

R. Mitchell, 27th February.
William F. Seymour, 5th March.
H. H. Jones, 12th March.
William E. Massey, 19th March.
Honorable and Rev. Frederick Gould, Archdeacon, brother of the Countess of Dunraven, in-law of the Earl of Eglinton, lately tenant of Ireland, is to preach the annual mid of the Limerick Protestant Orphan on the approaching Spring Assizes. The service preached in Saint Michael's Parish

Treasurer of the Limerick Protestant Orphan Society fully acknowledges the receipt of the following contributions in aid of the building Fund, viz. Mr. Dwyer Esq. £1; Miss Susan Massey, £5; Mr. Green Esq., £10; George Hickson Esq., £2; Butler £2, Frank Fosbery Esq. £2; Mr. Russell, Esq., £1; William H. Gabbett, Esq. £3; Rev. Edward Croker, £1; Mr. Kennedy, £1; John F. Evans, £1; Miss F. Evans, £1; Miss Evans, 5s.

W. N. Willis very thankfully acknowledges on behalf of the Protestant Orphan Society the munificent contribution of 2s 7d from Adare Association, per the Countess of Dunraven, Treasurer; £17 5s from the Ladies' Association, per Rev. Henry A Sadleir; £10 from the Hon. Lady Maude, England; and £1 from Miss L. Eaton.

Mr. Gould has contributed £25 towards the building of the Orphan Hall, per John Brown Esq. The committee of the Protestant Orphan Society will meet on Tuesday next at the Training school St Johns

George Gough Gubbins, aided by the late Crone Bequest, distributed one hundred yards of blankets, calico, and flannels to the parishes of the parishes, during the month of February. Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Walker, Mr. Crone, Mrs. Berry, and Miss Scanlan, kindly aided and managed for the poor shop for the past year by their exertions, greatly contributed to the relief of the poor throughout the parish.

A lecture of the Protestant Young Men's Society, as appears by our advertising columns, will be delivered in their rooms, 56, George-street, by Mr. Millington, Esq., (one of the Honorary Secretaries) on next Tuesday, on a subject of deep interest at the present time—"The Religions of China."

At Westport, Henry W. Ramsbottom, Esq. of Murrock Lodge, Queen's County, to Nanny, eldest daughter of W. B. Stephens, Esq. of Westport.

In St. Mary's church, Liverpool, John F. Knipe, Esq. son of the late Capt John Knipe, 5th Dragoon Guards, Queen's County, to Lucy, daughter of Wm. Whitby, Esq. London.

In Glasgow, James Wedderburn Oghvie, Esq. Captain HM 25th Regt. to Catherine Lilius Harriet, only daughter of Wm. Ramsay, Esq. Professor of Humanity in the University of Glasgow.

At Nice, Major George Brydges Rodney, Royal Marines, son of the late Hon. John Rodney, to Isabella Elizabeth, daughter of Major General Marcus Beresford.

At Wollongong, New South Wales, William Shone, Esq. Surveyor General's Department, second son of the late Samuel Shone, Esq. of Galway, to Mary, daughter of the late John Osborne, Esq. RN, Garden-hill, Illawarra.

DEATHS.

On the 29th inst. at Clarence house, the residence of her son-in-law, Charles Going, Esq. at the advanced age of 86, Letitia, relict of the late James Johnston Stony, Esq. of Oakley park, King's County, and eldest daughter of the late Richard Going, Esq. of Bird-hill house, county Tipperary.

Last night, at his residence, Lower C-oil-street, after a few days illness, Mr. Garrett Carroll, ship chandler and spirits merchant, deeply regretted by his family and friends.

Yesterday, at Meelick, Mr. William Roche, a most respectable and independent farmer.

On Sunday, in Windmill-street, Mrs. O'Shaughnessy, wife of Mr. James O'Shaughnessy, Tide Waiter—a woman greatly and deservedly esteemed by all who knew her.

At Fortwilliam, county Tipperary, Miss Wilhelmina E. Crawford, third daughter of the late Wm. Crawford, Esq.

On Tuesday last, at Longford castle, Mr. Martin Ryan, a very respectable farmer, leaving a wife and 8 children to deplore his loss.

In Cork, the Rev. Michael Guinness, CC

In Caherciveen, Louise, young daughter of John Spotswood, Esq. Corabeg house, Valencia.

At her father's residence, Castle street, Tralee, of decline, aged 16, Mary, daughter of Mr. Morto Hurly, grocer.

In Lower Sackville-street, of disease of the heart, William Bell Herron, Esq.

At High Beach, Frances Cockburn, Viscountess Valencia.

At Exmouth, aged 89, la Comtesse de Vismes, widow of Col Count de Vismes, of the Coldstream Guards.

At Tracy park, Gloucestershire, General Sir Wm. Gabriel Davy CB, KCB, Colonel 1st Bat. 60th Regt aged 77.

At Tunbridge wells, Mrs. Harriett Waghorn, widow of Lieut Thomas F. Waghorn.

At Clifton, near Bristol, the Rev. Wm. Bennett, rector of Cheam, Surrey.

In Cheltenham, Capt. Wm Consens, late of the HEICS.

At Windsor, Mary Jane, wife of the Rev. William Canning, canon of Windsor.

At Sheerness, after a premature confinement, Ellen, wife of John W. Baker, Esq. of the Engineer department at that port.

In Exeter, Anne, relict of the Rev. James Dunn.

At Boulogne, France, widow of Col. Patrick Maxwell.

At Sydney, Thomas Lyons, late of Limerick.

At Hobart-town, Van Diemen's Land, aged 42, George Burton, son of the late Major George Burton Phillipson.

Table, Tapestry, Chariot, February, by General of

To Sell by U the entire of have been in order.

Is furnished with, 2 lined telescope table and stretchers, Brussels carpets, table

Rosewood sofa, card, a stand, rose striped damask, 2 loungers of fancy arm chairs, sets polished worked stone carpet for the chimney glass

State and flock mattresses, terpanes, w dressing table, towel horse rugs, window lounge.

Morning a great quantity, stand, 2 gas lamp, scuttle, cut The Kit Phaeton bridles, quantity of

In order to pay the

Feb. 2.