

lecture on 'War and Peace' held at the anniversary meeting on Wednesday at the Rotundo, honorary secretary, read the larger income than for any 26 missions (seven in the missionary clergymen, 122 schoolmasters and 14 school of the report was moved by bins; and the Lord Bishop of use of the society.

of the Church Education Society, Lord Mayo in the chair, Rev. Dr. Trench, after advertisement committee, which after petition for a Parliamentary bill, detailed the number of and scholars 95,480, including 3,872 Roman Catholics, show-compared with 1853; income £44,528. The speakers at the . Hamilton, M.P. Bishop of h, Archdeacon of Waterford, and Mr. Napier, M.P.

son, curate of New Ross, co. brother-in-law, the Rev. John tted suicide on Wednesday at e retreat, Blarney, near Cork. he went to the dressingtable, a beneath his neck, then bend- e edge of a razor across his lood ran into the basin, which he deceased fell back dead on an.

Leeper, late catechist, is ap- e Church Education Society Kildare-place, Dublin.

His thankfully acknowledges ord, Esq. M.P. per Rev. R. tant Orphans.

plate, comprising a large ks, and silver tea and coffee ed by the tenant farmers of the Rev. John Rogers for his testimonial was accompanied Wildea, late rector of Burren- an address and silver salver promotion to Kilmaine. , tor, and Mr. Chas. Kempton dens for Nenagh. Mr. Wat- e new church rent free.

Siz. Sch T.C.D. and son of ipal of Abbey-hall Academy. Vice-Chancellor's prize for "The Battle of Alma.")

Royal Canadian Rifles.

At Belgaum, Bombay, Lieut. Randal Parker Mainwaring, 20th Regt. NI, to Ellen, daughter of Lieut. and Quartermaster John Sayers, HMS 64th Regt.

DEATHS.

At Mallow, of disease of the heart, Eyre F. Hutchinson, aged 66. Trusting in the merits of his Saviour alone for salvation, he calmly fell asleep in the arms of his risen Lord on Easter Sunday, in the full assurance of Faith.

On Wednesday, at his mother's house, Catherine-street, William Francis, only surviving child of the late Edmond W. T. Rutledge, of this city. This dear boy bore his illness with Christian-like patience, and departed in the full hope of eternal bliss.

At the residence of Stephen Sweatman, Esq. M.D. (while in discharge of his duty as Coroner). Franklin Kirby, son of the late Franklin Baldwin, Esq. of Lisarda castle, county Cork.

Suddenly, at Birr, Mr. Philip Kennedy, merchant, brother to the late Rt. Rev. Dr. Kennedy, Roman Catholic Bishop of Killaloe.

In Clonmel, Joseph Cochrane, Esq. Veterinary Surgeon.

At Doneraile, Mr. Patrick Minton.

At Tallow, county Waterford, the Rev. Eugene Condon, P.P.

At Orristown, county Wexford, Kate, daughter of Mrs. Aylward, and niece of the late Rev. C. Pettit, P.P. of Oilgate, Margaret, wife of Mr. Edward Gleeson, Nenagh.

At Waterford, Miss Gaffney.

At Carrick-on-Suir, Mr. Edward O'Cavenagh.

At Waterford, Martin Ryan, Esq. aged 76.

Mary, wife of Mr. Michael Griffin, Nenagh.

At her residence, Brunswick-street, Dublin, Mary, relict of James Bourke, Esq. Rathkeale.

At Grangegorman, Mary Anne Agnes, wife of Thomas L. Synnott, Esq.

At Cullenswood, William Griffin, Esq.

In Great Brunswick-street, Kate Martina, daughter of Martin Ayre, Esq.

In the Hardwicke hospital, Sergeant James Boulger, G Division Metropolitan Police, a native of Ardglass, Queen's Co.

At Grenville-street, Nannie, wife of Edmond Dwyer, Esq.

In Wicklow-street, Mr. Richard F. Mallet.

In Great Brunswick-street, Mrs. A. W. Levey.

At Fanghant, county Louth, Donald MacNeale, Esq. formerly Major 17th Lancers.

At Milford, county Armagh, John Mackey, Esq. aged 92.

Mr. William Maguire, of Mark-lane, London, corn factor, brother of Thomas Maguire, Esq. of this city.

At Stirling, NB, John, eldest son of Archibald Murray, Esq. of this city.

In Liverpool, Tempe, the wife of John R. Hoysted, Esq. and daughter of the late John Hoysted, Esq. of Waterstown, county Kildare.

At Exeter, the Lady Lisle, of Kenton, Devon.

At East Hanningfield, Essex, Lt-Col. J. B. Nottidge.

At Anglesea barracks, Portsea, Capt. John French Slegg, of the South Gloucester Militia.

At her father's house, Haworth, Yorkshire, Mrs. Escol, formerly Miss Bronte, who, under the nom de plume of "Currer Bell," established a reputation by the publication of Jane Eyre, Shirley, and Vilette.

In Lower Grosvenor place, Jane, wife of John Tarte, Esq. and daughter of the late Henry Thwaites, Esq. for many years editor and proprietor of the Morning Herald newspaper.

John Charles Constable, Esq. aged 85.

At Saltpool house, near Bath, Lt-Col. William James, late HEICB, aged 70.

Capt. W. D. Simpson, late 51st Light Infantry.

In St. James's-square, Bath, Admiral Buckle, aged 85.

In Kensington, Major Richard Henry Tolson, formerly of the 2d Life Guards, aged 78.

At Worthing, Antoinette, wife of Capt. Macintosh.

At Little Missenden, aged 86, Mary, last surviving daughter of Arnold Mello, Esq. London, banker.

John Suckling, Esq. solicitor, Birmingham.

At Maise hill, Greenwich, Fergus Lambton Graham, Esq.

At Edinburgh, Augustus Hahn, Esq. Hamburg, merchant.

At Illinois Town, St. Clair, America, John William, son of the late Capt. Ridgeway, Rathfrum, Tuillamore.

At Launceston, John Walker, Esq. Lieut. RN. Port Officer at Hobart Town, and Harbour Master at Launceston.