

Majority, by
enant Wahab,
by his Aide-
ge, Coldstream
logne, to re-
t to the East,
33,000 men—
required.
odded, offered
orps, in order
promotion to a
officers in the
ecessary to ap-
illpotts. R.A. field officers of
y being consi-
Lieut.-General
by purchase
d detachments
large guns at aster's 56 poun-
n a piece of the Colour-Serjeant
earing the flesh
2 unfortunate
ground. Pay
truck by a frag-
h and shattered
the injuries.
to Chief Com
9th, and Hon.
ndon.
thdraw the 10th
urkey, the idea
in its due time
arna.
about to erect
ner companion
fell at Silistria,
the Household
appointed to a o that rank for omarsund, is a Holyrood, hired
mander, arrived
fficers and crew,
up with severe Inspector of
esday, the 42d
at Crushern,
nd was highly
f the men, and
ich they went

DEATHS.

- Aged 29, Craven Lloyd. Esq. late Captain 91st Regt. youngest son of Henry Lloyd. Esq. of Farranrory, county Tipperary.
- At Valentia, county Kerry, Mr. Alexander Brock, Postmaster. Yesterday, at his lodgings in Patrick-street, after a short illness, Mr. Patrick Warren, buyer in this city for the extensive provision and Butter firm of Nesbitt & Co. London.
- At Bunker's hill, county Clare, at an advanced age, Mrs. Frost.
- At Dungarvan, Mr. John Foley.
- At Ballyhea Mills, Charleville, Mr. John M'Donnell.
- At Glandoran, county Wexford, Wm. Woodroffe, Esq.
- At Onagh cottage, Ballinasloe, Thomas Keogh, Esq. for many years connected with the general valuation of Ireland.
- At the residence of his son, Dr. C. Duigan, of Mullingar, Samuel Anderson Duigan, Esq. F.R.C.S.I.
- At Kingstown, Mary Anne, relict of the late Edmond M'Naghten, Esq. aged 78.
- At Clara Monastery, King's County, Brother Patrick Ryan, in the 32d year of his age, and 12th of his religious profession.
- At Clonmellon, county Meath, Mrs. Elizabeth Carolan, formerly of Dominick-street, Dublin.
- At Bellirgan Park, county Louth, Elizabeth, relict of John Peart, Esq.
- At Hotwell house, county Meath, Bartholomew Purdon, Esq. aged 78.
- At Coolaney, John Fenton Motherwell, Esq. solicitor.
- At Belfast, Ann Rachel, daughter of Lieut. G. F. L. Pasco, of the Gold Coast Corps, and grand-daughter of the late Admiral John Pasco.
- At Sloperton, Monkstown, Elizabeth Purdon.
- At Shacklewell, Lt.-Col. George Thomas Landmann, late of the Royal Engineers.
- At Noranside house, Forfarshire, Mary, widow of Sir George Macpherson Grant, of Ballindalloch and Invereshie, Bt. aged 77.
- At Brentford, Thomas Brutford, Esq. formerly of the Royal Horse Guards.
- At Burton Agnes, co. York, Sir Henry Rownton, Bt. aged 76.
- At Reigate, George Drummond, Esq. of Brighton.
- At Clifton, aged 30, Harriet Henrietta, daughter of the late J. P. Tudway, Esq. M.P. for Wells, Somerset.
- At Avening, Gloucestershire, James Harrison Cholmeley, Esq. late Major 8th Hussars, son of the late Sir Montague Cholmeley, Bart. of Easton hall, Lincolnshire.
- At Knightsbridge, of cholera, Elizabeth Ann Akey, widow of the late Capt. James Akey, R.N.
- At Chelsea, Sarah, widow of Alexander Dow Hogg, Captain 6th Regt.
- At Walwerth, Jane, wife of George L. Bennett, Esq.
- The Rev. Robert Knight, of Tythegston court, Glamorgan.
- The wife of Francis Charles Fitzroy, Esq.
- At Paris, Philip B. Webb, Esq. of Milford house, Surrey.
- At Boulogne-sur-Mer, Mary Anne Cecilia, youngest daughter of Robert Burrewes, Esq. of Stradone house, county Cavan.
- Capt. Mansel, R.N. of the St. Vincent, 101. in the Baltic.
- At Kavarna, of cholera, Capt. H. R. G. Knowles, of the Tyrone transport, son of the late Lieut. Knowles, of Liverpool.
- At Ward's Island, New York, Mr. Francis Chapple, son of the late Mr. Samuel Chapple, of Kiltrush.
- At Corby castle, Jamaica, Eliza, daughter of E. F. Coke, Esq.
- At Malabar hill, near Bombay, of dysentery, Capt. Elliot Tottenham Peacocke, 1st Grenadier Bombay N.I. and Acting Deputy Quartermaster General of the Army, son of the late Col. Stephen Peacocke, Scots Fusilier Guards.
- At sea, on board the Hampshire, from India, Major Donald Cameron, 94th Regt.
- Drowned, on Monday last, near Ballybunnion, Mr. James Meany, of this city, a young man possessed of all the qualities, moral and religious, which could adorn his species. He was loved and respected by those with whom he associated, as private friends or acquaintances. A most affectionate son and brother; his melancholy fate will leave a blank in the family circle.
- At Westport house, Mayo, Miss Bailie, sister-in-law of the late Marchioness Sligo.
- Wednesday, in Ellen-street, Mr. George Armstrong, assistant foreman mason and bricklayer at the new Floating Dock from the period of the laying of the foundation-stone to their completion, and where, by over exertion and immersion in water, he contracted a confirmed cold, which put a period to his existence, leaving a wife and five helpless children to deplore his loss.
- At Glenarm, of cholera, Dr. O'Neill.
- At Gosport, Rear-Admiral John Gourly.
- At Hastings, the Rev. Sir John Ashburnham, Bart., Chancellor of Chichester.
- At St. John's Wood, Richard Pyper, Esq., late 5th Dragoon Guards.