

The Rev. Dr. Graves, F.T.C.D. the M'Gillicuddy, and Mr. Aldworth, have arrived at the romantic scenery of Sneem, county Kerry, for the summer.

Sneem church was on Sunday crowded to excess, the congregation augmented by visitors, to whom the rector preached an impressive and instructive sermon.

The Rev. Arthur V. Watson, A.M., acknowledges the receipt of a further grant from the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, for the improvement of Kilcrohane Church.

The Waterford Protestant Orphans acknowledge 87. 13s. from the local Harmonic Society, net proceeds of a concert, and 8l. more was paid to the Protestant sick and indigent society in that city.

The Rev. John Kingston, late Classical and Law Scholar, Queen's College, Cork, son of John J. Kingston, Esq., of Bantry, has been appointed to the Curacy of St. Andrew's, Sunderland.

The Rev. John Farrar presided at the annual Wesleyan conference in Belfast, and the income of the Wesleyan Hibernian Missionary Society for the year was £5,539. The sum raised at the conference last month for a special fund was £8,315. Six superannuated ministers died in the last year.

STATIONS OF THE PRIMITIVE WESLEYAN METHODIST PREACHERS—JULY, 1855.

Circuits—Dublin—Thomas McFann and Stewart Gray, George Revington, resident secretary; D. D. Heather, travelling secretary; Alexander Stewart, editor. Waterford—Wm. Herbert, president of the conference. Cork—Thos. A. Jones. Bandon—Adam Ford. Mallow—Joseph McCormack. Kinsale—Wm. Flaherty. Limerick—Wm. Craig. Roscrea—James Herbert. Athlone—John Heatley and Wm. Lovett. Longford—John Ramsay and Alexander Williams. Boyle—Robt. Campbell. Clones—G. Hamilton and Thos. Hurst. Cavan—R. Kane, D. Henderson. Newtownbutler—Joseph Payne. Ballyjamesduff—Thomas Abraham, Robt. Johnston. Enniskillen—Wm. Robinson, Alexander Elliott. Maguire's-bridge—A. Campbell, J. Todd. Lowtherstown—J. Cullen, J. Kerr. Ballyshannon—R. Kingsborough, Geo. Heany. Springfield—J. Taylor, W. B. Monahan. Manorhamilton—A. Dawson. Londonderry—Wm. Armstrong. Newtown Stewart—J. Thomson, Wm. Scott, 2d. Charlemont—Jas. Wilson, S. Mortland. Armagh—Wm. Scott sen., Wm. Graham. Tanderagee—Robt. Wilson, R. J. Dawson. Belfast—John White, James Twin. Lurgan—Robert Kerr. Downpatrick—James Robinson, James Elliott.

Missions :—Summerhill—Thos. Maguire. Wicklow—John Wherry, one to be sent. Youghal—one to be sent. Kerry—Samuel Larminie. Templemore—Thos. Wilson. Queen's County—Robt. Levingston. Sligo—Wm. H. Mervyn. Coochill—Wm. Lendrum. Omagh—John McIlroy. Cookstown—Jas. Griffin. Aghnacoy—John Henning. Antrim—John Johnson. Lisburn—John Carlisle. Newry—Wm. Lindsay. Banbridge—Wm. Stokes. Dundalk—John Wilson.

The sum of £73 was contributed at the sermon preached on Sunday last in St. Michael's chapel, by the Rt. Rev. Dr. Moriarty, for the Mount St. Vincent Ophanage.

The Rt. Rev. Dr. Moriarty left the house of Jos. B. Kennedy, Esq. William-st. on Monday for Killarney, to hold a conference of the clergy of his diocese.

The report in Cork of the death of Father Mathew is untrue.

Archbishop Mac Hale appointed the Very Rev. B. J. Roche, P.P., V.G., to be Vicar-Capitular of Galway diocese, pending the election of a successor to the late Bishop O'Donnell.

Miss Bridget Ryan, sister of the Rev. Mr. Ryan, PP of Bruree, was drowned yesterday morning by falling into a deep pool of water, adjacent to her brother's house at Rockhill, where she resided.

TO BE LET,

ON the Lands of DUNKIP, near Manister and Croon, about 80 Acres of Prime Meadows.

Apply to Mr. EDWARD BROWNING, of Clorane, Croon. July 7.

Robert Phelps, Esq.

John T. Hutchinson, Esq. of the Commercial bank, New York, to Lydia, daughter of the Rev. Robert M'Lean, Presbyterian church; formerly of Newry.

DEATHS.

On the 10th inst. after a lingering illness, which she bore with Christian meekness, and in sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life, through her Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, Mrs. Morgan, of Rathkeale.

At the Convent of the Sacred Heart, Roscrea, on the 9th inst. Madame Aloysia Beveridge, second daughter of the late Lieut. J. Beveridge, RHA. and sister to Edmund S. Beveridge, Esq. of this city. Miss Beveridge entered the convent of that order at Mounttett, in Switzerland, in the year 1842, and returned (after having made all her vows), to her native land in 1853; since then she has been Mother Assistant at the Convent, Roscrea, where she endeared herself to all the community, as well as to the numerous pupils of that establishment, by her uniform piety, and solicitude for their improvement.

At Templemore, on the 4th inst John Hawkesworth, eldest son of the late Samuel Harden, Esq.

This morning, at his residence, Rose cottage, Ballinacurra, to the sincere regret of his family and numerous friends, Mr. Patrick O'Shea, many years lessee of the turnpike there, and universally respected for the even and honest tenor of his life.

