

Tipperary, was drowned

is to be reduced.

Names of students who July, 1854—Benjamin urke, Wm. Clarke, John
prizes; Emma Gabbett; James F. Goggin; Row-
James Ledger, 2 prizes;
Grady; Patrick O'Hallo-John Scott, 2 prizes; Mary prizes; Mary Sullivan.— ted on the re-opening of all the unions of the south ed this month to a figure ten years, and yet there ction of poor rate and ict prison last year was the cheapest in Ireland.

Malone, Ryan, Hayes and Nenagh gaol for assault er, when returning home fair held in that town.
t whoever is the contracte, near this city, deserves of stones on the pathway, ered for construction on ected Chairman of the estropp, Esq, resigned.

ney. is sworn in a member nd John Sterling, Esq. is as Thompson, Esq.
k the winning horses were Bayly's Idle Girl, Sir T.
s Rosalba, Mr. Dillon's lskip.

assengers were leaving the een Queenstown and Bal-red at the latter place, nded with serious conse-ing been fixed with suffiquay, and the Rev. H. y person on it at the time among the stones of the ed, it being low water at everely cut and bruised.
e Victoria hotel, Cork.
Douglas, before the Magis-turbance at the bar and lainant. It appears the ne of the bootboys had a d M'Cormick interfered ng the worst of it, when would be served in the nd off. Ultimately the the instance of mutua

the late George Bagot Gosset, Esq. 4th Dragoon Guards.
At St. James', Piccadilly, the Earl of Spencer to Adelaide, daughter of the late Sir Horace B. Seymour, M.P. for Antrim.
Henry Mather Jackson, Esq. eldest son of William Jackson, Esq. M.P. of the Manor house, Birkenhead, to Elizabeth, second daughter of Thomas B. Blackburne, Esq. of Grange-house, Birkenhead.
At Adelaide, Charles Townshend Hargrave, Esq. C.E. son of the late Abraham Hargrave, Esq. of Ballynoe, county Cork, to Jessie, daughter of the late John Morton, Esq. of Shooter-hill, Kent.
At the Metropolitan chapel, Marlboro'-st. Dublin, Cornelius Mahony, Esq. Queen's College, Galway, to Maryann, only daughter of the late Robert Curran, Esq. M.D., of Drewscourt, county Limerick.

DEATHS.

At his residence, Hill Farm, Summer-hill, on the 5th inst.
John Williams, Esq. brother of Mrs. Arthur E. D'Esterre, of this city, sincerely regretted by his family and friends.
At Fitzwilliam-place, Dublin, the Hon. Mrs. Henry Hamilton, sister to the late Duchess of Wellington, aged 75.
At Paris, on the 7th inst. William Hill, Esq. M.D. aged 32 years, son of the late Thomas Hill, Esq. of Ballyhigh, in the county Limerick.
At Killeely, of fever, the Rev. John Maher, R.C. curate of that parish.
At New Town, near Kilkee, Mr. Michael Clanchy, aged 96.
At his residence, Athlone, James Kelly, Esq. M.D.
John Kelly, eldest son of Mrs. Kelly, of Pulteneytown, and grandson of John Leith, Esq. of Langley park, Wick. N.B.
Drowned while bathing in the river Boyne, near Brogheda, John Creswell Lindsay, only son of John Lindsay, formerly of Cork, Esq. solicitor.
At Griffith Lodge, Milltown, co. Cavan, David Griffith, Esq.
At Lisburn, John Christie, Esq. late of Demarara.
At Loyally glebe, Rosanna Caroline, wife of the Rev. Loftus Reade, rector of Devenish, county Fermanagh.
At Phibsborough, Mr. Joseph Smyth.
At Bullock, county Dublin, Thomasina Goodfellow, relict of the late Mr. Henry Goodfellow.
John Guise Mitford, Esq. youngest son of the late Bertram Mitford, of Clontarf, Esq.
Stanislaus Francis, son of Mr. James A. Gavin, of Mount-pleasant-square.
Anne, wife of Mr. George Godden, deer-keeper, Phoenix park.
At Cheltenham, Col. William Henley Raikes; late of the Coldstream Guards.
At his residence, Gloucester-road, Old Brompton, Thomas Crofton Croker, Esq.
At Devonshire-terrace, Walcot-square, Margaret, wife of Robert M'Intire, Esq. and daughter of the late Ninian Bogga, Esq. of Londonderry.
Suddenly, R. Snow, Esq. Banker, Strand, London.
At Southport, Mr. John Knight Mansell, of the Union Bank, Manchester.
Suddenly, at Clare, Suffolk, the Rev. George Wightman, D.D.
At Manly-place, Kennington-common, Samuel Nixon, Esq.
At Edinburgh, Dr. John Lamb.
At Chelsea, at an advanced age, Mrs. Edwin, formerly of Drury-lane Theatre.
At Vevey, Lt.-Col. Paul, late Hanoverian Consul at Genoa.
At Messina, on his way to Corfu, Lieut. W. A. Burrowes, R.A. son of Lt.-Col. Wm. Burrowes, of Dangan, co. Meath.
At Ehrenbreitstein, Henry Aloys Praeger, formerly chapel master to the late Duke of Cambridge.
At Varna, of cholera, Mr. Warren, Ordnance storekeeper.
At Philadelphia, Allan John, eldest son of Mr. Samuel Miliken, formerly of Belfast.
At the Mauritius, of cholera, Eleonore, wife of Joseph Deas, Esq. rector of the Royal College.
At Perth, Western Australia, the Rev. Thomas O'Neill, a native of Waterford.
At Kilrush, Maria, sister of Mr. Thomas Chambers.
At Castl-bar, Mr. John Flynn, hotelkeeper.
Robert Bateson Seymour, Esq.
Edward Elliott, Esq., Assistant Secretary to the Master General of the Ordnance.

duly made on dermentioned Elect Union, rateable un
for the Relief of t
The Rates for th
several Electoral Di and deductions herei
Electoral Division o
Electoral division o
Electoral division o
Electoral division o

And whereas, An certain Electoral D
tions, or Places, cor the provisions of the
the above mentioned purpose of providing ties, in accordanc
said last mentioned

And whereas, by Commissioners for Relief of the Poor in May 1853, provision the Liabilities of the the said union, on t
took place in pursu Commissioners dated and for indemnifying exchange of property of Boundaries; and the balances standi several Townlands of ment and indemnific

The amount of sac favour of the Townl amount to be levied the rate made as Electoral Divisions respectively comprise (where they are again ded to and will be le on such townlands
as hereinbefore ment
in which such Townl

The Rate-books ar inspected by any per room. Workhouse, C between the hours o and Four o'clock in rates will be payable of this Notice.

Signed this 10th

August 12.