

DEATHS.

At Moklerstown, county Tipperary, Anne, relict of the late John Raymond, Esq. Thomas-street, Limerick.

At Sandville, in this county, on the 4th inst. Mary, relict of the late John Barry, Esq.—a lady most deservedly and generally regretted.

Saturday night last, after a short illness, at the house of her affectionate and devoted sisters, in Patrick-street, Mary, eldest daughter of the late Mathew Ryan, Esq. of this city, a lady endeared to her relatives and a large circle of respectable friends by those virtues and accomplishments whose pure lustre is best seen in the happy mirror of private life. She died in Christian peace, with the blessed hope of a glorious resurrection, through the all-saving merits of her Redeemer.

At his house in George's-street, Mr. Thomas Carmody, Confectioner—a strictly honest and industrious citizen, deservedly regretted by his family and friends.

On the 28th ult. at his residence in Newcastle, in this county, aged 56, John Harnett, Esq. solicitor. During the period of his professional career no man applied himself with more assiduity and zeal for the benefit of those for whom he was engaged, and whose business he conducted with strict honor, confidence, and integrity. In all the social relations of life he was respected and esteemed, and as a kind, attentive, and fond husband and parent his loss will belong and severely deplored by an affectionate wife and a large young family. His remains were interred in the family vault at Abbeyfeale, attended by a great number of his friends and acquaintances.
