

DEATHS.

On Thursday last, after a lingering illness, at his residence, Friarstown, aged 66 years, Vere Hunt, Esq., ex-Mayor of Limerick, a gentleman of the highest character in every relation of life.

At Newport, Maryland, U.S. in the prime of life, to the sincere regret of his family and connexions, Henry, son of the late William Shannon, Esq. of this city, and grandson of Richard Bowerman, Esq. deceased.

At Varna, of cholera. Gerald Evans Fitzgerald, 5th Dragoon Guards, eldest son of Gerald Fitzgerald, Esq. Courtbrack, Limerick.

At Tramore, Mrs. Shannon, of Abbey-mills, Clonmel.

Mrs. Hickson, wife of Robert Hickson, Esq. Dingle.

In Sexton-street, Mr. John Hederman.

In Nenagh, Mr. John Cunningham.

At Bogmout, near Abbeyfeale. Mr. Maurice H. Collins.

John, eldest son of Mr. John Firmo, Coal-quay, Cork.

At Castletreasure, Johanna, wife of Thomas Mason, Esq.

At Kinsale, Garrett Arundel, Esq.

At Cloonafuncheon, near Gort. Mr. Thomas Dean.

At Ballyboy mills, William Delany, Esq.

Suddenly, of apoplexy, Mr. Samuel Webb, postmaster of the Blue Ball, King's County.

Alexander, son of the Rev. Singleton Colville Harpur, vicar of Aghaboe.

At Euniscrone, Mr. Peter Hopkins.

At Lisburn, Mr. E. Lennon, head clerk to the Marquess of Hertford.

At Avon, Park, the Rev. J. M'Keena, P.P. of Rathdrum and Canon of Swords.

Henry Wm. Devlin, formerly Assistant Surgeon 49th Regt. during the Peninsular and American wars.

At Rathmines, Elizabeth, widow of William Telford, of Greenville, King's County, Esq.

At Roundtown, county Dublin, Alexander Boyd Kennedy, Esq. only son of Capt. Alexander Kennedy, R.N.

At Gloucester-street, Philip Cannon, Esq. of Lakeview, Toome bridge, county Antrim.

Mr. John Lee, of James's-gate brewery.

At Brighton, Lt.-Col. James Livingston, late of the Bombay Native Infantry.

William Ewhank, Esq. formerly Captain 90th Regt.

At Paddington, William Griffith, Esq. barrister-at-law.

At Stoke, Devonport, Elizabeth, wife of Admiral Curry, C.B.

At Worthing, Mary Hay, widow of the late Vice Admiral the Hon. Philip Wodehouse, aged 62.

Mr. John Moore, the sporting publisher of St. Martin's-lane.

The Rev. R. Hale, vicar of Harewood, Yorkshire, son of the late General John Hale.

At Aylesbury, of scarletina, Annie, wife of Capt. George De La Poer Beresford, 16th Regt.

At Camberwell, Thomas Ruston, Esq. of the Corn Exchange.

Mr. Robert Wrigley, of the firm of Owen, Marriott, and Wrigley, corn merchants, of Manchester.

At the baths of Lucca, Elizabeth Martha, wife of Mark Noble, Esq. and daughter of the late Lt.-Col. Baynes, R.A.

At Gibraltar, suddenly, Katherine, wife of Brevet Major King, 13th L.I.

On board the ship Andes, of cholera, a few hours before the landing of the troops in the Crimea, Henry Alexander Thistlethwaite, Lieutenant in the 33d Regt.

Of cholera, aged 29, on board H.M. steam ship Victoria, off the Crimea, Capt. C. G. Sutton, 22d Royal Welsh Fusiliers.

At Port Sarnia, Canada West, Commander R. E. Vidal, R.N.

Of cholera, at Chicago, Illinois, Kathleen, widow of Walter Fitzpatrick, Esq. of Portarlinton.

At Barbadoes, John C. Brereton, Esq. M.D., and John C. Alder, Esq.

At Calcutta, Surgeon Abel W. Doyle, Peninsular and Oriental Company's service, son of the late Laurence Doyle, of Gorey, county Wexford. Esq.

At Ardnassagh, near Lougford, aged 77 years, John Gray, Esq., of Dalefield, county Roscommon, and brother of the late Colonel Gray, of the Rifle Brigade.

At Raleigh Cottage, William Barry, Esq., of Macroom.

At Courtown, county Wexford, Ellen, daughter of the late John Gough, Esq., of Ballyorly.

At Edinburgh, Louisa, relict of the late Earl of Hopetoun.

Lieut.-General J. G. Cuyler.

At Musselburgh, near Edinburgh, Captain D. Thompson, late of the 82d Regiment.

Gros de Nap
Glaci'es.
Ducares.
Which ha
turers in Sp
fore, be re
Finish.

133

Oct. 7.

FOR S
THE Lar within Four Pairs
additional o
yet put up.
of these, as
The Mills ha
the storage
and Offices Applicatio
mont, Clarin

Fren
A LAR
Also GEN
the Moderat

DI
Br
AS BAR

Samuel Gur
G. H. Mast
Sir E. N. B
Sir Robert
Sir George
Rt. Hon. G
James Fletc
Charles Gib
William Gla
Samuel Gur

Andrew Joh
Joseph M. M
THIS is t
FIRE
to the Assu be in course
at the Office
and after th