

DEATHS.

At Queenstown, on Sunday, 20th inst. Mary Antoinette Russell, wife of James Russell, Mount Russell, Esq. JP, co. Limerick, and daughter of the late Pierce Shannon, Esq. Mayor of Limerick, a lady sincerely regretted by her family and friends.

At Tullow lodge, Tullow, county Carlow, on the 17th inst. Charles Crone Massy, eldest son of Hugh Massy, Esq. aged 17.

At Dysert, county Clare, Hugh Curtin, Esq. aged 82 years. He was hospitable to all who visited his house, and was the last member of a respectable family who resided in that parish for 220 years.

At the residence of her nephew, Dr. Griffin, Killarney, Martha Farnell Sandes, relict of the late Capt. John Sandes, formerly 9th Regt, who was cruelly murdered by the Kaffirs in 1846, when in the Cape Mounted Rifles.

Daniel Corbett, Esq. an old and highly respectable citizen of Cork. He was the originator of the Cork Exhibition.

At her father's residence, Margaret, fifth daughter of Kerry Supple, Esq. of Ballyhorgan house, county Kerry.

At Westport, Mr. Robert Hudson, bookseller.

Miss Rachel Swanton, of Sea View, Kilbrittain.

At Bally-M'Elligott, Kerry, Christopher Cronsberry, aged 101 years, and same day his wife, 105 years—married 80 years.

In Charlemont-street, Dublin, Mrs. Ann Magan, daughter of the late John Christian, Esq. of Monastereven, and relict of

W. Magan, Esq. of Donoghmore house, county Kilkenny.

Of disease of the heart, at Golden-lane, John Fortune, Esq. late an eminent distiller.

In Pembroke-quay, Mrs. Mary Glynn.

In Jervis-street, Jane, wife of Robert S. Chamberlain.

At King-street, Mr. James O'Brien.

In Mary-street, Mrs. Jane Ray.

At Garville avenue, Caroline, wife of Henry Hayes, Esq.

In Dawson-street, Mr. Brent Smith.

At Blackrock, Eliza, wife of Hans Peebles, Esq.

At Urlingford, Maria, wife of Mr. De Courcy Ridge.

At Mountview Terrace, Belfast, Harriet, wife of Thomas Lawson, Esq. of Leeds.

At Listoke, the residence of Robert Egginton, Esq. Elizabeth, wife of George A. Rotheram, Esq. Kilbride, co. Meath.

John M'Neile, Esq. DL, JP, Parkmount, Antrim.

Jane Sophia Simpson, daughter of the late Rev. George Simpson, of Loughgall.

At Hastings, Joseph, son of Joshua Watson, Esq. Ballyroan house, county Dublin, aged 21.

At Sussex-place, Hyde-park, Robert Chaloner, Esq. of Carlow, and of Guisborough, Yorkshire.

At the residence of her son, the Rev. Thomas Humfrey, incumbent of Frawden, in Lancashire, Catherine, relict of the late Alexander Humfrey, Esq. of Upper Temple-st. Dublin.

At Bath, W. Herbert Saunders, Esq.

At Pentonville, Mr. James Scriven, auctioneer, aged 81.

At Hetherlow cottage, Walton-on-the-Hill, Liverpool, the Rev. James Case, A.M.

At Canterbury, Mrs. Margaret Curling.

At Constantinople, Commander George L. Bradley, lately invalided from the Industry, steam store ship.

At Poonah, Lieut. and Adjutant Gillespie, Bombay Sappers.

At Nagpore, Capt. Stevens, 23d Madras Native Infantry.

October 22d, 1854, on board the Cyclone, on his passage to Australia, George Macartney-Cheyne, Surgeon EICS, aged 45.

do. Oat
bers, L

JUST
Inc
SLATES
Quality
Appl

IN

THE L
gus, cal
Park an lafooka otherwi
shell, o
minatio
otherwi
dolane
and th
cashell,
reen, G
rolds, I
Lands Carrick
nine a Molony acres in Cloban
Clonde
Clare.
Lands,
to take
Date

CHA
riage o