Lt. Col. Gore, C. B. Barrackmaster, Fethard

At his residence, South Mall, Cork, Mary, daughter of Geo. J. Wetherley, Esq. M. D.

At Richmond Terrace, Cork Miss Margaret M'Mullen.

At his residence, Passage West John Thomas Tuckey, Esq.

At Jane Ville Terrace, Sunday's-well, Miss Sarah Finn.

In Tralee, Mr. Michael O'Connor, tailor.

At Templeville, Killiney, George Colclough, second son of Edward Hartson Burroughs, Esq. of Harcourt st. barrister.

Mr. Charles Hughes, late of Monastereven, aged 80.

At Clontarf, Francis Davine, Esq.

William Davis, Esq. Secretary to the Corporation for Preserving and Improving the port of Dublin.

At Mountpleasant-square, William Henry, only son of John Webb, Esq.

Mr. Francis Jones formerly of Dawson street.

At Dalkey, the residence of her son in-law, Mr. Hynes, Anne, relict of William Brannick, Esq. late of Beach-grove, Mayo.

At Ham-common, Mary Anne Martha, daughter of the late late James Scott, Esq. of Willsborough county Londonderry.

In Eaton-terrace, the Viscountess Polington.

At Lennington the Rev. Wm. Henry Norris only son of the Rev. Frederick Norris, rector of Grandson Cambridge-shire

At Coed, near Dolgelly, North Wales, Henry Richards, Esq. son of the late Lord Chief Baron Richards.

At Danira, Perthshire Georgiana Catherine, eldest daughter of Sir David Dallas, of Beechwood, Bart.

At Nairn, N. B. Ann, relict of Lieut. Wm. Willox, R. A.

At Exeter, George Wm. Braude, Esq. late of the Treasury.

At Auchrennie, Muirdrum N. B. James Webster, Esq.

At Guernsey, aged 74, Sir William Collings, Kt.

At Islington, Peter Stewart, Esq. Secretary to the Standard Life Assurance Company.

At Bordeaux on his return from India, Capt. Colin Campbell Scott, 32d Regt Bengal N. I.

At Pisa aged 74, Richard Butler Hancock, formerly Lieut. Colonel 13th Foot.

Of cholera, at Barbadoes, Agnes wife of H. Stanley Jones, of Lynne, Anglesca, Esq. Assistant Commissary-General, and daughter of Robert Muter, Esq. formerly Lieut.-Colonel Royal Canadian Rifles.

At Montreal, Mr. Wm. Middlemas, engineer, a native of Roxbureshire.

At Fairfax, Vermont, Mr. Wm. Rings, formerly of the Royal Navy, aged 83.

At the Mauritius, John Finnis, Esq. Inspector General of Police in that colony. Also accidentally drowned in the Murray river, South Australia. Travers Finnis, aged 15, grandson to the above, and son of Boyle Travers Finnis, Esq. Colonial Secretary, Adelaide.

At Malligann Andrew James Lamb, Esq. 22d Bombay Infantry, son of David Lamb, Esq. Liverpool.

ally, from at about rick at
at the T
to conve

Limer
—
Inc

In the M
of ST
DON,

GEORGE CHARLO
Rev. W
DON, and MAUNSE

days from Dated O'BRI
riage of June

L
FOR Kill
and after Kilrush,
FROM L
Tuesday
Wednesday
Thursday
Friday
Saturday
From

Limer
1st, 3d,
Return
issued da
Monday,