

county Dublin, to Anne Symes, daughter of the Rev. James Hay Waugh, Rector of Corsley.

DEATHS.

At Askeaton, on the 16th inst. Henry F. White, Ex-Scholar T.C.D., and late of Merrion, county Dublin, aged 76, father of William H. White, Esq. of this city.

At Millmought, Edenderry, King's County, Christopher Hamilton, Esq.

At Loughrea, Mrs. Macklin, relict of the late Wm. Macklin, Esq. and mother of the Rev. John Macklin, P.P.

At Nutville, Queen's County, Mr. Abraham Hipwell, aged 77.

At Carass, county Mayo, Mrs. Ryan, wife of Mr. Peter Ryan.

At Newcomin Terrace, North Strand, Dublin, Lieut. Richd. Aymer Coates, h.p. 47th Regt.

At Irishtown, Peter Slevin, Esq. Water Bailiff to the Corporation of the city of Dublin.

At Terrenure lodge, Roundtown, Mabella Evelyn, relict of the late John Black, Esq.

Mr. Philip Murray, of Ballynacargy, county Meath, formerly in the employment of the Post-office.

At Kilfree, near Ballaghderreen, Edward Costello, Esq.

At Boyle, Mr. Joseph White.

At Sligo, Elbanor, relict of Mr. Henry O'Connor, jun.

At the Parsonage, Carnclough bay, Margaret D. Wilson, daughter of the Rev. John Wilson, aged 16.

At Doudstown, county Louth, Nicholas Callan, Esq.

At Dumona East, Mathew H. Young, Esq. of the General Post-office, Dublin.

At Graystown, near Downpatrick, John Gray, aged 89, a member of the Downpatrick Volunteers of '82.

At Londonderry, Letitia, wife of Charles C. Beardshaw, Esq.

At Holmston house, Glennegaragh, Kingstown, the residence of Patrick Reid, Esq., Mrs. George King, of Ayr, Scotland.

At Seafort Avenue, Sandymount, Dublin, David Quaille, Esq. After a few days illness, of water on the brain, Ida Emily, the beloved child of A. W. Studdert, Esq.

In Annesley-place, Margaret, wife of Mr. Alexander Austin.

In London, Col. Sir John Clarke, brother of Charles Clarke, Esq. D.L. Tipperary—a most distinguished officer, and who led many a forlorn hope in the Peninsula, under the Duke of Wellington.

At Weymouth, Michael Lionel Westropp, Captain 53th Regt. only son of Lieut.-Col. Westropp, Adelaide place, Cork.

The Hon. and Rev. F. Hotham, rector of Dennington, canon of Rochester, and uncle of Lord Hotham, M.P. His eldest son, Sir Charles Hotham, is the Governor of Victoria, Melbourne.

At Rothieray house, Banffshire, Alexander Francis Tayler, formerly Major 26th Foot, and brother-in-law of the Earl of Wile, aged 89.

At South Lambeth, Sarah, widow of John Russell, Esq. many years Under Secretary of Taxes.

At Newark-upon-Trent, James Tomlinson Terrewest, Esq. late Major 3rd R-gt. aged 77.

At Wealdstone house, Harrow Weald, Emilia, daughter of Francis Damer, Esq.

At Brighton, Caroline, widow of Capt. Charles Conrad Grey, R.N.

Suddenly, David Toomb, Esq. merchant, Liverpool.

Capt. Maran, R.N. Superintendent of Deptford dockyard.

At Brighton, Henry Heath, Esq. aged 86.

At Shirley, near Southampton, George Baring, Esq.

At Hattogarden, Charles Edward Cox, Esq. aged 78.

At Surbiton, Kingston-upon-Thames, Lady Ellis, wife of Sir Henry Ellis, Principal Librarian of the British Museum.

At Westbank, Hillhead, Glasgow, David Smith, Esq. O.E.

At Nelson street, Edinburgh, John Mackay, Esq. M.D.

At Vauxhall-place, South Lambeth, Anthony F. Fearon, Esq. of the Stamp and Tax-office, Somerset house.

At Paris, Capt. Edward Wilson Kenworthy, of the Queen's Guard G. A. late of the 2d Madras L.I.

At the residence of her mother-in-law, Notre Dame-street, Montreal, Mrs. James Boyd.

Of cholera, aged 31, immediately after the battle of Alma, at which he was present. Major Edward Wellesley, 73d Regt., Assistant Quartermaster General, leaving a widow and two children.

In the Black Sea, of cholera, the Hon. Robert J. Annesley, Lieutenant 14th Hussars, son of the late Earl Annesley, and brother of the present Earl.

Of cholera, accelerated by fatigue after the battle of the Alma, Brigadier General William Burton Tylden, commanding Royal Engineers, with the expedition to the Crimea.

At Alma, Lieut. Tyler, 55th Regt.; Capt. James, late Fusilier Guards.

Capt. W. Lloyd, R.N. Civil Commissioner and resident Magistrate at Grahamstown, Cape of Good Hope.

At Bombay, Assistant Surgeon Wigstrom, 14th Dragoons.

At Peshawar, Lieut. Whelan, 5th Bengal N.I.

At Sydney, N.S.W. Anna Maria, daughter of the late Thomas Butler, Esq. Winterville, county Galway.

At Ballinacott Cottage, James Edward, only son of the late Rev. Edward Lysaght, of Carrigmore, county Cork.

At Athlone, the Rev. Samuel Gordon, son of the late Samuel Gordon, Esq. of Delville, county Dublin.

phers, and Bind
article, from th
branches, which moderate terms.
RENT LEDGER
BOOKS, Copying
Books, &c. cons
Account Boo
made to order or punctually atten
Cash.

A STEAMER
by Maw nearly new, and
gers, and tows w
towing on the R
Lowest price,
per hour.
Apply to Cap
Liverpool.

Hartigan

FOR Sale at to Forty f
carrying Hunter Parties having Auction to be h
day after the Gre
their entries on

N.B.—There
Repository durin
the usual way.

Auction

JOHN
WILL offer Inst, at
Wall and Custor
Goods, viz:—
Ex Columbus,
Quebec—1000 p
White Pine do.;
3000 first qualit
Planks and Batt
3 inches thick;
Ex Syphax, fr
Deals, Planks an Ex May, from
and Battens.
Ex Jane Lov
do., do., do.
Ex Europa, fr
Ex Joedres M
ing—5000 piece
Wohlfahrt and Pieces Memel Ty
Also daily exp
from Memel, wh Spruce Deals (if day.

10, North W