

At Easter Duddingston-house, Lt.-Col. George Allan to Isabella, eldest daughter of the late Wm. Younger, Esq. of Craigielands.
 At Goadby, Marwood Leicestershire, the Rev. N. Hubbersty, M.A. to Eliza Caroline, widow of the Rev. W. Evans Hartopp.
 At Farnham, Surrey, the Rev. Robert Newman Milford, son of John Milford, Esq. of Cosver, near Exeter, to Emily Sarah Frances, daughter of the Bishop of Winchester.

DEATHS.

At Sandreave house, Kingstown, Robert Hedges, second son, and Edward, fourth son, of Thomas Stratford Eyre, Esq. of Eyreville, county Galway.
 In Dawson-street, Edmund, son of the late Sir Richard Baker, aged 26.
 At Summer-hill, John Lube, Esq. of the Middle Temple, barrister-at-law.
 In Lower Fitzwilliam-street, Martha, wife of Croker Smyth, Esq. barrister.
 At Sarahville, Kilmacthomas, R. T. Barron, Esq. J.P. Yesterday, aged 97. Mrs. Mary M'Carthy, many years an annuitant on Widow Craven's Alms fund.
 At Kantunk, Barbara, daughter of the late John Savage, Esq. of Cooligeela.
 At Clifden, Mr. Egan, brother of Mr. Andrew Egan, architect.
 In Dunmore, Galway, Mr. Edward Gilmour, victualler.
 The Rev. Andrew Phelan, P.P. Ballyraggett, co. Kilkenny.
 Anne, wife of Mr. Michael Mullins, hairdresser, Mary-street.
 At the house of his brother-in-law, Dr. J. F. Duncan, John Welsh, Esq. J.P. of Chivanley, Banbridge.
 At Montpelier-hill, aged 76, Andrew Persse Martin, Esq. late of Eagle-hill, county Galway, and father of the steeple-chase rider, Frederick Martin, Esq.
 In Aungier-street, Mr. William Sleater.
 In London, Charles Lewis, Esq. the able and intelligent Chief Actuary of the West of England Insurance Company for many years. His death is lamented by all the directors and officers of this highly respectable establishment.
 At Woodlands, Cheshire, Henry Osburne Seward, Esq. Lee Cottage and Rock Lodge, co. Cork, and Newcastle, Limerick.
 In Liverpool, Philip Horatio Townsend Somerville, Esq. son of Philip Somerville, Esq. of the Prairie, co. Cork.
 At Abbotsford, J. G. Lockhart, Esq. of paralysis.
 Eliza Hill, wife of Alfred Whaley Cole, Esq.
 At Chelsea, Frederick H. Durand, Esq. formerly Paymaster 40th Regt. and late Secretary to the Royal Thames Yacht club.
 Miss Ferrier, authoress of "Marriage," "Inheritance," and "Destiny."
 At Pedestal house, Southtown, Yarmouth, Capt. Manby, F.R.S. inventor of the well known apparatus for saving the lives of shipwrecked mariners, aged 89.
 At Bath Villas, Cheltenham, Emily Lavinia Lennon, relict of the late Col. Lennon, Madras Engineers.
 At Hatfield rectory, the Rev. Francis Joseph Faithfull.
 At Oxford-terrace, Hyde-park, Charles Page, Esq. of Oporto.
 At Liverpool, Capt. Somerville, a respectable mercantile trading master to this port.
 In Paris, Madame Salamons, the mother-in-law of Baron de Rothschild.
 At the battle of Inkerman, Capt. Aubrey Agar Cartwright, of the Rifle Brigade, son of Col. Cartwright, of Flora house, Northamptonshire.
 At the battle of Inkerman, Lieut. Wm. Henry Dowling, 20th Regt. son of the late Capt. Joseph Dowling, B.M. St. James's.
 At the battle of Inkerman, Lieut. Henry Hurt, 21st Regt. son of Francis Hurt, Esq. of Alderwasley, county Derby, and nephew of the Duke of Rutland.
 At the Military hospital, Sentari, Staff Surgeon David Anderson, M.D. late 9th Foot.
 At Sarawak Borneo, Wm. Wilson Brereton, Esq. son of the Rev. C. D. Brereton, rector of Little Missingham.
 At Bromley, Captain T. Liston, late 7th Dragoon Guards.
 * * * To Correspondents—"Josephine" is received, and shall have attention.

a Gentleman giving up Breed ag-d, by Sagettarius, dam M grand dam by Bob Booty, gr the Beau, great gt. gt. Dam l stinted to St. George.
 MICHAEL HART
 Sale at half-past 2 o'Clock.

Hartigan's Horses

NOTICE
 TO BE SOLD, at Hartigan's on Saturday, the 2d of December, property of a Gentleman leaving a wheeled Covered Car, the same guineas not 12 months ago.
 Sale at 2 o'Clock.
 MICHAEL HART
 Nov. 29.

Great Southern RAILWAY

THE Public are informed, that on DECEMBER next, a change will be made in the Rates of Charge for the conveyance of Goods.
 By Order.
 King's-bridge Terminus, Dublin.
 25th Nov. 1854.

TO GENTLEMEN APPOINTED TO THE IRISH MILITIA
AMMARMAM & KINS
 A notice to those Gentlemen appointed to those Regiments in the above Corps, that they are to supply the various Uniforms and accoutrements with the Regulations of the Royal Ordnance.
AMMARMAN & KINS
 MILITARY TAILORS,
 6, Suffolk-street,

Proposals for
 THE Directors of the Limerick Asylum will receive Proposals for the supply of Bread for the Institution with the following articles from 1st January, 1855, to 1st January, 1856:
 Best White Bread, in Loaves
 ... Round half quarters, and with Legs of Mutton,
 ... Ox Heads.
 ... Cutlins and Indian Meal
 ... Chandlery.
 Sealed Tenders, each containing a solvent surety, to be left at the Asylum not later than 12 o'Clock on Monday, the 27th inst.
 N.B.—Samples of the different breads to accompany the Tenders.
 The Board will not necessarily receive any Tender.