

Military Surgeon to the Governor General, to Elizabeth Hutchinson, daughter of the late Major General Fearon, CB.

DEATHS.

This morning, at his house in George's-street, after a short illness, in his 87th year, Thomas Roche, Esq. elder brother of William Roche, Esq. MP for this city, deceased, and surviving partner of the late highly respectable and independent Bank of Thomas and William Roche, of Limerick, the only one, probably, in the South of Ireland, that passed through the disastrous commercial crash of private banks 40 years ago, with perfect honor and integrity. Mr. Thomas Roche was, like his brothers, a gentleman of highly cultivated mind, and of strict moral rectitude in all his extensive business transactions. His domestic life was pure and irreproachable, his politics ever liberal and consistent. The most tender and affectionate filial solicitude unceasingly watched him in advanced age, and his last moments were hallowed by the sacramental rites of the Church. His remains will be interred in the family vault at the Cathedral on Tuesday morning, at 8 o'clock.

Yesterday, at Ballingoola glebe, in this county, at an advanced age, the Rev. Dr. Fitzgerald, Vicar of Caherooney, diocese of Emly. He was loved and respected by all creeds and classes for the even tenor of his life. "Love one another" was the precept of his unostentatious yet not unprofitable ministry in the Church, and his own peaceful path a model of the Divine command he so loved to inculcate with brethren of all Christian denominations.
