

M. Connor, removed to meeting of the Tipperary is day at Holycross, and to-morrow. Court-house yesterday institution at Claremont, which presided for the pro- every Christian heart.

Cook, of Paris, President conference, preached, both Wesleyan Chapel, Bel- was crowded to excess- ing the past year, Method- nt.

George Shea delivered a con- sion school house at Gort, nded.

fully acknowledges to have ans, Esq. and £1 from rds the purchase of a new of Kilfinane.

to acknowledge from the en, through Gamaliel Fitz- nd 17. 1s. annual subscrip- ale Penitentiary.

M.P. attended evening ser- the Redemptorist Chapel, Vanderra preached upon ed by his daughter, Mrs. re hospitably received by Castle on his recent visit, felt great pleasure at his the castle and demesne—a ted in by all classes in the is lordship with that kindly e hero, requested that the nce themselves by hastening hcooter until it perfectly

A. Dardis, Provincial of iars in Ireland, celebrated he Chapel of St. Francis, early, of Carlow, has arrived

Provincial Synod of Con- n by Archbishop Mac Hale t, the private sittings having College.

acent de Paul, St. John's nnowledge £1 from Captain Raleigh.

ool at Gort has been closed y Rev. Michael Nagle, Vi- Priest of Gort. The Rev. stant Curate of New Quay, f this school.

scribed 5l to the Mathew ewsbury £5.

Thomas J. Atkinson, Esq. of Cavan Garden, county Donegal, to Rebecca, daughter of George Atkinson, Esq. of Brussels.
Thomas Galwey, Esq. of New York, to Sophia Teresa, daughter of A. Galwey, Esq. late of Carrick Castle.
At Sydney, New South Wales: Arthur John, eldest son of the late Luke Kingsmill, Esq. Collector of Excise, Drogheda, to Mary Anne, eldest daughter of J. Kingsmill, Esq. of East Maitland.
John G. R. Anderson, Esq. of her Majesty's Customs, to Emma Wilhelmina, daughter of E. J. Labatt, Esq. M.D., of Lower Baggot-street.

DEATHS.

On the 31st ult. at the British Camp, light division, in Turkey, of cholera, after a few hours illness. Charles Henry Massy, Esq. 77th Regt., aged 20 years, eldest son of John Massy, of Kingswell house, county Tipperary, Esq. His sudden death is a source of deep sorrow to his relatives and numerous friends, by whom he was deservedly beloved.

At Albert Terrace, London, of remittent fever, on the 18th inst., Henry William, only son of Dr. H. J. O'Donnell, aged 4 years 8 months.

At his house, George street, after a few hours illness, Thomas William, the infant son of John Bold Bouchier, Esq.

In Henry-street, yesterday, of decline, Mary, wife of Mr. John Purcell, sculptor, and marble manufacturer.

Ellen Cussen, widow of the late Patrick Cussen, Esq. Cork, and daughter of the late Major Gerviss, of Braed.

At Rock View, Cork, William Harrison, Esq. late 38th Regt.

At Tralee, Miss Anne M'Gillicuddy.

At Liscreagh cottage, co. Cork, Eugene O'Sullivan, Esq.

Mr. Charles Jackson, late organist of the church in Tuam, at her son's residence, New Lodge Road, aged 86, Grace, relict of the late John Roberts, Esq. solicitor, of Waterford.

At Bailieborough, the Rev. Patrick Smith, R.C.C.

Randall M'Donnell, Esq. of Glenariff, co. Antrim, aged 82.

At Sanctori, Laurence, eldest son of Denis Redmond, Esq. of South Great George's-street.

Suddenly, by fire, Noel Henry, son of Mr Edward Batchelor, of Adelaide Buildings, aged 6 years.

Mrs. Sarah Todd.
At Blackheath, of cholera, Capt. Richard F. Rowley, R.N., son of the late Admiral Sir Charles Rowley, Bart. and brother of the Countess of Kinnoul.

At Retreat Cottage, Broughty-ferry, David Hunter, Esq. son of the late General Hunter, of Burnside, Forfarshire.

At Haddington Terrace, Greenwich, Henry La Grange Dougan, Esq. late Brevet Major 4th Royal Irish Dragoon Guards, in which he served 30 years.

Henry Delmar Van Toll, Esq. of Richmond Surrey, late of the 74th Highlanders.

Of cholera, the Rev. Edwin Proctor Denniss, Incumbent of St. John's Notting-hill.

At Paddington, John Watson, Esq. solicitor aged 66.

At Eastbourne, Frances, widow of Capt. W. Syme, R.N. Harriet, relict of the late Rev. Watsuhall Sneyd, Vicar of Newchurch, Isle of Wight, aged 85.

At Ramsgate, Samuel Willy, eldest son of the Rev. Thomas Perrott, rector of Walton-on-Trent Derbyshire.

At Margate, W. T. Monzani, favorite flute player of the Royal Italian Opera.

James Christie, Esq. of Banff, solicitor—one of the oldest practitioners in Scotland, also a celebrated geologist and botanist.

At Malta, Capt. Thomas Charles Ormsby, Paymaster 71st L.I., on his way to join his Regt. at Corfu.

At Montreal, of cholera, Mr. Thomas Cochran, Anthony Charles, eldest son of Shephard French, Esq. of Russelltown, county Kilkenny. Marger t Isabella daughter of E. Kearney.

Mr. James Carroll, dry goods merchant.
In Barbadoes, Charles Ferdinand, son of John Rice, Esq. late of Cork.

At Jakatalla, in the Neilgherry hill, Lieut. John C. King, 74th Highlanders.

In London, of cholera, whilst on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Bourke, mother of Dr. Bourke, of Kilfinane—a lady much regretted by her family and friends.

At Straffan House, Straffan, Mr. John Gibson.

At Mounttown, Kingstown, Thomas Sneyd, Esq.

John Thomas
Richard M.
John Gore
Solomon L.
Charles W.
C. Gore Jon
Henry Lan town.
David Lalor
les.
Nicholas V
JP.
Saml. Conke
Walter Her
Vernon Lar
Royal Na
Henry Cott deacon of V. L. Trey
liffe Rect
Richard C. fithmore
George Pea
lycross G
Richard Ca
les.
Thomas O'C
plemore.
James F. M
Patrick La
cross.
P. J. Morr
leigh.
John Mack
y.
William H
John O'Bri
David Dee
John Frew
To the C

GENTLE
thanks, fo motion, an
val. A res
these in Th friendship
all.
With th
Magistrate great body ratively lig line of dut honesty of will obtain as you best Recipro
even tho' feelings of