DEATHS.

At Merrion-square North, Dublin, the residence of his brother-in-law, Wyndham Gould, Esq., M.P.—the Rev. John George Wynne, rector of Lorum, county Carlow.

At his residence, Mountgale, Athea, on the 7th inst., in the 80th year of his age, Maurice Roche, Esq. sincerely and deservedly regretted. Mr. Roche had been agent to the Hon. Wyndham Quin, and for nearly 40 years faithfully and efficiently discharged the duties of the same important office on the extensive estate of Wyndham Gould, Esq., M.P. in this county. The large assemblage of all classes of his acquaintances who, at no inconsiderable inconvenience, suspended their temporal pursuits on the day of his interment to accompany his mortal remains to the grave, furnished a consoling evidence to his sorrowing friends how highly he was esteemed whilst living, and that his memory will not be soon forgotten.
