Thursday evening the body of Patrick Shaughnessy, a watchman on board the Ko-hi-noor steamer, at new docks, and who had been missing for three days previous, was found in the basin, having been dragged for by boatmen. Deceased was an honest man, strict teetotaler, and has left a wife and four children.

The Ko-hi-noor small Glasgow steamer, placed on the Shannon last year, by the owner, Captain Young, between Limerick and Kilrush, in opposition to the City of Dublin Company's boats, and which speculation proved a failure, left for the Clyde on Wednesday, but returned again yesterday disabled, having sprung a-leak when 13 miles off Loop Head.

The barque Minstrel has sailed from Barbadoes with a cargo of sugars for this port.
