

is in London, consolidating the of Ireland—an ice to either. has retired from years, for the e. Dublin Police, Hospital Fair on ely at good prices. ifers at £17 per at £2 5s. ; Mr. victualler, Lime- , Bottomstown, Sheban, of Hos- ennessy victual- head. Mutton and Beef 50s. per descriptions of tle, which were Some top lots, Coffee, of Crow- . each. which will arrive [in her first trial miles per hour. Kennedy, left our g on board 125 sition steamer,) down the Shan- lent. The Erin he Koh-i-Noor. multitude at the tic cheers were cess of his trip. ay, from Lime- at Foynes and and 20 minutes. the first of the returned from or Limerick on Joseph on the landed 48 pas- the Colonial arrived in Cork t Liverpool on Mersey she had r Melbourne. soon broke out put into Cork dead on board een passengers aving shipped was sent back

F. Fitzherbert, Esq. of Ravenscourt-park, Hammer-smith.
In Ceylon. Thomas Gunn, Esq. to the daughter of Thomas Brett, Esq. Athlone.
Edward Dombain, Esq. son of Sir James Dombain, to Catherine Emily, daughter of the late Francis Fetherstone H. Esq. D.L. Casino, Wicklow.

DEATHS.

On Saturday, at Kilfinane, at the advanced age of 75 years, Charles Bennett, Esq. He had been for upwards of 40 years one of the Coroners of this county, which office he filled with the most honorable zeal and integrity, and to the satisfaction of all parties. He was a gentleman highly esteemed and respected by all classes, being possessed of a kind, good-natured heart and friendly disposition and manners. His remains were interred in the family burial ground at Kilfinane.

On the 5th inst. at the residence of her nephew, John Fraser, Esq. Mitchelstown, deeply lamented by her family and friends, Miss Lucinda Dartnell, sister of George Dartnell, of this city, Esq.

At his house in Nelson-street, on Sunday last, Mr. James Parker, pawnbroker, deeply regretted by his family.

A Grand Parade, Cork, Anthony, eldest son of Mr. Edward Hawkesworth.

At Charleville, Mrs. Isabella Croke.

Fanny, wife of the Rev. Hyacinth D'Arcy, rector Clifden.

At Castletown, county Tipperary, Henrietta, widow of the late Mr. William O'Brien.

Mrs. Jonathan Steele, Matron of the Clogheen workhouse, and wife of the Master of that establishment.

At Nenagh, Mr. John Francis Hill, nephew to Mr. Francis Byron, aged 18.

At Martinstown, county Meath, Mr. Peter Cregan.

Columbus James, son of Patrick Ward, Esq. Main-street, Ballinasloe.

In Tuam, Mr. Pierce Burke; and Catherine, relict of the late Mr. P. Kelly.

At Galway, suddenly, Richard Pigott, pensioner, and Garrison Librarian at Athlone.

Mr. Eugene Flood, student of Maynooth college, nephew of the Rev. Dr. O'Connell, P.P. Trim.

At Abbeyville, county Sligo, the residence of her son-in-law, James Fleining, Esq. Dorothea, relict of the late Wm. White, Esq. of Kingsbrook

At Dorset-street, Harriet, daughter of the Rev. John Radcliff, rector of Kilcooly, county Kilkenny.

At Great Britain-st. Anne, wife of Mr. Johnstone Berry.

At Warwick-street, Charing-cross, London, two days after his arrival from the Mauritius, Surgeon Thom, Principal Medical Officer, Mauritius.

At Tregrehan, Cornwall, Major General Carlson, aged 70.

The Rev. S. G. F. Triboulet Demainbray, 55 years rector of Broad Somerford, aged 95.

At Hammersmith, aged 75, Mr. Thomas Baker, late Superintendent of the St. James Division of the Metropolitan force, and formerly Sergeant Major Coldstream Guards. Mr. Baker was also Usher of the Yeomen of the Guard.

At Bellevue, Haverfordwest, Capt. John Canavan, late 64th

In Gloucester-place, Andrew Trevor, Esq. formerly Surgeon 33d Regt, aged 83.

In Hastings-street, St. Pancras, Elizabeth Jane, daughter of the late Thomas Perry, Esq. Paymaster 7th D. Guards.

At Hastings, Susan Watson, daughter of C. M. Sughrue, Esq. of Stepney-green, Middlesex.

At Deptford, Thomas Drake Finch, Esq. clerk of the Audit office Somerset house, and brother to the Rev. B. Finch, rector of St. Paul's, Deptford.

At Wiesbaden, Dr. Gergens, M.D.

At Montreal, Alexander Campbell, Esq. writer to the Signet, formerly of Edinburgh.

At Erie Cottage, Canada, Jane, eldest daughter of the late Dr. Charles Earle, 104th Regt.

In Boston, U.S. Honora, wife of Mr. Patrick Kavanagh, and daughter of the late Thomas Hussey, of Dingle, co. Kerry.

At Clonmel, Mary, daughter of the late Laurence Clutterbuck, Esq.

At Torquay, Marion, wife of Hugh Baker, Esq. of Lisnacue, and only child of the late Charles Conyers, Esq.

To FRANCIS SPAIGN
President, &c. Chamber of

Limerick

THE Board of Guardians and Sold, by Public next, the 13th inst., at the P. tity of Worn-out Clothing. Sale at 12 o'clock.

July 8.

COUNTY OF T

To be

THE Lands of KILLARD of Nenagh, and 3 of Dro Shannon, containing, accordi 265 acres statute measure, ne well suited for either tillage o These Lands are held for ev rent; the title is clear and th tion of the owner. There is tage with extensive Farm Off For further particulars ap Esq. Killard Cottage, Nenagh

ROYA

Agricultural

SOCIETY OF

THE Society's Show at A of Ulster, will take place AUGUST next, when Premiums of £1,200 will be offered to Stock, Implements, &c.

Very favorable arrangements various Railway and Steam-carriage to and from Armagh, &c. duly entered. Thus the the Ballymena, the Dublin and and Belfast Junction, the Du have agreed to carry all articles free; so also has the county Do Horses. The Southern and W Midland Railway, will charge make no charge on articles ret have not been Sold, or have no

The City of Dublin Steam-b to and from Dublin and Belfast once a-week; and the Belfast will charge articles going to th those returning unsold.

The Committee have also arr of the Whitehaven, Morecombe Greenock, Glasgow, and Str convey Stock, &c. at half freight

All entries must be lodged n Prize Sheets, and Forms of application to ROBERT COCHRAN the Local Committee. Armagh Society's Office, 42, Upper Sack

THOMAS H.

July 5.