DEATHS.

At Cullina house, Newcastle, in this county, on the 27th ult. aged 80, Patrick Griffin, Esq. Blessed with a surprising constitution, he survived twenty-eight attacks of apoplexy, having been subject to them for the last nine years. Strengthened by the consolations of religion, his death was calm and happy, and without a struggle, retaining his faculties to the last moment. Fond and affectionate as a father, warm-hearted and sincere as a friend, honorable and upright in all his dealings, he takes with him to the tomb the esteem and well-merited respect of all classes, and his loss will long be mourned by a large and devoted family. It is only two months since we recorded the death of his beloved wife.
