

house, county Dublin.

At Norfolk Island, Francis Seymour Gaynor, Esq. Lieutenant 99th Regt. to Annelia Jane, eldest daughter of G. F. Haston, Esq. Colonial Assistant Surgeon.

DEATHS.

Yesterday, in Upper Mallow-street, William, infant son of William O'Hara, Esq.

On the 14th inst. of Hooping cough, Eliza, daughter of Robert Thorn, Esq. of Thorn-hill, county Tipperary.

At the Limerick Union workhouse, Mrs. Mathews, assistant schoolmistress of that establishment.

At Queenstown, aged 15 years, Mary Mabel, third daughter of Henry W. Wray, Esq. County Inspector of Tyrone.

At his lodgings, Evergreen, Cork, Mr. James Scully.

At Kilmenagh rectory, Oulart, Robert Jephson, son of the Rev. J. Meade Hobson.

At Arnistown, county Wexford, Mr. Laurence C. Ennis.

At Ballinaculla, Mr. John Connolly.

At Banagher, King's County, aged 83, Kieran Molloy, Esq. brother of the late Major Molloy, JP, Strawberry hill.

In Dublin, Major George Johnstone Lennon, formerly of Carlow, and one of the old Peninsular officers, having received the war medal and eight clasps.

At the Hibernian United Service Club, Stephen's-green, Capt. George R. Cammin, Adjutant Roscommon Militia.

At Waltham Terrace, Blackrock, of fever, aged 19, Edward J. Huson, only son of Edward Simmonds, Esq.

At Peasfield Terrace, Blackrock, William Roper, eldest son of Capt. Howard, 44th Regt.

In Kildare-street, Cecilia, daughter of Wm. Henry Porter, Esq. MD.

The Rev. John Garrett, vicar of Emlafad, and Prebendary of Ardagh, aged 78.

In Dublin, Robert, son of Major Harris, Staff Officer of Pensioners.

In Upper Leeson-street, John Power, Esq. Mrs. Abbott, Wicklow-street, mother of the much respected late Thomas Abbott.

George Papworth, Esq. of Dublin, architect and RHA.

In Eccles-street, Francis Whitla, Esq.

At Haddington road, Kate Teresa, daughter of the late Capt. Timon Meagher, of Nenagh.

Alicia, wife of Henry Fry, Esq. Fairy-hill, near Boyle.

In Londonderry, Miss Julia Brereton.

At Waterloo-road, aged 79, Mrs. Sarah Blundell Richardson, relict of Thomas Goodlette Richardson, Esq. of Derrygally, county Tyrone.

The Rev. Thomas Sanderson, MA, vicar of Little Addington, near Thrapston, Northamptonshire, for 42 years. He was the last male of an ancient family, and the vicarage had been held by four vicars from father to son for 160 years.

At Streatham hill, James Henry Shears, Esq. of Southwark.

At Sidmouth, Blanche, daughter of Col. Michel, of Dorset.

At Woolwich, Eliza Caroline, wife of Commander Stephen L. Crofton, of HMS Rosamond.

At Thurbyhall, Lincolnshire, Sir E. French Bromhead, Bt.

At Compton Wynyates, Warwickshire, Mr. Wm. Walton, land agent of the Marquis of Northampton.

In Jernyn-street, Lieut. General John Duffy, CB, KC, Colonel 8th (or King's) Regt. of Foot.

At Dullingham house, Cambridgeshire, George Francis, son of the late Sir G. Pigott, Bart. of Knapton, Queen's County.

At Greenwich, Mr. Mitchell, aged 79.

George Clements, Esq. late of H M Customs, editor of "Clements' Customs Guide."

In Sloane-street, Mrs. Duncombe, aged 92

At Bapton, Wilts, George Fleetwood, Esq.

At Brussels, the Hon. Edward John Upton, aged 33.

At Rome, Marchese Melchiorri, Lieutenant of the Guardia Nobile, and President of the Capitoline museum.

At his brother's residence, New York, Rev. Francis Newton Hurley, of the diocese of Albany, and a native of Kerry.

At Sydney, NSW, Capt. Stephen Dodd Norris.

District M

TENDERS are required for the following articles for sale, from the 1st April inclusive, viz. :—

Oatmeal per Stone

Indian Meal (Fine)

Salt per Stone.

2d Quality of Bread

Beef without Bones

From the 1st April to 31st days inclusive,

Best Milk, per Gallon

Forms of Tender for

District Military Prison

Tenders must be sent and addressed to Capt

tary Prison, Limerick

OAK

SOME prime OAK Woods.

Apply to JOHN SMITH at Newmarket, Kant. Steward there.

AT

AT THE LODGE

N

JOS

IS instructed to sell entirely Unreservedly the 26th MARCH, 1881, a number of well-bred Heifers, with some Shire Pigs, Farming Ploughs, Tacklings, Sale at One

Rathkeale, March

A

JOS

HAS received in (who has Let) AUCTION, on Wed at GLENWILLIA 12 Strippers, 10 In-one Ponys one Ja Pigs, with a number Sale

March 21.