

Murphy v. Stribley, of Limerick, for value of shares in ships, is fixed for trial in Dublin, next Monday, and several witnesses from this city will be examined.

In re Burns and Walsh, late Limerick drapers, a dividend of 3s 9d in the pound is declared.

Mr. Spaight this day sold a parcel of Indian corn partially damaged, at 10l. to to 11l. per ton, under Mr. Fitzgerald's hammer.

On Yesterday evening as a lighter, laden with corn from O'Brien's Bridge, was coming into the near lock of the canal, a quarrel arose between two men on board, James Mulqueen and Thos. Carey, both natives of O'Brien's Bridge. Mulqueen was under the influence of liquor, and Carey said he was not fit to be at the helm, on which a quarrel arose between them, and Mulqueen was thrown into the canal and drowned. Mr. Riedy, clerk to Messrs. J. N. Russell & Sons, jumped in after him, but failed to rescue the unfortunate man. Carey then ran away, but, when intelligence was given to the Police, Constables Mercer and Shiels started in pursuit and captured him. The body of Mulqueen was taken to Barrington's hospital, where it awaits an inquest.

At the City Police Court this day, Mary Johnson was sent to gaol for 14 days for immoral conduct near the military road, the Bench remarking that it was too bad that the unfortunate women were to be the only parties punished for these offences, while the soldiers were let go. Three women with children in their arms were charged with vagrancy, and annoying the officers of the workhouse. They were sent to jail for fourteen days each.

This day Mr. Clanchy, High Constable, seized two pigs at the market, which were in a tainted condition. He at once called on the market jury, who condemned them as unfit for human food. The Mayor ordered them to be burned, and fined the owner.

At Clonlara Petty Sessions yesterday, a man named Considine, commonly called "the Badger," was summoned at the suit of Admiral O'Grady, for poaching on a several fishery. Mr. Bouchier conducted the prosecution, and Mr. Doyle appeared for the defendant, and contended that the public had a right to fish there, and that the magistrates had no jurisdiction, as a question of title was involved. The magistrates ruled otherwise, and fined the defendant one guinea, and costs.

The libel case of Richard Lynch, ex Poorlaw In-

A E. Sp
Light and c
Coach

G E
and R
the R
by Au notify to the Jun

App
before

TO

300 T

T is the P up, a some Par requer

Ship a Job
Bedfo
Kenn