

d to close Sales—

gars.

ld Congou Tea

Clock precisely.

ERALD,

mission Agent.

, Thomas-Street.

TO

hers, &c,

, Pictorial, nna-
rto. Cloth, £2 13s

LE, new and supe-
8 coloured Maps,

ly illustrated and
some and valuable

hin Pocket Bible
9 coloured Maps—

COMMENTARY, a ces, References, and 9s.

IBLE—the smallest containing 70,000).—

neat Pocket Bible
ry Stebbing, D.D.
9s.

BOOK, Roan, 2s. ;

K. (very small).—

Pocket Bibles and

Fleet-street, London
ERICK.

April 7.

DEATHS.

In Myrtle-hill terrace, John Murphy, Esq. aged 75, for fifty years governor of the County Cork gaol.

The Rev. Nicholas Archer Hoey, LL.D.

At Mount Pottinger, Belfast, Maria Bellew, relict of the late Capt. Higgin, 12th Regt.

Frederick, only son of John Francis O'Connor, Esq. Bantry.

At Monkstown, the Archdeacon of Kildare.

In Wexford, Miss Eliza Furlong, daughter of the late Dr. James Furlong.

In Nicholas-street, Cork, Mr. Patrick Barrett, Income Tax Collector.

In Tulla, county Clare, Mr. Patrick Shannon, Clerk of the Tulla union since its formation—a faithful and intelligent officer.

At Ballymacurtane, near Kilrush, Mr. James Simmons.

Mr. John Dowling, of Kilkenny.

Mr. G. D'Aubertin, Organist to Carlow Roman Catholic chapel. In Carlow, Mr. Stott Howard.

In Kilrush, Mr. Thomas Brew, formerly of Dysart.

Bessie Henrietta, eldest daughter of George Nelson Wheeler, Esq. of Annesborough, county Kildare.

Mr. John Miller, compositor on the Daily Express.

In Francis-street, Miss Bridget Hickey.

At Dromahair, Edward Allingham, Esq. MD.

Lord Viscount Templemore, aged 34.

At the residence of his son, Rev. George Alker, Preston, Lancashire, George Alker, Esq. of Burnet place, Drumcondra.

Capt. James Montgomery, late of Parkgate-street, aged 89.

At Beaconsfield, John Charsley, Esq. for 34 years Coroner for the county of Bucks

At the Rectory, Crendon, Bucks, the Rev. James Noel Pigott.

At Great Warley place, Essex, General Pinson Bonham.

At Glenlee lodge, Cheltenham, Lt-Gen. John Woulfe, of the E I C Madras army, aged 73.

At Blackheath, John Milthorpe Maude, Esq. formerly of Peckham, aged 76.

In Dorchester, Anna, widow of the late William Williams, Esq. MP for Weymouth, aged 79.

Suddenly, at Cambridge, Mr. James Savage, senior wrangler.

At Todenham, Gloucestershire, the Rev. Gilbert Malcolm.

Aged 91. Ann Watson, only daughter of the Rev. John Watson, formerly rector of Stockport, Cheshire.

At Irvine, NB, William Weir, Esq. Comptroller of Customs.

In Paris, Edward King, Esq. of Bath, barrister.

In Lisbon, at an advanced age, William Hickie, Esq. senior partner in the firm of Hickie son and Dagg, of that city.

After a short illness, while serving with the Coldstream Guards, in the Crimea, Edward, son of John Creagh, Esq. of Dromartin, county Kerry.

At the hospital, Scutari, Mr. Harvey Ludlow, FRCS. of Charterhouse-square, London.

On board the Indiana, coming from Scutari, aged 27, Carrick Darby, Captain 89th Regt. only son of Edmund Darby, Esq.

In Charleston, US, Cornelius Flynn, aged 21, a native of the county Limerick.