

TURDAY.

good fortune to wit-and Juliet." to our Shakespeare's tragedies. as to whether the
Mr. King, whom s character, though
acting in others:
lly and delightfully to say that Mr. qual to any living personal appearance, above many celebrating could be more n of the character:
iful and touching so famous. This as a very excellent any one part for er, remark on the th which he spoke pon her hand!
t hand, in the scene where rised and delighted of his acting. On he showed great of the lines—n, stars;" pothecary, he was men's souls,
some world,
thou mayest not sell;
me none!"
delivery were es-delighted us very perfectly natural,
like overstraining.
character, which ch a very fragrance veliness, more ex-young and charm-of that spiritual—ter, that well suits necessary to call the t, to the girl-like rably and so justly
; but we cannot y with which she t's mind between er husband: from n to shame!"
was affecting and

In Liverpool Thomas Lancaster, Esq. of Rombay, to Ellen, daughter of the late Anthony Molyneux, of Nenham house.
At Abergavenny, the Rev. W. Louis Buckley, B.A. to Anna Henrietta, daughter of the late Capt. George Stirling.
At Isle of Man, Walter Aldous Le Neve Arnold, Esq. of Feering, Essex, to Matilda Avarina, daughter of the late Major Charles B. Bennett, 64th Regt.
Lt. Col. Willoughby, C.B. Artillery, Principal Commissary of Ordnance, to Eliza, eldest daughter of the late Col. Egan, Bombay Army.
At Cleveland, U.S. Benjamin Gass Esq. of Texas, formerly of Monaghan, to Bessie, daughter of the late Rev. Charles Evatt, rector of Monaghan.

DEATHS.

On Monday last, in her confinement, Mary the beloved wife of John Gleeson, Esq. T.C. a lady sincerely and deservedly lamented. She was an excellent and devoted wife and mother, who filled all the domestic duties in an exemplary and praiseworthy manner.
John, eldest son of Thomas M'Namara, Esq. Ballyvaughan, county Clare
At his seat Rylands, county Wexford, sincerely and deservedly regretted, Augustus Pentland, Esq. brother-in-law of James Gubbins, Esq. of Kenmare castle.
At Ashfield, Fermoy, aged 20, David Downing, eldest son of Denis Downing, Esq.
On Friday last, universally esteemed by all classes, the Very Rev. Michael Nagle, P.P. of Gort, and Roman Catholic Vicar-General of the diocese of Kilmacduagh.
Suddenly, Mr. Wm. Bradford, of Patrick-street, Cork, whilst walking with his son.
At Stokestown, county Wexford, Sarah, widow of the late Joseph Deane, Esq.
Suddenly, Mrs. Donegan, wife of Mr. B. Donegan, North Main-street, Cork.
In Galway, Mr. William Short, Scholar of Queen's College, Galway, late of Tuam.
At Mullingar, John Edward Butler, Esq. C.E. aged 30, second son of James Butler, Esq. D.L. Waterville, co. Kerry.
At Hazlewood, near Sligo, Mr. Clarke, gardener to the Rt.
Hon. John Wynne.
At Town View, Tinnehely, co. Wicklow, Robert Bates, Esq.
At Crow-street, Anne, wife of Mr. Samuel Mathews.
Marianne, wife of Mr. John Barrett, Westmoreland-street.
George Maguire, Esq. of Montpellier-hill.
At Hardwicke-place, Samuel Wauchob, Esq. solicitor.
At Scare-street, Bedford-square, aged 94, Mary Charlotte, sister of the late Edmund Lodge, Esq. K.H. Clarenceux, King of Arms, F.S.A. and daughter of the Rev. Edmund Lodge, formerly rector of Carshalton, in Surrey.
Suddenly, at Greenwich, Captain Dickinson, R.N.
Drowned whilst bathing, at Fareham, Hants, Henry Althorn and Nathaniel Bradshaw Stuart, aged 9 and 8 years, children of Lt. Col. Cumberlege, 7th Madras Light Cavalry.
Suddenly, at Ewell, Emily Jane, wife of the Rev. Sir Geo.
L. Glyn, Bart.
In Doncaster, Barbara Elizabeth, wife of Francis G. O'Reilly, Esq. and eldest daughter of John Balguy, Esq. Q.C. Commissioner of Bankruptcy.
At Perth, Anna Maria Hawkshaw, widow of the late Major General Thomas Hawkshaw.
Paul Moon James, Esq. managing director of the Manchester and Salford bank.
Elizabeth, widow of Mr. Thomas Arnott, of Huddersfield.
At Ainslie-place, Edinburgh, John Hay Forbes, Esq. of Medwyn formerly one of the Senators of the College of Justice, aged 77.
In Bangor, John Wilson, Esq.
At Varna, Commander Eagles, R.N.
At St. Louis, U.S. John William Baker, Esq. youngest son of the late John Scott Baker, of Dublin, Esq.
At Barbadoes, of cholera, John Montefiore, Esq.
At Beechworth, Australia, aged 13, of dysentery, Henry L.
Pendleton, Esq. son of Capt. H. L. Pendleton, Louth Regt.

NOTICE is hereby giv-mentioned, are about situated in the undermen-of the above named Union visions of the Acts for t Poor in Ireland.

The Rates for the or-several Electoral Divisions and deductions hereinafter Abbeyville Electoral D in the Pound.

Ballynabanogue Elector pound.

Donoman Electoral divi Grange Electoral divisi Kilfinny Electoral divisi

And whereas, Annuities certain Electoral Divisi ons, or Places, comprise the provisions of the Act the above mentioned Rat purpose of providing for th ties, in accordance with t section of the said last men

And whereas, by an ord Commissioners for admini Relief of the Poor in Irela May 1853, provision is m the Liabilities of the sever the said union, on the ch took place in pursuance Commissioners dated the 3 and for indemnifying such exchange of property occa of Boundaries; and by th the balances standing in several Townlands of the s ment and indemnification;

The amount of such bal favour of the Townlands) amount to be levied on suc the rate to be made as here Electoral Divisions in w respectively comprised; Balances (where they are a be added to and levied wit on such townlands in resp as hereinbefore mentioned in which such Townlands

The Rate-books are depo any Ratepayer at the Boar and will there open for su hours of Ten o'clock in o'clock in the Afternoon, next ensuing the date her

Signed this 27th day

Cl