

dish Bradstreet Ruthven, R.N. who nds on board the fleet at the bombardopol, was the youngest son of the ven. His brother Walter had preed at Ferozeshah, in the military ser-India company.

M. Foster, of the Bellerophon, who nds at the bombardment of Sebastopol, Foster. Lieut. Greathead, R.N. of the died of his wounds, was betrothed to a t Malta.

Nov. 12.—Versicles and Venite, daily
12th M. S.—Te Deum, Boyce in A.
Anthem, 'Awake up my glory,' M.
leison, Tallis in E. minor; Creed do.; Versicles. Daily psalm: chant; 12 eve.
icant, Kelway in B. minor; Nunc dimit-em, 'I have set God always before me,' v 9 to 12.—J. MULLEN, Choir Master.
hop of Dublin has subscribed £50 to the hop of Dublin is to deliver a lecture Men's Association and preach at the on Sunday next.

Bishop of Down presided at the first Literary Society on Monday night at fast, when Professor Craik lectured.

of Kilmore has presented the Rev. An-rate of Cloone, to the Vicarage of Urney fe, vacant by the promotion of the Rev.
the Rectory of Cloone; and the Rev.
rd, Curate of Drumcliffe, to the Vicarage cese of Elphin.

Jonathan Chomney and Mrs. Chomney, proceed to the Crimea.—Mr. Chomney splain to the forces.

Wm. N. Willis very thankfully acknow-received for the Protestant Orphans £9, Miss Charleton, England; 10s. a thank Anonymous; £1 from Capt. Cranfield, and £2 a donation to the Ladies' Bazaar, Carbery.

V. N. Willis, secretary to the Diocesan Church Education Society, thankfully
£3, collected in St. John's Church; £4
Church, and £1 from the Ven. Arch-r.

Miss Taylor (Newenham-street.) was omitted amongst the contributors to tall at the late Protestant Bazaar.

OF MUNSTER.—On Wednesday last y met at Summerhill, Co. Meath, the 'Cullagh moderator. The usual examinaer, clergy, and congregation having been he Presbytery expressed their undimince in the Rev. Samuel Craig, of Sum-laborious and faithful minister of the Gossatisfaction with the report made, re-

George Harris Warren, Esq. son of the late Robert Warren, Esq. of Gloucester-place, to Sarah, daughter of the late Benjamin Applebee, Esq. of Snitterfield, Warwickshire.

At Birkenhead John R. Dealy, of Liverpool, mercant, eldest son of Lieut. W. J. Dealy, R.N. to Jane, only daughter of the late William Anderson, of Dublin.

DEATHS.

At Queenstown, on the 6th inst., sincerely regretted by a large circle of friends, Hugh Brady, Esq. son of Captain Hugh Brady, formerly of this city. His remains were interred yesterday morning at St. Mauchin's church, having been brought by train from Cork.

At Brighton Terrace, Monkstown, on the 8th inst. universally loved and respected. George Studdert, Esq. late Divisional Magistrate of Police, Dublin, aged 71. He was brother of Thomas Studdert, Esq. D.L. Bunratty Castle, and of Admiral
F. Studdert, Pella.

In Mungret-street, to the deep sorrow of her affectionate mother, Catherine Lucy, aged 18 years, daughter of the late Mr. William Russell, of this city, cabinet maker.

Jane, eldest daughter of Mr. Michael Carey, Douglas-street, Cork.

At Clonmel, Robert Davis, Esq. son of the late Robert Davis, Esq. of Birdhill.

Miss Bridget Finucane, late of Ellen-street.

At Killarney, Mrs. Crosbie O'Callaghan.

At Ballina, Mayo, Mary, relict of Mr. Anthony MacNulty.

At Tullyvin, county Cavan, Maxwell James Boyle, Esq.

Marianne, eldest daughter of Rev. Boyle Moody, late of Newry, deceased.

At Fairland house, county Meath, Miss Margaret Makenna.

At Trim, Frances M'Donaid, aged 90.

At Mountjoy-place, aged 89, Elizabeth, widow of the Rev.
Thomas F. Knipe, rec'o of Oldcastle, co. Meath.

At Randalstown, John M. Mahon, Esq. C. E.

Edward, son of Alexander Johns, Esq. of Carrickfergus.

The Rev. John Brown, Presbyterian Minister, Manorcunningham.

At Newforge, John Russell, Esq.

The infant son of Sir William and Lady Mahon.

At Leamington, Jane, relict of the late Charles Lynd, Esq.
of Mullan:ean, county Tyrone.

At Islington, Charlotte, widow of George Denbigh Hicke, Esq. Surgeon R. A. and daughter of the late Lieut.-General
John Ramsay, R. A.

At Stone, Wimborne, Dorset, Rear Admiral Joseph Pulston
Garland, aged 73.

Mr. G. Mogridge, of Enfield-road, Kingsland, whose writtings have borne the signature of "Old Humphrey."

At Weston, near Baldock, Herts. H. O. Roe, Esq. aged 93.

At Surbiton, Surrey, George Townley, Esq. F.R.S. of the Albany, Piccadilly, aged 75.

In Wilton-crescent, John Francis Norris, Esq.

At Brook-street, Grosvenor-square, James Reid, M.D.

Mr. John Esdaile Widdicomb, late riding master for 34 years at Astley's amphitheatre.

At Lewisham hill, Blackheath, Meliora, widow of Charles William Walker, Esq. late of the Army Pay office.

At Royal mews, Pimlico, George Lewis, Esq.

At Southsea, the Rev. Dr. Austen, aged 83.

At Florence, aged 28, the Countess of Strathmore.

Henry Fuller Esq. of Maraval, Trinidad, for many years
attorney-general of the island

At Umballa, George Taylor Fogarty, Esq. Surgeon 70th N. I. son of the late John Edward Fogarty, Esq. of Drogheda.

At Mandeville, New Orleans, Mr. Thomas Connery, son of Mr. Connery, of Dublin.

At New Orleans, of yellow fever, William, son of Dr.
Shannon.

At the Melbourne hospital, South Australia, Frances Maria, wife of Mr. Francis W. Wright, secretary of that institution, and daughter of the late Major George Wright.

At Kilkenny, James Butler, Esq.

Edward Irwin, Esq., of Ballinlough, Longford.

At Birkenhead, John H. Greene, Esq. of Liverpool.