

At Bideford, William M. Dowell, Commander RN, to Caroline, daughter of Capt. Pyke, RN.

DEATHS.

Yesterday, at his house, Perv-square, after a protracted illness, George Furnell, Esq. of Ballycahane, JP. He filled for some years with the strictest integrity the important office of Treasurer of the County Limerick. In all relations of life as husband, parent, and friend, he discharged them in a manner worthy of imitation. His urbanity and amiable manners surrounded him with friends, and to his immediate family and tenantry his loss is truly irreparable. His remains will be removed for interment at 5 o'clock on Saturday morning. The funeral will be perfectly private.

Yesterday, at Kingstown, George Newcoomen, Esq. Captain 59th Regt., son-in-law of Mrs. O'Donnell, of this city—a gentleman much regretted. He never recovered a serious illness which he contracted in China.

On the 23d inst. at Rottingdean, Sussex, where he had gone for the recovery of his health, Col. Frederic Rodolph Blake, CB. of the 33d (Duke of Wellington's) Regiment, second son of the late William Blake, Esq. of Portland-place, and Danesbury, Hertfordshire. At the commencement of the war he went out in command of his regiment, which he led with distinguished gallantry at the battle of the Alma, and he continued to serve in the camp before Sebastopol until compelled to return home in consequence of a severe attack of fever, from the effects of which he never recovered.

On the 25th inst. in Lower Mallow-street, of scarletina, aged 4 years, Mary Kathleen, the eldest and dearly loved child of M. R. Ryan, Esq.

On Monday morning, much regretted by her family and friends, Anne, relict of the late Capt. John Campbell, 11th Regiment.

On the 23d, of water on the brain, aged 3 years, Mary, second daughter of the late Mr. Thomas M. Lloyd, Killelee.

In Lower Cecil-street, Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. George Tremear.

In Mary-street, on Saturday last, Mr. Marks Brown, a member of the Congregated Trades.

At the Lion hotel, Dangelly, of fever, Lancelot Peter, eldest son of John Bayly, Esq. of Debsborough, co. Tip., aged 13.

At Monkstown, Francis Charles Annesley, infant son of Randall Howe, Esq.

Joseph, infant son of Patrick Power, merchant, Clonmel. In Waterford, Mr. John Scott, cabinet maker.

In Fermoy, Isabel Wallace, aged 25, wife of David Wallace, Hospital Serjeant Depot Battalion.

At Caherduff, Ennistymon, Rebecca, relict of the late Mr. Anthony Davoren.

At Ballybricken, county Waterford, Mrs. Power, mother of the Rev. W. Power, Catholic curate.

In Carlow, Georgina Frances, daughter of the Rev. David Henry Scott.

In Mount Bellew, after a long and painful illness, the Rev. F. Waldron, RCC.

At Grenville-street, Dublin, Eleanor, relict of John Carolan, Esq.

At Cabra terrace, Thomas Edwards, Esq. In Belfast, Mr. John Wallace.

At Portrush, Mr. James Hamilton, innkeeper.

At Lansdowne place, Brighton, Pierce Power, Esq. Lackin, county Waterford.

At Cheltenham, Isabella, relict of the late Wm. Tenison, Esq. of Lough Bawn, Monaghan.

At Abbethune, aged 76, Lieut-General Archibald Watson, of the Hon. East India Company's service.

At Islington, Isaac Jones, Esq. of the Stock Exchange.

At Slingsby, near Malton, the Rev. Wm. Walker, MA, rector of Slingsby, and chaplain to the Earl of Carlisle.

In Upper Belgrave-place, London, Elizabeth Alice, wife of Charles Nixon, Esq. CE, aged 34.

At Lausanne, aged 19, Antony Maurice Ashley, third son of the Earl of Shaftesbury.

At Kadikoi, in the Crimea, Malcolm Currie Ancell, Esq. Assistant Surgeon 11th Hussars.

At sea, on board the Clyde, transport, returning invalided from the Crimea, the Rev. Robert Freeman, MA.

At Wayne, Pennsylvania, Mrs. Greeley, mother of Florence Greeley, Esq. editor of The New York Tribune, aged 68.

THE COALS are reported for Dryin
ted for Kitchen Range
The CULM will pro
You.

THO

KING

TO

FOR A T

SPRING

WITH Ninety A sure) in a hig
within three miles of
miles of a Railway S
the Grand Canal.

The House contains Morning room, 6 B case and Lobbies; also Servants' Hall and Se
does not require any
having been lately
present Proprietor.

There is an excellen
there are also suitable
and an inclosed yard,
reception of any gent

The Steward will s
For terms apply to
Ely Place, Dublin;
House, Philipstown
JAMES MAR

Hartigan's

FOR Private Sale,

SATURDAY next,

going to reside in Du

No. 1—A Thorough

high; a Trained

has carried a Lady

No. 2—A Handsome

Arthur, 15 hands

Trained to carry a

The above Lot are so

Surgeon's opinion.

TENDERS will b

TRIBUT LUNATIO

on MONDAY, the 3rd

and Repairing SHO

months from the 13t

13th 1856.

Tenders will also l

Institution with CO

125 do. of Scotch.