

At Fort Murray, British Barracks, Dublin. Elizabeth, daughter of the late Capt. Fielding, of Capetown.

DEATHS.

At Killenure castle, county Tipperary, aged 73, Major Wm. Chadwick.

At Beaumont, county Dublin, on the 9th inst. Arthur Guinness, Esq. aged 88, beloved by his family and friends, and venerated by all who knew him.

Yesterday morning, at his residence in Denmark-street, aged 91, Mr. Patrick Harrison, master tailor, formerly of the City Limerick Militia, and one of the very few survivors of the Old Colony heroes.

On Sunday last, at Arthur's-quay, after a lingering illness, Michael, son of Mr. Thomas M'Mahon—a young man much regretted by his family and friends.

In London. Mr. Patrick Carmody, of the Customs department, a native of Ennis, and a gentleman very deservedly regretted by all who knew him.

At Aglish house, Cork. Richard Edward, only son of James Hingston, Esq.

At Buttevant, Catherine, relict of the late Rev. J. Hamilton, vicar of Buttevant.

Suddenly, at Queenstown. Simon Ring, Esq.

In Cashel, Mr. Edmond Dunne, brother-in-law to the Rev. John Conway.

In Carrick-on-Suir, James Cantwell, Esq.

At Carlow. Mr. Michael Jeffers, aged 84

At Carvsfort avenue, Blackrock. Henry Scott, Esq. formerly of the Rifle Brigade, in which he served in the Peninsula, and was severely wounded at Nivelle.

At Loretto abbey, Rathfarnham, Eliza Margaretta, in religion Sister Mary Augusta, daughter of Charles Haskins, Esq. Sydney avenue, Blackrock.

In Merrion-square. Mrs. Kezia Reynolds, relict of the late Francis Reynolds, of Sackville-street.

At the residence of her father, Sea View, Anne, wife of John H. Anderson, Esq. 49th Regt.

Robert King Isdell, Esq., for many years connected with the Inland Department General Post office, Dublin.

At Leinster-square, Rathmines, Susan, wife of Richard Hudson Courtenay, M.B.

In Upper Dorset-street, James C. Healy, Esq.

At Ballykillane. Mr. John Devereux, brother of the Rev. Phillip Devereux, P.P.

Suddenly, at Maryborough, Mr. Richard Harvey.

Mary Holden Benson, eldest daughter of the late William Patterson, M.D., of Londonderry, and relict of Frederick Benson, Esq. of Dublin, aged 76.

At Bundoran, Anne, eldest daughter of Wm. Cuppaidge, Esq. M.D. Castlereagh.

At Kesh, William Johnston, Esq. Fermanagh Militia, aged 19, only surviving son of Dr. Johnsten, of Kesh.

At Islington, Wm. Frederick Boyle, Esq., for 33 years private secretary to the late Duke of Northumberland.

Catherine, relict of Thomas Acheson, Esq.

At Kirkhill Dunbar, James Kellie, Esq. M.D.

Robert Edward, son of Major H. L. Playfair, St. Leonard's. Mr. Patrick Carberry, of Charing-cross.

Georgiana, wife of Hugh Davies Griffith, Esq. of Caer Rhyn, Carnarvonshire, and daughter of the Rev. Evan Morgan, vicar of Llantrissant, county Glamorgan.

At Grundisburgh, Mary, sister of Lt-Col. Allen, and eldest daughter of the late Thomas Allen, Esq.

At Constantinople, the Rev. Abbe Gloriott, one of the chaplains to the French army.

At Albany, America, Mr. George Skerrett, formerly lessee of Theatre Royal, Montreal.

Kitch

Sa
in ad

Ju

Gr

A

thur

Horn

Figa

very

A

New

T

and 12

now

will

the very any

A

Mil

Pov

A

at t

En

ne