

cently returned from his Parliamentary engagements, a tour to Paris, and the late week's trying and anxious business in Limerick, it is the general opinion that he may be spared for many a year of usefulness and happiness to his family and the people.

The summer is killing hot in the United States; the thermometer in the shade 92. At Boston, five fatal cases of sunstroke; and at New York, on the 30th of June, 13 sudden deaths from same cause, including Owen Early, Elizabeth Ahern, Richd. Fitzgerald, Joseph Fraser, Michl. Costelloe, and James Ward—all Irish. The streets were deserted by day, and at night the inhabitants were sleeping on the roofs of their houses.

George Brennan, Cork, passed on Thursday at Apothecaries' Hall, London, for practitioner.

A young girl named Mahony was drowned on Monday while bathing on the North Strand. She and two others went out on a plank, and one of them having jumped on it, the unfortunate deceased was thrown off and drowned.

Mr. Simpson, of Liverpool, has succeeded as head of the Magnetic Telegraph Office in Limerick, Mr. Scott, who has gone to Dublin.
