

of the mischief that might result, and they were discharged with a severe reprimand. Three nymphs of the pave taken up on suspicion of larceny, were also liberated, there being no prosecution.

At City Police Court this day, George Connors, a deserter from the Royal Navy, who had enlisted in the Royal Artillery, was brought up and remanded for report to the military authorities; also Ann Mack, charged with purchasing soldiers necessaries; three drunkards were fined 1s. each.

On Saturday evening Dr. Murphy, coroner, held an inquest upon the body of James M'Namara, the unfortunate man who was suffocated at the Mountkennett Gas house. A verdict of accidental death was returned.

On Sunday morning two boys, pauper inmates of the Limerick union workhouse, in order to avoid attending mass, and with the object of gaining access to their parents, who were located in another wing of the establishment, secreted themselves between two beds in the dormitory, and remained there so long, before the departure of the other paupers to chapel, that one of them named Grady, was suffocated before his unfortunate ruse was discovered; and the other (Sheahan,) nearly shared a like fate. Dr. Murphy, coroner, held an inquest on Monday.—Verdict, accidental death.

At the new Docks on Monday, Patk. Trihey, a labouring man, while engaged in unloading the European, s.c. had his collar bone and leg fractured, and sustained other injuries, by a bale of old clothes falling upon him, as the hoisting chain broke.

The wife, son, and two daughters of an ex convict named Hannan, from Limerick, received a liberal remittance from him last month, and have sailed to join him at Hobart Town.

John Wheeler, Esq. of Bandon, J.P. has received an address from the inhabitants of that Borough, entreating him to become a candidate for the representation of his native town in Parliament. The readers of the Chronicle must have been prepared for this demonstration. Mr. Wheeler has accepted the invitation of his fellow townsmen with whom he is a deserved favourite.

His Excellency the Earl of Carlisle, acknowledges the receipt of Mr. Fitzsimons' pamphlet on the education of the Middle classes, expressing himself 'much obliged.'

Capt. Jerningham, R.N. yesterday enrolled four additional naval coast volunteers, and paid bounty of 1 guinea each to those enrolled since last year.

Lieut. T. Carew, R.N., the emigration officer at Plymouth, who inspected the John, lost emigrant ship from that port, wherein so many of the passengers perished, has resigned.

The Koh-i-Nor steamer last summer plying between Limerick and Kilrush, has been brought derelict into Baffins Island and is now in the possession of Mr. Hort, Receiver of Droits, Clifden.

of the mischief that might result, and they were discharged with a severe reprimand. Three nymphs of the pave taken up on suspicion of larceny, were also liberated, there being no prosecution.

At City Police Court this day, George Connors, a deserter from the Royal Navy, who had enlisted in the Royal Artillery, was brought up and remanded for report to the military authorities; also Ann Mack, charged with purchasing soldiers necessaries; three drunkards were fined 1s. each.

On Saturday evening Dr. Murphy, coroner, held an inquest upon the body of James M'Namara, the unfortunate man who was suffocated at the Mountkennett Gas house. A verdict of accidental death was returned.

On Sunday morning two boys, pauper inmates of the Limerick union workhouse, in order to avoid attending mass, and with the object of gaining access to their parents, who were located in another wing of the establishment, secreted themselves between two beds in the dormitory, and remained there so long, before the departure of the other paupers to chapel, that one of them named Grady, was suffocated before his unfortunate ruse was discovered; and the other (Sheahan,) nearly shared a like fate. Dr. Murphy, coroner, held an inquest on Monday.—Verdict, accidental death.

At the new Docks on Monday, Patk. Trihey, a labouring man, while engaged in unloading the European, s.c. had his collar bone and leg fractured, and sustained other injuries, by a bale of old clothes falling upon him, as the hoisting chain broke.

The wife, son, and two daughters of an ex convict named Hannan, from Limerick, received a liberal remittance from him last month, and have sailed to join him at Hobart Town.

John Wheeler, Esq. of Bandon, J.P. has received an address from the inhabitants of that Borough, entreating him to become a candidate for the representation of his native town in Parliament. The readers of the Chronicle must have been prepared for this demonstration. Mr. Wheeler has accepted the invitation of his fellow townsmen with whom he is a deserved favourite.

His Excellency the Earl of Carlisle, acknowledges the receipt of Mr. Fitzsimons' pamphlet on the education of the Middle classes, expressing himself 'much obliged.'

Capt. Jerningham, R.N. yesterday enrolled four additional naval coast volunteers, and paid bounty of 1 guinea each to those enrolled since last year.

Lieut. T. Carew, R.N., the emigration officer at Plymouth, who inspected the John, lost emigrant ship from that port, wherein so many of the passengers perished, has resigned.

The Koh-i-Nor steamer last summer plying between Limerick and Kilrush, has been brought derelict into Baffins Island and is now in the possession of Mr. Hort, Receiver of Droits, Clifden.

Principal Or
lads,
army
capa
Ge gove
on th
Co
and-to th
Th
from Th
Ensig
Qu
ed Pa ter.
Pa
Lieut
The
to Qu
A
the 3
En tepan
Lie
McGr
Dr.
of the
Col pay at Flush
Lt. sars, i on the Twe out pu
The
on Fri
centrat
The sage to
The Meeru
The nanore Lt.-C proceed
The
was on the bor
Majest
Lt.-C a lectur
and the Office with t
Ward,
Bastard