

DEATHS.

On the 4th inst. Anthony La Touche Kirwan, youngest son of the Dean of Limerick.

Suddenly, Samuel Perrott, of Castle Lyons and Cleve hill, county Cork. Esq.

At the Hills, Roscrea, Wm. Nassau Henry, son of the late Wm. Henry Birch, Esq.

Mr. John Burke, brother of the Very Rev. Dr. Burke, P.P. Clonmel.

Mary, wife of Town Councillor Casey, Clonmel.

At Blackboy Turnpike, Mary Anne, wife of Mr. William M'Callen, of the Ordnance department.

H. Richard Hungerford, only son of Thomas Hungerford, of the Island, Esq.

At Fort View, Clontarf, Samuel Morris, a member of the the Society of Friends.

At Clohane, aged 84, Mr. Gregory O'Kane, father to the Rev. John O'Kane, PP, Castlegregory and Clohane.

Suddenly, Dr. Finnucane, of Kingstown, from the effects of a collision in Nassau-street, on Friday last, while driving on an outside car.

Mrs. Frances Carpenter, relict of the late Henry Carpenter, merchant, of Dublin.

At Mont Ross, Donnybrook, Alicia Catherine Nina, daughter of James Jameson, Esq. of Airfield.

At Naas, Wilhelmina, wife of Mr. Thomas Dowse.

At Richmond-street, John O'Neale, Esq., aged 78 years, late Commander in the Royal Navy.

In Marlborough-street, William Perrin, late of Sackville-st. James Warren, Esq. of the Brewery, Monaghan.

In Dundalk, Mr. Redmond MacMahon.

In Leeson-street, Miss Kettlewell.

Samuel, eldest son of the late Samuel Dudgeon, Esq. St. Dolough's.

Suddenly, at Ballincollig, Mr. James Mulcahy.

At the Presentation Convent, Enniscorthy, Mrs. Mary Joseph Rossiter, the Reverend Mother.

At Lisnabin, Margaret Eva, wife of Edward Purdon, Esq.

At Annadale, Belfast, Alexander M'Donnell, Esq. aged 77.

At Jersey, where he went for the recovery of his health, Nathaniel Milling, Esq. JP, of Shanless, county Louth.

At Feltham, Middlesex, the Rev. Charles Champnes, Minor Canon of St. George's chapel, Windsor, rector of St. George-with-St. Botolph, London, and vicar of Wyrardisbury-cum-Langley, Bucks, aged 72.

At Dover, Capt. T. Beaufoy Leonard, late of Hunton, Erdington Warwickshire, aged 75.

At Weybridge, Surrey, the Rev. Wm. Giffard, rector of Weybridge and son of the late Sir H. Giffard.

At St. Peter's road, London, John M'ulloch, Esq. late Collector of Inland Revenue, Greenock.

At her house in Portland-place, the Lady Robert Seymour.

Dr. Gaisford, Dean of Christ Church, Oxford, aged 75.

Mary Pontet, relict of the late F. J. M. Pontet, of Pall mall.

In Liverpool, Samuel C. Blodget, Esq. formerly of the firm of Hill and Blodget, merchants, Gibraltar, aged 75.

At Landue, Cornwall, Thomas John Phillips, Esq. formerly 7th Hussars, and late Lieut-Colonel of Royal Cornwall Rangers.

At Vigo, on his return to Ireland from Malaga, James Ansell Leech, Esq.

At Paris, aged 14, James William Fortescue, only son of Anthony O'Reilly, Esq. Baltrasna, county Meath.

At Boulogne, Margaret, relict of the late Col. Craigie Halkett, of Lahill, Fifeshire.

Edmund Goodenough, Esq. Editor of the Malta Mail.

At Lyons, the Rev. James Samuel Pons, of the French Protestant Episcopal church of the Savoy, London.

At Little River, Quebec, William Ware, Esq. Provincial Surveyor.

At Lucknow, Constance, daughter of Capt. Fletcher Hayes, M.A. Assistant Resident at the Court of Lucknow.

MONTHLY MILITARY OBITUARY.

Generals—P Bonham; S Brown, York Lt Inf Vol. Lieut-Generals—Sir George d'Agnilar, 23d Foot; H Hodgson, E I C serv; J Woulfe, do.; W Sandwith, do. Major Generals—J G Baumgardt; F Gwatkin, EICS. Colonel—T G Egerton, 77th Foot, before Sebastopol. Lieut-Colonels—Sir H Pynn, CB, late Port Serv; J Back, EICS. Major—A W Byles, 56th Foot

CH
G
C A
the par
Car
An Tul
Mo
A nov
Cou
inse dul
any oth
Pur
clai
ann thin tha suc
suc
or and at t
Esc
tion
A red Per
in s
I S pro
SON
S Nic
Arc
Wi sho his
and late
and seiz
mar
Ma
I Nic
one
Co