At Ballina, Mayo, Jeanie, wife of Charles Tod Gilmore, Esq.

At Clonmel, Mrs. Power, wife of Edward Power, Esq.

At Newtown, on Saturday, Mr. Patrick Burns, a respectable farmer.

At Church-street, Ennis, Mr. John England, aged 91.

At Clontade, Ellen, daughter of late Eugene Ahern, Esq.

At Seskin, county Tipperary, Mrs O'Donnell.

Christopher, son of Mr. Nathaniel Betty, deputy governor of Nenagh gaol.

At Ballinrobe, Mrs. Hegarty, relict of the late Mr. P. Hegarty.

In Tuam, William, son of the late Martin J. Burke, Esq. barrister at law, Galway.

At the Royal Hibernian Military school, Phoenix park, Winifred, relict of the late Wm. Hemphill, Esq. Royal Scots, aged 76.

Mr. Wm. Molloy Baker, Kingstown.

At North Anne-street, Circular-road, Catherine, relict of the late Mathew B. Naghten, Esq.

In Lower Leeson-street, Helen, youngest daughter of the Rev. Wm. Lee.

At Kiltegan, county Wicklow, Dowell O'Reilly Clayton, Esq. late assistant surgeon 3d Buffs.

John Nicholas Wrixon, Esq. aged 22, only son of John Nicholas Wrixon, Esq. of Upper Leeson-street, and formerly of Summerville, county Cork.

At Drumcar, county Louth, aged 86, John M'Clintock, Esq. father of Capt. M'Clintock Bunbury, MP for Carlow. The deceased was the last surviving officer of the Irish House of Commons, having been Sergeant at Arms.

In Derry, aged 72, Mrs. Leonora Brown, widow of Thomas Campbell Brown, surgeon, HEICS, and sister of the late Sir Stamford Raffles.

Elizabeth Henrietta, daughter of Sir George Conway Colthurst, Bart. of Ardium.

At Pine hill, county Down, Elizabeth, wife of Lt-Col. Watt. Mr. James Marron, of Ballibay, Secretary to the Monaghan Independent club.

At Guildford, Surrey, Rear Admiral J. Harper, CB, aged 83.

At Dover-street, Robert H. Locke, son of the Hon. Locke King, MP.

At Kensington, Capt. John D. Mercer, RN.

At Poole, John Hatchett, Esq. formerly of Piccadilly. James Robert Houghton, Esq. surgeon, of Blackfriars.

In Leman-street, Mr. John Smith, for many years vestry clerk of the parish of Whitechapel.

At Edinburgh, Major Alexander Buchan, late 77th Regt.

At Pontefract, Capt. Charles E. Stainforth, West York Rifles, and late 7th Royal Fusiliers.

At Camden-town, the Rev. Professor Hugh Campbell.

At St. Helier's, Jersey, Emily Frances, wife of A. Crocker, Esq. Surgeon 1st Royal Regt.

Mr. Richard Roberts, Welch harpist.

On July 9th, at her residence, No. 4, Rue de Montaigne, Paris, Mrs. Steele, relict of the late Walter Steele, Esq. and mother of the Countess of Donoughmore.

At Leghorn, Peter Clark, Esq. late of the Island of Zante; and Ellen, his daughter, aged 17.

Killed in the attack on Sebastopol of the 18th June, close to the Redan, where he fell pierced with six wounds, Lieut. Langford Heyland, 33d Regt., aged 17.

Before Sebastopol, of cholera, Wm. Stillwell, Quartermaster 3d Regt. the Buffs.

At the Crimea, of cholera, Capt. J. Cortlandt Trotter, Land Transport Corps.

Before Sebastopol, of cholera, Lieut. Andrew Hill, 22d Regt. son of Ninian Hill, Esq. MD, Greenock.

At Constantinople, of cholera, Major H. E. Sorell, 81st Reg. Killed in the assault on the Redan fort, Sebastopol, Lieut. Owen Gwyn S. Davies, 38th Regt. son of David Arthur S. Davies, Esq. MP for Carmarthenshire, aged 21.

At New York, Denis Harrigan, a native of Doneraile, Cork.

At Stresa, on the Lago Maggiore, the Very Rev. Abbate (Conte) Rosmini, Founder and General of the Order of Charity. Aged 82, at Warblington house, Havant, Sir John Acworth Ommanney, KCB, Admiral of the Red.

At the Cape, Lieut. Adderley, 60th Rifles.

At Port Elizabeth, SA, Leopold Norman, son of the late Henry Campbell, Esq. 92d Highlanders, and grandson of the late Major General Charles Coliu Campbell.

At sea, in Bass's Straits, of dysentery, Percy Bateman Shewell, Second Lieutenant of HM's ship Fantome.

LAN will rec

Accordi
in the h
The lo
Each
and add
"Pro
"

July

THE

Lan

Acres Ir

of fifty y

miles of

mile-Brid

station fo

House co

Rooms, v

small out

respectab

of Offices

Apply t

mile-Brid

B

THE T

to rec

keeping in

Streets an

148 Per

the Borou

124 Per

liam-street

Asylum.

124 per

William-st

tic Asylun

Tenders

Council of

Repair th

Town Hall

day of Jul

Specifica

which they

City Surve

from 12 to

The rate

must not

nexed to t

Persons

security by

in a sum fo

conditions,

cation.

10th Jul

THE Bo

at the

day of JUL

tent person

to the Wo

rations.

The pers

by the Nat

School Ins

July 6.