

draft and she got the smallest public fund. The late the particulars request that some her, either from rces placed at the assistance of the ed in the war. and consideration e children. The nt Schoolmistress o successor to be sufficient.

Borrisokane union. ay, a young boy, fourteen days, for "the cock of a erling, Charlotte's- of its contents on ed with offering a . Peacocke's shop, excited, the owner before they arrived, he pin, and as it owner appearing.

ay, Mary Sheehan onment. for being Edwd. O'Donnel, . James Donohue 6d. or 24 hours up by a watch- iven in charge to ated he had robbed who did not appear ution the prisoner emorialled the Lord of the Town's Im-ced in this district. strong on the wing. against the country ree of our Subscri- get the CHRONICLE, last.

l the seat of War, events of the cam- appropriate military fashionable company s, on Monday even- upied in boxes, pit, l very much pleased d of the Kilkenny ring the evening.— ion will take place

t, has returned to ar ia the provinces,

Esq. Ordnance Storekeeper.

In San Francisco, Mr. Wm. Brantly Furman, of Sumter district, South Carolina, to Jane Mary, daughter of John S. Graham, of Edgeworthtown, formerly of Carrick-on-Suir.

At Sydney, NSW, William Colville Hall, Esq. late of Alnwick, Northumberland, to Kate, daughter of Wm. Knoeker Ratcliffe, Esq. Lieut. hp, of Bantry, co. Cork.

DEATHS.

At Dundrum, Cashel. of croup, on the 22d inst. Crofton Henry, sixth son of Richard Uniacke Bayly, Esq. aged 5 years.

At Castletownsend, aged 87. Mary, relict of the late Rev. Arthur Herbert, of Myross Wood, and daughter of the late Thomas Herbert, Esq. Muckruss abbev. Killarney.

In Lower Sackville-street, Dublin. Julianna, daughter of the late James Blake Butler, Esq. Samer park, co. Clare, aged 20.

At Salt hill. Margaret, relict of the late Col. Bryan, of Jenkinstown, Kilkenny.

At Waterford. Mr. Anthony Power, aged 84 years.

In Youghal. Mr. William Verlin.

Of scariatina, Howard Smith, son of the Archdeacon of Connor, aged 12 years.

At an advanced age, in Clonmel, Miss Anne Ryan.

In Colony-street. Mr. Edward Doherty, accountant.

Mr. Simon Riordan, of Bottomstown, near Hospital, a respectable farmer.

At Kingstown. Thomas Henry Johnson, Esq. of Ballymaesh, county Antrim, aged 27

At Beech hill, Dublin, Mr. George Walker

At North-street, the residence of her brother, Mr. Joseph Nagle, Margaret, only daughter of Mr. James Nagle, of Poulkerry, parish of Toomavarrh, county Tipperary, and sister of the Rev. P. Nagle, Nenagh

Mary Ann, wife of John Fraser, Esq. County Surveyor for Donegal.

At Garville avenue, Rathmines. John English, Esq.

At Newport, Mayo, the Rev. J. Grogan, R C curate.

At St. Catherine's, Killybegs. of malignant scarlet fever. Alexander, aged 17 years, youngest son of the Rev. William Lodge, rector of Killybegs.

In Boyle, Elizabeth, relict of the late Henry Fry, Esq. of Frybrook.

At Coleraine, Miss Hetty Robb, aged 84.

At his brother's residence, Victoria place, Belfast, of apoplexy, Thomas Lyle, Esq.

At 5, West-square, London, aged 32, Richard, only son of Edmond Fennell, Esq. formerly Banker and Marshal of the city of Limerick.

Vice Admiral Repington, brother of Lord Heytesbury, and formerly MP for Tamworth.

At Woolwich, Jane Helen, second daughter of Lt-Col. Anthony Benn, Royal Artillery.

At Guildford, John Mount, Esq. aged 80.

Off Broadstairs, by the upsetting of a boat, Charles Griffiths, son of Major Griffiths, Royal Artillery.

At Eden grove, Holloway, Capt. W. J. Oliver, RN.

At Upper Porchester-street, Hyde-park, Capt. James Evans, late of the Royal Artillery.

At Tunbridge castle, accidentally drowned, Jane, wife of Wm. Fred Wolley, Esq. of Campden house, Kensington.

The Rev. T Philpott, rector of Pedmore, aged 95.

At Ramsgate, Wm. H. S. George, Captain East Kent Militia, and a Deputy Lieutenant for the county of Kent.

At Boulogne-sur-Mer, Richard Edward, son of the Rev. Richard E. Keene.

At Frankfort-on-the-Maine, Emily, wife of Wm. Leigh Brook, Esq. of Meltham hall, near Huddersfield: Also, at Cologne, W. Leigh Brook, Esq. Deputy Lieutenant and Magistrate for the West Riding of Yorkshire—both suddenly.

Robert H. Boyd, Esq. son of John Boyd, Esq. of Dundooan house, on his return from the Baltic.

At Hobart Town, Brevet Lt-Col. Reid, 99th Regt.

At Peer Pointee, Bengal, killed whilst accompanying a detachment against the Santhal rebels, Lawrence, eldest son of the Rev. F. Braddon, vicar of St. Mary's, Sandwich, Kent.

At Ballarat, Melbourne, Arthur Henry Bayly.

Limerick direct below, returning from Waterford at 7 15 p.m.

FROM LIMERICK

Third Class, 4p....2nd

Fares to Waterford and back

Departure from Limerick

Arrival at Pallas

.. Tipperary,

.. Cahir,

.. Clonmel,

.. Carrick,

.. Grange,

.. Waterford,

.. Kilkenny.

Passengers wishing may do so. Any pa

class than that for w travelling without a

ordinary fares from t

Trains will run in connection with th

horse long cars will b gers to and from Du

Limerick Termin

24th Sept. 1855

County of

SIR,

WHEREAS the Limerick has

GEORGE FURNELL, L

trates, being empow the Treasurership of such proceedings th said County be filled

this case made and

To

EDMOND GA

Grand Jur

Pursuant to the hereby request a M

County of Limerick Limerick, on WED

next, at the hour o pose of electing a T

room of GEORGE I to the 4th George

Se

To all whom it n