

A workman named James M'Namara was suffocated this day at the Gas house, Mountkennett, by falling into a kiln on the premises.

Sir John Blunden, Bart. is elected president of the Kilkenny Literary and Scientific society, in place of the late Marquess of Ormonde.

Sir Wm. Hackett, of Cork, received 225*l.* this week from the Anchor assurance company, for damage by fire to his stock and premises last month.

To be Let.

Five miles from Limerick.

ABOUT 100 Plantation Acres, being that portion of the Desmone Land of DOONASS, called the Park division, bounded by the road leading to Castle-Connell and Summer-hill.

This portion of the Land is planted and well fenced. The Scenery cannot be surpassed. A more delightful site for a Residence can no where be found. The Desmone and Avenue already formed. The neighbourhood surrounded by Gentlemen's residences and the celebrated Falls of Doonass within view. The Land is of superior quality, limestone soil, principally in grass, well watered, and sheltered.

A long Lease will be given to a respectable party disposed to build.

Apply to ROBERT HUNT, 79, George-street, Limerick.

May 26.

Zinc Ship Sheathing